

mocking the college community for just one week

Most advertising, Personals and Classifieds are real in the Bacon, everything else is fake!

The Bacon

Most advertising, Personals and Classifieds are real in the Bacon, everything else is fake!

May 15, 1995 • WILLIAM PATERSON COLLEGE

College to hire replacement players

By Yousen Lyin

STAFF WRITER

In a surprising move, WPC college president, Arnold Speert has announced that he will "not negotiate with striking unions" and will be hiring replacement baseball players to fill the vacant slots.

The colleges five unions walked out on June 1 when negotiations over a new contract collapsed. The unions had been working without a contract for over six months and according to a representative "Just couldn't work anymore."

The move to strike did not come as a surprise to the college chief negotiator. "We saw it coming, especially when they started bringing games boys to the negotiating table."

The decision to hire the replacement baseball players, many of whom have been out of work since the baseball season resumed, was a difficult one. "The last thing I wanted to do was loose the fine people working at the college," said Speert. "However, the college has to be able to operate."

According to an administration source, the college also sees the hiring of the baseball players as a possible source of future revenue. "All I can say is that the college is currently investigating holding games and charging admission," the source told The Bacon.

"I am furious," said one union member. "What type of place is this and on top of that I can pitch better than most of those guys."

Most students interviewed seemed to be indifferent about the situation.

"What's the difference" said one student, "I generally sleep in class anyway."

The players will be coming from as far away as Quebec. Besides their extensive knowledge of baseball some will also be bring knowledge in other areas.

Board of Trustees members discuss the future of striking college workers.

According to league records some of the hired players include farmers, heavy machine operators, transportation directors and crowd direction directors. The WPC hiring, is a first in the nation. "I am impressed by the the ingenuity that they have expressed," said another college President. "Just think besides baseball players, their are USFL players and who knows who else." "I am here to learn" said one student adamantly, "I don't care if it's a curve ball or a bell curve, I just want to learn." With no end in sight, curve balls and three base signs might be all students learn.

University or wonderland?

By Hall Ears

STAFF WRITER

"Hi! My name is Jack and I am your Bacon guide. Join me as we explore the wonderful world of the Bacon."

The WPC Board of Trustees received mixed news this week. Following years of preparation; which included expansion to both the colleges physical plant and programs; and extensive review by Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools the Board was informed that the college would not be receiving the highly sought after University Status. In other correspondence the Board received notice that the Walt Disney Corporation, after an extensive search process, had selected WPC as the site for it's new American History

Theme Park.

In a letter from Middle States team leader Dr. Harold Gloom to President Speert, Gloom wrote "It is with much sorrow that I must inform you that we will be unable to recommend extreme amount of underage drinking during Springfest.

Disney had originally considered Manas Virginia for the site of their new theme park, when that fell through representatives set out to find other possible

College is situated on the site of the family estate of Garret A. Hobart the twenty-fourth vice president of the United States. A finer historical location Disney could not have hoped for." The colleges close proximity to New York City and a number of New Jerseys major cities also helped convince Disney.

'A finer historical location Disney could not have hoped for.'

--Disney Chairman

WPC for University status."

Although the entire contents of the letter were not made public, administration sources say that the rejection was linked to the inaccessibility to the campus during snow periods, the questionable quality of cafeteria food, the noise level in the dorms which kept the team up during their visits, and the sites. WPC was the only site Disney considered on the East Coast.

In a letter from Walt Disney Chairman to President Speert, Disney explained that it had selected WPC over such sites as Spain and Brazil because of the college rich historical link. "Occupying a 250-acre hilltop campus in suburban Wayne, the

Although details still remain to be worked out, the college will be receiving an as yet undisclosed sum of money. Classes will continue as Disney feels they will give visitors a fine example of "outdated traditional teaching methods."

Slatted to open in 1997, the new theme park will be Disney's first venture in the area of historical theme parks.

INFO COORDINATORS

In order of appearance:

- Nostradamus
- Peter the Great
- The messiah
- Peter, Paul and Mary
- Yoonhee "Jamie" Lee
- Arnold Speert
- Campus Police
- Stephanie Troncone
- Ralph Mouth
- Tanya Hill
- Mitch Fahrer
- Lorraine Doumato
- Hole
- Dick Nirenberg
- Obituary
- Ross Perot
- Cuomo "You know who"
(Before Doritos got him)
- Michael Jordan
(went back to the NBA)
- Beverly McDonough
- Elvis
(we thought he was an impersonator)
- Gena Zak
- P.S. Your Fired!

The Bacon

FOUNDED ON A COLD DARK RAINY
NIGHT WHILE LOST IN THE WOODS
ON A CAMPING TRIP WITH THE THREE
BEARS AND THE MAHARASHI

Controller of all Destiny

John "George" Gillick

Metro Editor
Yoni "Phil" Greenbaum

My Music Only Editor
Airy "Buddy" Nussbaum

Game Editor
Jeremy "Stoner" Singer

Morale Editor
Tracy "Wild Woman"
Bodoff

Director of Extortion and Money Laundering
Dan "Junior"
McDonough Jr.

Chaos Director
Yoonhee "Spell Well"
Lee

Finger Painting Editors
Gena "Squeaky" Zak
Rich "The Bruiser"
Tallmadge

Nut Gallery:
Rosa "Yes, your still
with the paper" Cirianni,
Bobi Lee Messer (ΦΧ),
Tom "I won't be Editor"
Stephens,

Luis "Sanchez" Perez,
Paul "Les Nessman"
Fucito,

Even More Chaos
Director
Bob "Do I really exist?"
Timony

Sexton
Ben

D.L. "The Critic" Greene
Rodney "The Poet"
Cauthen

Tom "The Feminist"
Troncone
Bill "Yes I Can"
Berthold
Jacqueline "On-Time"
Foster

Staff Finger Painter
Bill "Camouflage"
Lawson

Advisor
George "Can't I do Something?" Robb

Bacon Mother
Barbara "I'm baking
cookies" Stomber

The Bacon of William Paterson College is published by students at William Paterson College of Wayne, New Jersey 07470, with editorial, production and business offices in room 310 of the Student Center. Newspaper content represents the judgment of The Bacon staff in accordance with The Bacon constitution and does not necessarily represent the judgment of the Student Government Association, the administration, faculty or the State of New Jersey. Opinions in signed columns and letters to the editor are not necessarily the opinion of the staff. This paper is independently funded. Editors can be reached at 201-595-2248 and Business and Advertising at 201-595-3265.

GET DOWN! GET DOWN! JUNGLE BOOGIE!

The 1995-96 Executive Board would like to congratulate all incoming members.

As you know we must begin planning for the 1995-96 school year well before September. Three Legislature meetings have been set up, one for each month of the summer (June, July and August). Your attendance is mandatory at these meetings because there are several things to accomplish before the start of Fall classes.

The dates and times for these meetings are listed below:

Wednesday, June 14 at 1:00 pm. in Student Center 213

Thursday, July 13 at 1:00 pm. in Student Center 213

Thursday, August 17 at 1:00 pm. in Student Center 213

Any Problems please contact Kalli in the SGA office.

SGA Funded

Administration cracks whip on attendance

By Oymytushs Red
STAFF WRITER

Citing the "need to improve class attendance," WPC interim provost Sue McNamara announced that departments would "begin enforcing a mandatory attendance policy." According to the Student Handbook "Students are expected to attend regularly and punctually all classes, laboratory periods and other academic exercises." "Obviously the current policy is not working," she said. McNamara pointed to a study done by the Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation. The six month study took nearly two years to finish, but according to McNamara, "It was well worth the wait." The study showed that among Juniors and Seniors, "less than 50 percent attended class regularly." Among freshmen and sophomores, that number increases only slightly to 61 percent. "How do expect teachers to teach when on a given day they may have only half a class," McNamara said. "I don't mind not having a full class," said one teacher from the History Department. "I can read and drink coffee and get to know my students on a more personal level." The enforcement method listed in the new policy has provoked wide reaction. The policy states "all students who do not attend classes will be publicly whipped." "Can they really do that?" asked one bewildered student. "What type of whip are they going to use?" asked another. In response to the charge that the punishment is too drastic, not to mention unconstitutional, McNamara said, "If that is what it is going to take to get people to do what they should be doing on their own, then that is what we will do. Do I think it is too drastic? No, we are here to teach about democracy not practice it." As for unconstitutional, McNamara Union members are concerned however. "When we return [from striking] will they want to apply this method to college employees?" one union member wondered. Certain departments have been testing the new policy for a while now. One student who was whipped after missing just one class, thinks the policy is a good one. "It whipped me into shape," he said. The whippings will be carried about by Department Chairs many of whom welcomed the opportunity to "do something on campus." The college has contracted the Pleasure Chest in New York City to supply the whips. The whippings will be carried out in the Bill Pat's Pub in the student center during bad weather and on pleasant days in front of the student center. "I think the situation will be beneficial for everyone," McNamara said. "It might sting a little at first but it's the end that counts." Whippings are scheduled to begin next week.

One of the first students to be whipped under the new policy

Stat machine prevents attendance

By TRUTH
(a.k.a. junior)

Exams have finally started and Bacon students will be just in time. For the past two semesters, the Bacon has had difficulties with the the production of their publication. These difficulties have diminished the attendance rate of students involved with the Bacon for nearly one year. "It's ruined my life," tells an unidentified Bacon staff member. "I could have had a better GPA and maybe even been a Junior class officer next year, but the stat machine has stolen my identity." "Are you kidding? I'd much rather be in my cloud formation class. No doubt!"

able recently. The situation has amounted to the need for multiple repairs throughout the school year. These repairs require strict attendance of Bacon staff members mainly because the repair man, a WPC graduate, has difficulties in motivation and requires spiritual assistance at times.

Teachers complain that the difficulties seem to always occur during test periods. Director of Business and Advertising, Dan McDonough, Jr., coordinates the maintenance schedule. He retorts, "What a damn coincidence!" "The repair man runs up $80 an hour on our penny and tells us all bad jokes," whines Yoni Greenbaum, Metro Editor of the Bacon. "Are you kidding? I'd much rather be in my cloud formation class. No doubt!" In any case, the stat machine has finally been fully repaired leaving students at the Bacon with nothing better to to but attend their exams -- obviously unprepared. "It's a shame," explains Editor Jack Gillick. "These are really great kids." Hopefully teachers will sympathize with the troubles of the student at the Bacon and show their compassion on their grade reports. Recently, the Bacon has been notified that major repair will probably be necessary again starting this September.

Student/Dean scuffle leads to dismissal

By Marcus Uranus
STAFF WRITER

Instead of attending classes and worrying about homework, sophmore Eugena Zakinski, now spends her time at home worrying about her future. "I never would have guessed this would happen," said Zakinski of dismissal from the college. According to the Dean of Student's office, Zakinski arrived on campus on Monday May 6, and proceeded to walk through campus. However, Zakinski was topless at the time. According to friends of Zakinski, she had just recently gotten her nipples pierced. "I figured if I had the balls to get my nipples pierced then I might as well walk around topless," said Zakinski. According to eyewitnesses, very little attention was given to Zakinski as she made her way through campus. It was not until she bumped into the Dean of students; getting her nipple rings snagged on his tie; that the situation became clear. While the Dean wouldn't comment about the collision or the decision to dismiss Ms. Zakinski, members of his staff released a statement stating that the Dean was very disturbed about the situation and that his favorite tie had been ruined. As for Ms. Zakinski, she has just begun to fight. "I plan on suing the school," she said. Whether or not she will testify topless, Zakinski "is not sure."

It's me again. So what do you think so far? Just wait till you see what we did inside?? Oh, that's Dan down there, he is quite a good bass player.

Staffer recipient of Pulitzer Prize for work on Grammer

By Ispell Well
STAFF WRITER

Bacon Design Director, Jamie Lee was amongst three New Jersey writer to receive 1994-95 Pulitzer Prizes. Lee won for the book Guyd to Well Grammer.

Lee, 21 is originally from Korea. Her family immigrated to the U.S. when Lee was just 5. Learning english and the customs of her new country were no problem to Lee. "I was always fascinated by the English language and the way Americans do things, like, like well you know what I mean."

According to her teachers Lee has always been a good student and especially in her mastery of the English Language.

"I was able to sit back and watch her teach the class," said

"I just want people to love the language as much as I do."

--Lee

Lee's sixth grade English teacher.

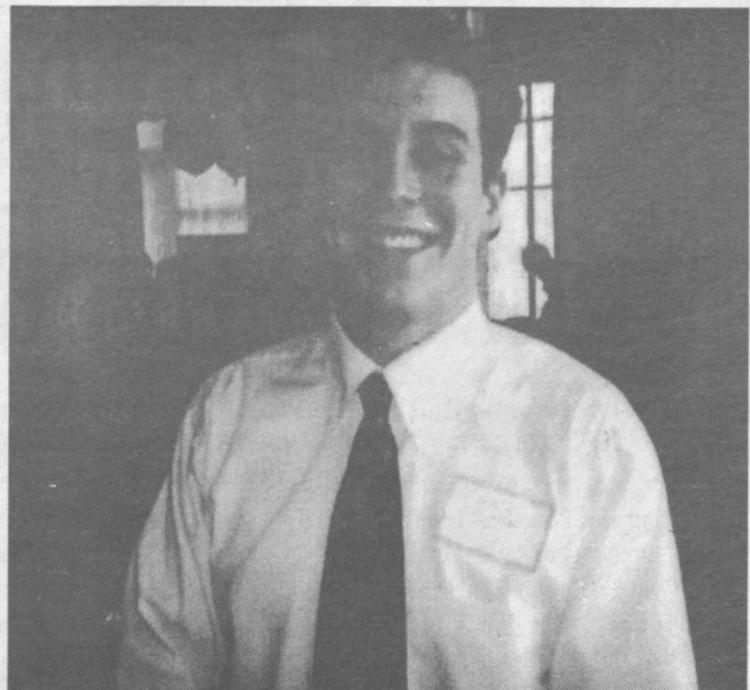

Lee credits her attention to detail and ability to absorb large quantities of information as the source for her success.

Her book, begun in 1992, took just under two years to complete. "It was a labor of love," said Lee, who usually spends much of her weekend working on the production of The Bacon.

"I take notes about all the mistakes I see people make at the paper," She said, "It has been like a free laboratory for me."

Guyd to Well Grammer, is a concise and authoritative book especially coming from such a young writer. English Language experts have compared Lee's work to some of the standard texts used in most schools. Her book which has been at most bestseller lists since it was published four months ago is also the subject of a soon to be release made for television movie. "I expect to see most schools change to Lee's text in no time," said one expert. "I just want people to love the language as much as I do," said Lee.

SGA President Alex Malino was recently selected employee of the month at Kansas Fried Chicken where he is assistant manager.

SGA accomplishments many in deed

By Winealot Kid
STAFF WRITER

The 1994-95 Student Government Association can leave office proud of it's accomplishments.

In addition to the computer lab in the Student Center, the SGA has accomplished so much that space limits the mentioning of everything.

Some of the highlights that will surely benefit students for years to come include the establishment of a SGA table at TJ's, and the Executive Board bar stools at Casey O'Tooles.

Future generations of SGA Executive Board members will be able to reflect back on this year and learn how to behave at Distinguished Lecturer Dinners. How to lead, drink and still have fun.

But for those of you who think that is enough, sorry. Students, parents and guests will soon be able to gaze on bu ches that spell out WPC. Soon too, students will be able to send messages to that special someone by bushes in the SGA Gardens; and an electronic score board that will count down annually the number of days till summer.

Other accomplishments include volleyball courts for night playing and basketball courts for "imagination ball."

The SGA has established a 10 $1000 drinking stipends.

Lessons learned will most definitely include the fine art of running an election, the up's and down's of constitution revisions, and the craft of trophy disposal.

So, 1994-95 SGA members your constituents, us students, wish you the best of luck in the future. Thank you for all you have done and Le' Chayim.

So? So? Look at this writing! And the layout! It gives me shivers!!!

OH, ROMEO!
You are sooo cute and sexy. But I can't have you cuz I'm only a stick figure!

The greenhouse which the biology department is using to grow its fundraising products.

Funding needs lead to creative fundraising

By Tom Smokerman
STAFF WRITER

The Biology Department unveiled its chief fund raising tool for the Fall semester on Thursday, a thirty foot high marijuana plant.

The plant, a Northern Lights #5 crossbred with a super-potent Skunk strain, will be harvested in early October and sold to the public soon thereafter. All WPC students, with valid student I.D., will receive an additional ten percent discount off of the already low prices offered.

The money raised through the sales will be used, in part, to purchase fetal pigs and frogs for dissection in class. The majority of the funds, though, will go towards obtaining a high power centrifuge.

The plant was raised with the help of an experimental plant growth hormone, developed at WPC. Its effects are evident. After only three months, the department had to cut an opening in the roof of the greenhouse, located behind the Science building, to allow the plant to continue to grow.

Seeds from the plant will also be sold to anyone who wishes to grow their own at home. One hundred seeds will be offered for ten dollars and the buds from the plant will be sold in one-eighth ounce increments. One-eighth ounce will be thirty dollars, one-quarter ounce will sell for fifty-five dollars, one-half ounce will cost one-hundred dollars, and a full ounce will go for one-hundred-ninety dollars.

Demand for the product will be high so advance orders are being taken. Anyone interested should contact the Biology Department.

Jack's Top Ten Things Not to Say in a Bacon Editorial

(a guide to a happy and harmonious life as a Bacon Editor, like that's ever gonna happen!)

10. Using an administration official's name inadvertently in a colorful anecdote (see: "Well slap me and call me Susan")
9. Five Hail Marys
8. No matter how it may seem, you are not "Thought Police and Controller of All Destinies"
7. Buttoufouco
6. The Candidates
5. "Everything from the sniffles to full-blown gonorrhoea"
4. Never use the words "holistic" and "Bioparticle Delivery System" in the same sentence
3. Never narrow down senior citizens issues to "the right to wear polyester leisure suits"
2. Avoid writing about campus safety; it's been done to death
1. Penises, penises, penises

Live it up, it's later than you think. Hasta la vista, suckers! Love, Jack

It's One Of The Most Useful Credit Cards On The Planet. Unless You've Stolen It. Your MasterCard® is stolen. You panic, get angry, panic some more. Then you call and cancel it. Now the thief is in possession of, oh, about seven cents worth of stolen plastic. (Maybe he can use it as a coaster when he entertains at the hideout.) So relax. You only have to pay for stuff you bought, and you can even get a new card the next day.* It'll be accepted at millions of places, one of which must sell wallets. MasterCard. It's more than a credit card. It's smart money.™

*Certain conditions apply
©1995 MasterCard International Incorporated

INSIDE

"Hi again. Many of you may wonder, who are the people at The Bacon, or how do they do that. Well this is your chance to meet the people in YOUR neighborhood."

Rodney enjoys fine literature such as Dr. Seuss.

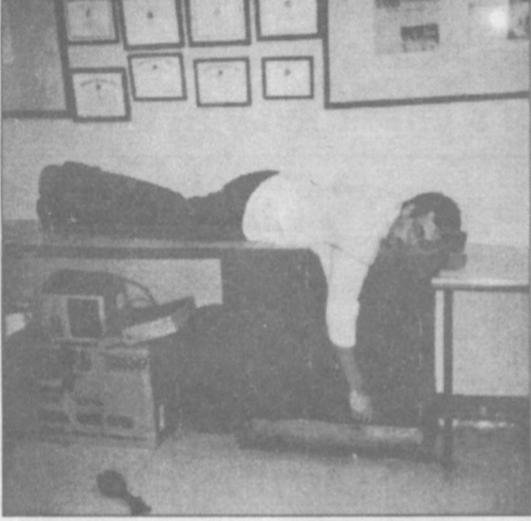

After a hard day at production Luis Sanchez and Editor-in-Chief Jack Gillick enjoy a quiet night out.

GOODBYE
WPC!
(UNTILL SPRING '96)
-SPORTS EDITOR
JEREMY SINGER

Business Director Dan McDonough likes working with cash.

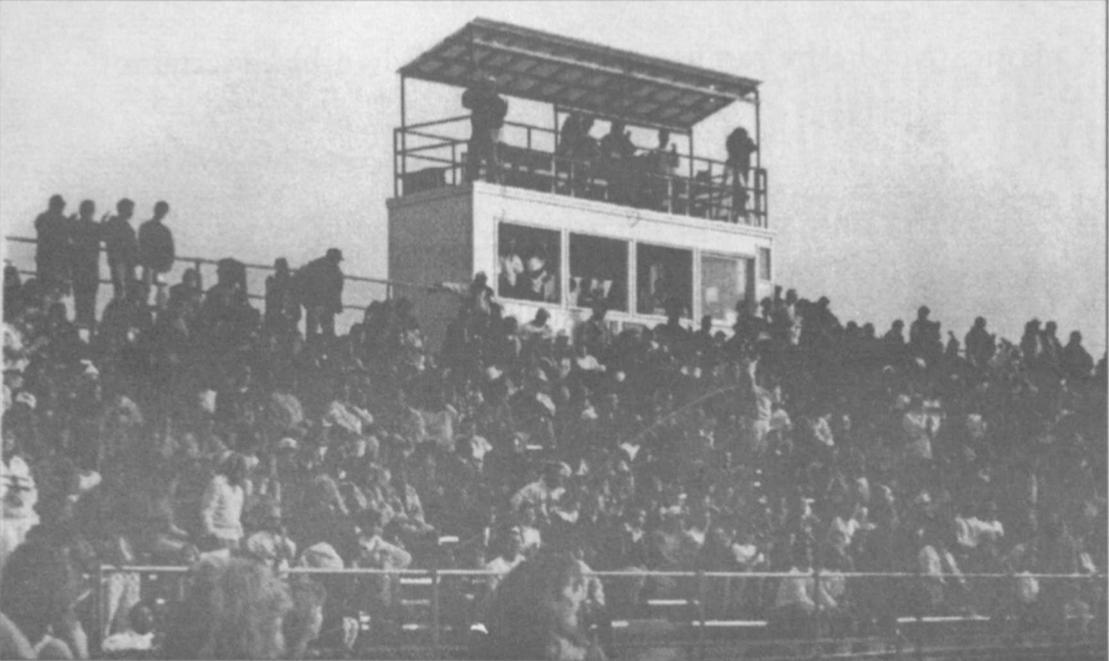

What a year! Remember always - If you got an angle
Mark it! Love you all, Dan M.D.

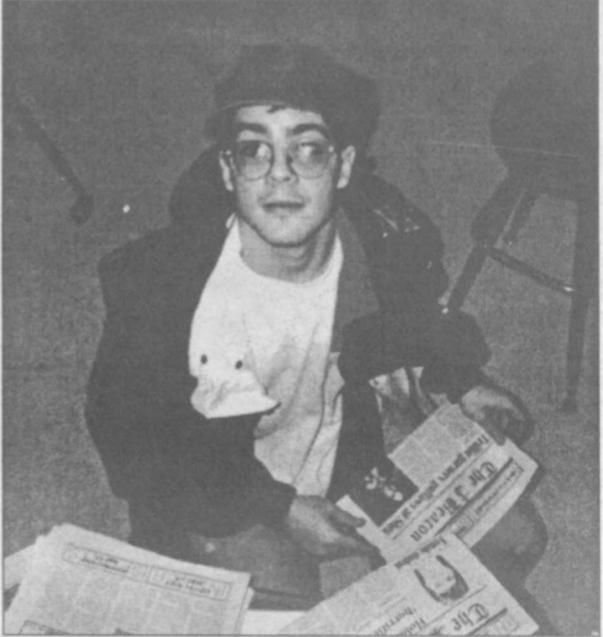

After reading copy Tom passes out, or was he jumping for the football?

Greg Milite - Sorry for the omission...
The BEANS

TH

Pictured center is Bacon photographer Bill Lawson.

Illustrator Bob Timony likes keeping up on current events.

Bob says "Hi"
(HE'S IN... NEVER MIND!)

News editor Yoni Greenbaum supplements his income by making and selling fake ID's.

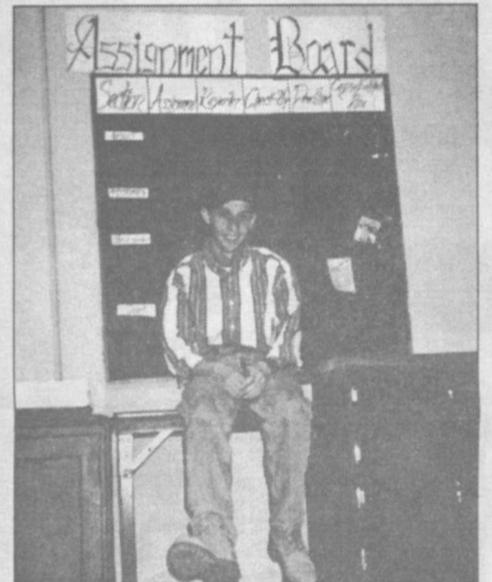

When she is not copy editing, Tracy Bodoff is captain of the Cheerleading team.

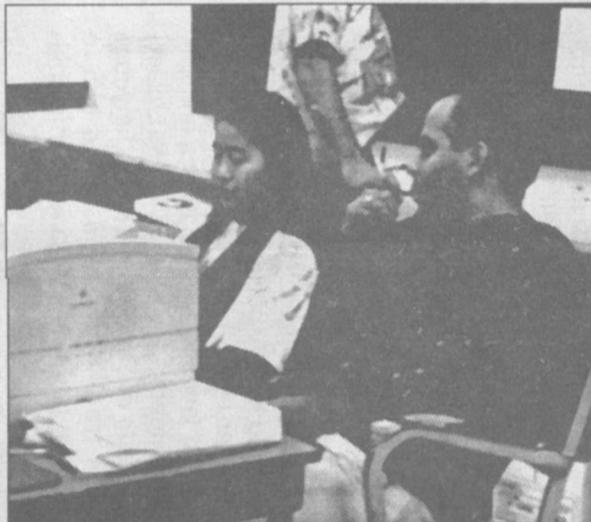

Barbara Stomber likes going out with the Bacon credit card.

*Have a GREAT Summer!!
Love, ...
Tracy*

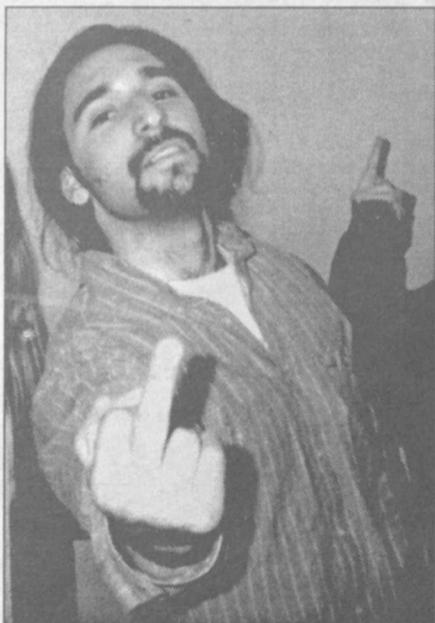

*Gimme' a "B", Gimme'
an "A", Gimme' a "C", Gimme' an "O", Gimme' an "N". What's that spell? ... Who cares.
enjoy your summer,
Tracy*

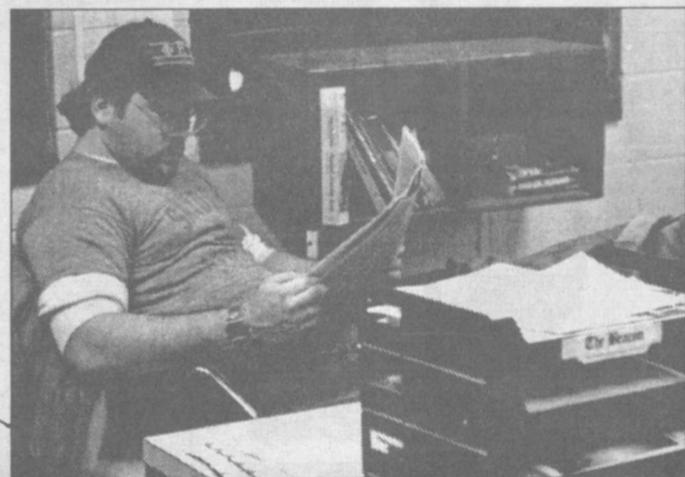

Sometime the pressure makes Yoni feel like a little boy.

Bacon designer Jamie Lee uses telekinetics to control the computer.

Everyone likes working with Ary.

Jack reads to keep the stress down.

Out!

geneZak
FISH FISH!

yeah! FISH!
*"Insanity" is
Blah, blah, blah
Life sucks, blah,
No it's NOT blah!
I'm sane, one
Jamie Lee*

*STRAIGHT EDGE
HARDCORE IN YOUR FACE.*

YOU ALL SUCK!

PS. Prepare for the revolution

BAGCON

Schlig INdEIT

SCHLIG RAISES EYEBALLS

By I. Nowaiam
SIDEWINDER CONTRIBUTOR

Death of Schlig; The movie opened last Friday amidst much controversy.

The trouble started when two boys from Pennsylvania roasted and ate their younger sister while their mother was playing bingo at the local church basement. The boys claimed they got the idea from the man-eating aliens depicted in the new film.

Concerned parents formed a group collectively known as Citizens Against Death of Schlig (CADOS). CADOS has since been seen picketing stores that sell Death of Schlig merchandises.

Further more, one member of CADOS took the law into his own hands and brutally murdered a young Schlig fan, claiming Death of Schlig would warp the young man's fragile mind and cause him to slaughter helpless thousands with a spatula.

There was another tragedy where a man from Arizona ran his boss through a meat slicer, an event that occurred in the original Death of Schlig comic strip. Authorities deny any connection to the incident.

When asked about the controversy, director Gerald E.W. Tarrant gritted his teeth and wandered off muttering something about pickles.

Despite everything, Schlig opened to a captive audience and in just two days has become the world's top grossing movie of all time, netting an amazing $2 billion in ticket sales. Some claim that these numbers have been exaggerated by Lox Antenna studios, who produced the movie in association with Cosmic Twine in order to generate new interest.

The Schlig-mania that grips the world started with a stupid comic strip in an obscure college newspaper and has since exploded into an amazing billion dollar multimedia franchise. One of the "Schligies" (as Schlig fans are known; although they prefer the more distinguished "Schligers") reportedly paid 1 million Dollars for an original comic strip signed by creator Bob Timony.

But does the film live up to the all the hype surrounding it?

Jeremy "Stoner" Singer, who has nothing to do with Death of Schlig, said, "It, like, ROCKED! It was BETTER than acid," when asked about the film.

"It was a very relaxing and happy little bloodbath of crimson lake of violence," stated Bob Ross, the well known hippy painter with a rainbow colored afro. Pinky, from famed "Anamaniacs," said, "I think so, Brain. But if they called them Sad Meals, none of the kids would buy them."

A women from Jersey City, New Jersey, said, "I can't believe why there's so much hype about it. It's only a movie. If you can take it with a sense of humor, then don't go see it!" Another woman responded with, "I can't believe it's not butter."

It is obvious that feelings of the general public differs and it is not all too surprising. Organizations for and against Schlig is forming left and right. CADOS is the most known anti-Schlig group. Others are We Hate Schlig (WHS), and No Schlig Here (NSH).

The anti-Schligers are not the only ones that formed organizations. Schlig support groups are forming rapidly. On organization is called I Am For Schlig, (IAFS), funding events that supports "Closet case Schligies."

The Schlig-mania doesn't stop here. More and more, people from all over the world are coming out with strange stories involving the main character of Death of Schlig; Schlig himself.

One of the production staff member, who will be referring as Mr. Noeall, said, "There was something definitely weird going on while we were filming. Unexplainable things were discovered such as Schlig being God. Yes, he performed things that normal human beings can't. It is my personal belief that Schlig was the third part of the trinity next to Jesus."

Mr. Noeall also stated that "Schligies are not normal human beings either. There are alien sub-species that rule the underground network in Mars." Mr. Noeall is currently discussing his theories with CADOS and members of the Holy Place of Latedate Saints.

If you get the chance to go see the film the world is talking about, it has been warned that you should bring an extra pair of clothing due to protest members from CADOS and canned food for IAFS. For selected theatres that are run by IAFS, you can admitted with no charge if you are "Closet case Schligies" or have a authentic Schlig eyes on the side of your head.

Enjoy Death of Schlig; The movie While it's on the big screen. We are informed that several members of the CADOS are buying the rights of the movie and video tapes of Death of Schlig; The movie will be due in the next millennia.

It is said actor Robert I. McFakie performed the role of Schlig, but according to Mr. Noeall, Robert I. McFakie is only a physical shell for Schlig, who is God's third persona incarnate, and is not at all Robert I. McFakie himself.

Saturday Night Fever Returns

By Boss Smiley
SIDEWINDER EDITOR

a bargain. I took the money I won from dance contests and put it to good use," stated Lipbaum.

Belushi was well-known for his solicitation of illegal substances. How about his number one fan? Laughing, Lipbaum said, "What John did is tame compared to what I do. I take it to the next level, after all, if John was alive, wouldn't he?" Although, he refused to disclose exactly what he does, it is alleged that he sits in the stat machine at the Bacon office and inhales those sweet smelling chemicals.

Not one to brag of his accomplishments, Lipbaum recently won an award at the Senior Dinner Dance for his mad dancing skills. Next time you're clubbing, look for the man in polyester and pick up some pointers.

Club-goers may not recognize his face since it is hard to catch a glimpse of him, he spins so fast on the dance floor. Hitting the clubs "mostly on the weekends - I don't like to miss class and mess up my perfect attendance record." Added Lipbaum, "I never miss Dr. Leshner's journalism class," he has developed his patented dance moves from studying tapes of the master, John Belushi, whom he considers a god.

At his apartment, Lipbaum is believed to have a full-sized statue of Belushi in his fabled white polyester suit that he bought at an auction for $500,000. "It was

Lipbaum poses with his feverish smile

PAT JOURNEYS
TO...
THE LAND OF FEMINISTS!

WHOSE COLLEGE IS THIS? YOURS OR MINE?

The semester begins in September. Be there! Shalom

Well, I got news for you, bimbo -

It's not the age of egalitarianism we're living in anymore. You Jeffersonians who populate the SGA seem to have this twisted idea of how things are run around here--

Well, you're WRONG!

To paraphrase the famous song, "The record show, you're all bozos-I'll do it MYWAY" and that's that? Any questions wimps?

Good! Now when I say jump, you'll jump! When I say hop, you'll hop! When Evangelista says register, register! When Ljutic says pay, you pay! Take my advice-you'll better off as soon as you get those silly democratic ideas out of your head.

Coach moons ump; destroys banner with fart

By Barry Buttcheeks

STAFF STREAKER

WPC baseball coach Jack Alheimers has been suspended by the New Jersey Apathetic League (N.J.A.C.) for mooning home plate umpire Jerry East following a questionable call during WPC's 27-3 victory over Nussbaum State University this past Thursday at Nussbaum Stadium.

Alheimers flashed his hairy ass to the man in blue after WPC baserunner Daryl Rasberry was called out at home plate when attempting to score on a second-inning base hit by teammate Knt Hrbk. This call was made despite the fact that Nussbaum Sate outfielder Ary Steinbaum's attempted throw home to nail Rasberry sailed over the backstop and hit a fan on the head, killing him.

"That was the worst call I have ever seen in my life," said Alheimers, who, according to people who witnessed the incident, has zits all over his butt. "That umpire deserved to have my ugly ass in his face."

East, who has been mooned by more coaches than any other umpire in Division III baseball history, did not appreciate Alheimers' gesture.

"After you get mooned 50 or 60 times in your career, your face starts to smell like butt," said East, who has been mooned 84 times in 17 years as a collegiate umpire. "That's the point I'm at. My wife left me. Women won't talk to me because I constantly have manure drooling out of my nose."

Even WPC's opponent believed East made the wrong call, however.

"Rasberry was definitely safe," said Nussbaum State coach Ary Greenbaum. "Mooning the umpire, though... man, that was disgusting!"

THE INCIDENT PUT A BLEMISH on what was to be a historic day for Nussbaum State. The late Ary Horowitzbaum, who hit 432 home runs for Nussbaum State from 1989-1993, had his number retired before the game.

In a tear-jerking pregame ceremony, a flag with the number "10", Horowitzbaum's uniform number, was raised onto a flagpole above the centerfield fence to honor the former Nussbaum State outfielder, who died, tragically last year in a knitting accident.

Generally, headlines like this would be unacceptable. Because Jeremy "Stoner" Singer is a model for all editors, however, he can get away with it.

Unfortunately, Horowitzbaum's flag was destroyed when Alheimers mooned East.

"When he pulled down his pants, he let out this enormous fart," Nussbaum State first baseman Ary Freedbaum said. "The fumes of the fart just blew back to the centerfield fence and that flag disintegrated."

Nussbaum State centerfielder Ary Shleshingbaum was seriously injured by the fumes of Alheimers' fart as well. He is currently in critical condition at Sarah Bird Askew Hospital. Doctors say his chances of survival are slim.

Bacon staff writer to play Olympic basketball

By The Schmuck

SPORTSWRITER

Bill Berthold, a staff writer for The Bacon, announced this week that he will try out for the 1996 U.S. Olympic basketball team.

Berthold is training for the Olympics by watching the NBA playoffs on television.

"I figure if I watch them enough, I might be able to play like them," said Berthold, whose regular exercise routine consists of switching the remote control between various sporting events.

Berthold, 19, has not missed a televised sporting event since 1976, when he passed up a chance to watch Game Five of the World Series, instead choosing to breast feed.

"I was only a year old at the time," he said. "When you're young, I guess you have different priorities."

Since then, Berthold has changed his priorities. He no longer breast feeds. Now he regularly downs a case of O'Doul's while watching everything on television from Australian rules football to the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Berthold was recently inspired to try out for the U.S. Olympic basketball team when he saw the New York Knicks blow one lead after another against the Indiana Pacers in the NBA playoffs.

"Even I could play better than those chokers," Berthold said.

Berthold is now concentrating on preparing for the Olympics.

"I'm fit, I box out well, and I never lost at the video game," he said.

Drug using team keeps on toking

By Mary Jane Waterbong

STAFF WRITER

The WPC drug using team has reached new heights this season.

After winning the prestigious LSD Competition last week at Acidville, Ky., the Pion-addict-eers are heading to the Crack-Cocaine Championships, which will be held Saturday in Washingdrug, the District of Cocaine.

"A couple of our regular users are cokeheads, so that should help us," said Uncle Milty, the Pion-addict-eers' head addict.

Milty was forced to abruptly end his interview with The Bacon because he was going through heroin withdrawal and had to go back to his room and shoot up.

Speaking of heroin, the Pion-addict-eers were penalized five drug points two weeks ago at the Heroin Finals in Smack, Ct. for using a broken spoon.

"We're all a bunch of broke junkies," WPC user Manny "Hurting" Veins said after the event. "We can't afford spoons. People have to understand that addicts have nothing in this world. We were just glad to have some kind of spoon, even if it was broken."

The Pion-addict-eers did well at the Meet of Marijuana, held this past Friday on the WPC campus at "the cliffs."

"We just went up there with a bong, a quarter ounce, and a case of Budwiser to knock it all down," said WPC Head Toker Kerry Kindbud.

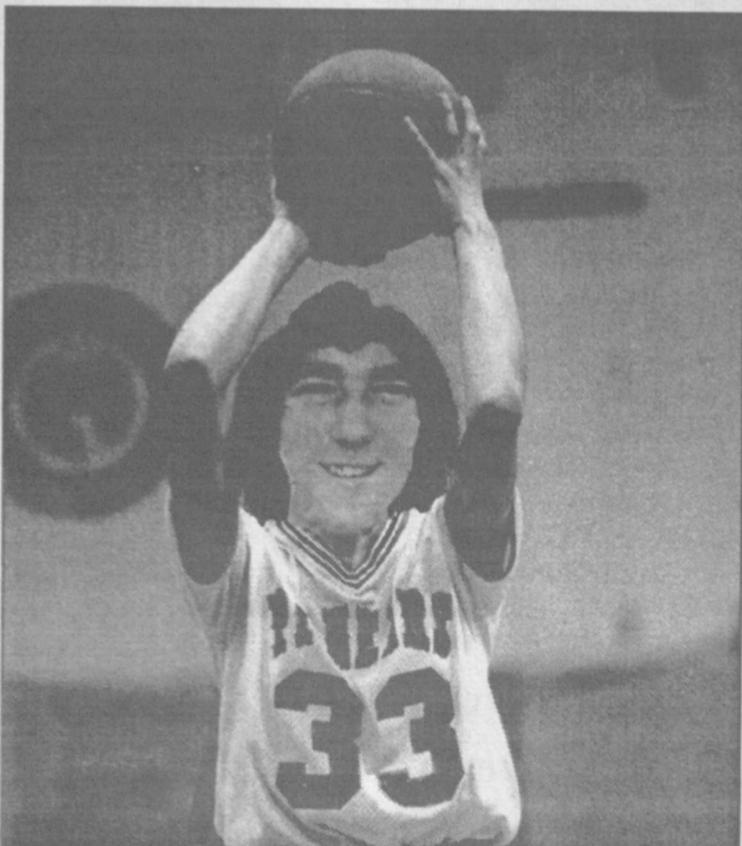

No winner was determined at the event.

"We were all too stoned to keep score," said Kindbud, who admitted he didn't know how the winner of the event was to be determined. "I packed about five or six bowls just for myself, so I must have done pretty well."

"I'll tell you one thing: that was some damn good weed. I couldn't even move after it was all done."

The Pion-addict-eers, who are currently a self-sufficient organization, are seeking money from the school to support their habits next year.

"None of us have jobs. We're all a bunch of lethargic drug addicts," said Pion-addict-eer user "Racehorse" Charlie Dragonchaser. "Right now, we have to resort to holding up delicatessans in Paterson to get our drug money. We want the school to pay for our drugs."

Bacon snorts writer Bill Berthold, who plans to be a member of the 1996 U.S. Olympic basketball team.

Printers Wanted--Experienced and reliable, must have own transportation. Immediate openings. Leave message at 942-7238.
Receptionist Needed--Medical office in Wayne; Flexible hours. Summer/school year employment available. Call 831-6666 for more information.
Wanted--Responsible m/f to share 2 bdrm. apt. near WPC $350.00 utilities included, must like cats. Avail. 7-1-95 (July 1). Please call Tammy: 956-0854.

Babysitter Needed--In my Wayne home 2 days per week and some Sat. nights for two children ages 1&3. Days and hours flexible exp. and car nec. Ref. required. Call anytime 831-1073.
Full-Time Receptionist--8:00-4:30 p.m. Typing, phones, and filing. Call Vickie after 1 p.m. 546-5433.
Typists needed--To transcribe audio tapes at home. Call 628-1792.

For Sale--1985 Honda Accord LX, 4-dr, 5-spd/manual, 67K miles, sunroof, all power, AC, stereo/cassette, one owner, excellent condition, $3800. Call 201-633-0029.
Mother's Helper/Babysitter--needed immediately for five month old, part-time, hours and days flexible. Nursing or education majors a plus. Call 201-633-0029.
Child Care--We are seeking a caring individual to look after our twin 5-year olds in our Montclair home this summer, in the afternoons, Monday-Friday (15-20 hours per week). Hours will be flexible. continuation through the next school year is possible. $8 per hour. References required. Please call 783-1032.

Help Wanted--Men/Women earn up to $480 weekly assembling circuit boards/electronic components at home. Experience unnecessary, will train. Immediate openings your local area. call 1-602-680-7444 Ext.

102C.
Child Care /Babysitter--Wanted in my Prospect Park home for one child. Part-Time, M-F, 7 a.m. - 1 p.m. July 5 - Aug. 15. Must be reliable, own transportation and speak English. Also looking for someone in the Fall. Call after 2 p.m. 790-9080.

PERSONALS

Phi Tau--Thanks for the terrific social. We always have a great time with you! Sisters of ASA.
DC--You are and will always be very special to me; DC, Trigo, Homey, Rodder, Jordan and Krawtschuk: Thanks for the greatest times, summer '95 will rock. Love, LMD.
Jenn D, BZP, Congrats on Pres.--You'll do great--You've become a great friend rmbrr.. that 1st goldschlager, and all the other times when you "showed me the ropes"...All "Jacked up" and having the best times...Love, Lorraine.
Jenn, Simple, Maha, Jack,

Yoni, Dan, Gena--We had some great times together...the boat, T.J.'s, Casey's...Love, Lorraine.
Mandy(AST)--Just wanted to tell you that I will miss you a lot. Thank you for all your love and help this semester. Love and sisterhood always, Nadia.
To the graduating sisters of ASA--We are all so proud of you! Congratulations and best of luck! Love in Sisterhood, ASA.
Phil--You are finally graduating, I'm really going to miss you. I love you! Good Luck with your new business. I'll always be here for you honey!

Love always and forever, Jessica.
To Kim-Morie--I love you Big. Good Luck in teaching. Thank you for everything. You're the best big. AST. Love your little, Jessica.
Tara--WAKE UP!!! Love Tracy.
Wyble PKT--Graduation just one week away. Las Vegas here we come! I love you XO. Love Carney, AST.
Little Jen AST--I will miss you--You're the best. Good
Beacon Bonus Club(BBC) -- The summer extravaganza has just begun. Junior Phil -- Keep the noise down. Landlord George -- Have fun in Philly. We'll see you soon. Love, BBC

Drewsky--Hey, at least you have a job for this summer out of New Jersey state lines. Toky Cosmic Twins--Ahwww. JL Anti-Chris--I'll pay you triple! No, quadruple! Insane one The cackling madness begins! ARY--TWO AND A HALF HOURS!!!! Insane one Old Jewish man--Just remember I am a mad as a hatter. JL Stoner--How's your novel coming along? GOD Jamie--You F@cking rule. Keep up the good work. Thanks for your dedication, inspiration, and timely insanity. Thanks to your help we made The Insider--more than just music (hear that Yoni?)--everlast champ. Ary, THE KING Ary--Write a novel why don't you? Your Secretary Yoni--Maybe if you actually read The Insider, you'd realize it's a lot more than just music. Boss Smiley Jack and Dan--SEE ABOVE.
Tim Bobony--Keep up the good work. Ary Stoner--Stop tripping before you fall like Rose. Elvis, The TRUE KING.
Dan, a.k.a. Jr., a.k.a. extortioner--Get your priorities straight. Is FF in the house or not? Animal. Da Drummer Luis--Nice picture. How come you weren't at Wetlands? Has-ta Manana. Ary, I'm still THE KING.

Happy mother's day, Mom. Love The Beacs.
Rose--How was Madball? NY-CHC. ARY.
ASA--Thanks for the "smashing" time. BACON bonus Club Members.
Tracy--Another year down, G_d knows how may to go??Yoni
Captain Jack--It's been a trip. Thanks for all the lessons. Yoni
TO THE INCOMING BEACON STAFF--Hope I can make the coming year, as much fun as last year...Yoni
Maha--Dinner, This thursday, 8 p.m., Right? Yoni
TO ALL OUR TEACHERS--PLEASE PASS US THE BEACS.
TO ALL WHO DESERVE IT--I DO LOVE YOU--YONI
Dr. Tina--Thanks for all the Support.The Beacs
Advisor George--Welcome Aboard.The Beacs
Smelly Feet--Have a good Summer.Yonster
Jenn D. & Lorraine D.-- Thanks for a semester I WON'T be able to forget.Yoni Dan--If you've got an angle work it.Yoni
TO ALL THE WOMEN I'VE LOVED BEFORE--YONI

Egg Donors Are Needed

The Diamond Institute is Looking For A Few Very Special Women.

In the past few years a process called "Donor Egg" has made the miracle of pregnancy and having a much wanted baby possible for thousands of couples who were formerly considered "infertile". The procedure involves taking an egg from a female donor, fertilizing it "in vitro" (out of the body) with sperm taken from the husband, and implanting the resulting embryo into the uterus of the woman trying to become pregnant. We are seeking women of all ethnic & racial backgrounds between the age of 20 to 34.

Your Donated Eggs Can Help Create the Miracle of Life for Couples Who Couldn't Otherwise Conceive.

Donors Will be Paid $2000 Per Procedure

For more information call 1-800-992-8941 Between 10AM-4PM

DIAMOND INSTITUTE FOR INFERTILITY
 1387 Clinton Avenue/Irvington NJ 07111

- Free Pregnancy Testing & Counseling
- Maternity/Baby Clothing & Furnishings
- Child Birth Classes
- Post-Abortion Support Groups
- Single Moms Support Groups
- Parenting Skills Program

All Services FREE - All Services Confidential

24-hour Answering Service (201) 538-0967

82 Speedwell Ave.
 Morristown

1330 Hamburg Tpke.
 Wayne

SUMMER JOBS!

STUDENTS

ARE YOU TIRED OF LOOKING FOR A SUMMER JOB?
 LET TODAY'S DO IT FOR YOU!

We have many assignments available immediately for receptionists, data entry, general office, and word processing. We offer flexible schedules, free computer training, and referral bonuses.

CALL TODAY'S TEMPORARY 244-9090

The Bacon Snorts

May 15, 1995 · William Paterson College

Pitcher with no forearms leads Lady Pioneers

By Armless Stubbs
SNORTSWRITER

The WPC softball team was saved this year by a pitcher who throws the ball with her face.

Sandy Rockjaw, who lost both her forearms at age three when she had a nasty run-in with a ceiling fan, won 10 games on the mound for the Lady Pioneers this year.

Rockjaw has a very unique way of pitching the ball. The WPC sophomore jams the softball in her mouth before each pitch. She then hocks a gigantic loogie and the power of her spit propels the ball over the plate.

"I've always been athletic, but, obviously, since I don't have any arms, I'm always at a disadvantage," she said. "Fortunately I've developed my own way of playing sports."

Rockjaw played basketball in high school. She had trouble shooting the ball, but was able to slam dunk the ball with her forehead.

"My teammates would throw the ball up to the rim, and I would just leap up and head-butt the ball right through the rim," she said.

Rockjaw developed a chronic migraine headache from playing basketball, so, when she came to WPC, she decided to try softball.

"When I tried out for the team, everybody laughed at me," said Rockjaw, who was 10-3 with a 2.43 earned run average for WPC this season. "Then they saw that I could throw an 80 mile-per-hour fastball with my face."

On the mound, Rockjaw seemed invincible at times. She threw a no-hitter against Charles Barkley University on May 2 and won her final five starts of the year.

"Sandy definitely gave us stability on the mound," WPC coach Ralph Petagna said. "Without her, we would have been lost. My 'Strat-O-Matic' team finished in first place this year."

Rockjaw has to keep the same maintenance on her face that most pitchers have to keep on their arms.

"After the game, I have to put an icebag on my face," she said. "Sometimes, my face gets sore after games, and I have to wrap and ace bandage around my head."

The problems that come with pitching with her face haven't stopped Rockjaw from achieving success on the diamond. She was named to the all-conference team this year, and Petagna projects that she will be WPC's number one starter next year.

"Yo, check this out: she'll start most of our games in 1996," Petagna said.

Sandy Rockjaw, who lost both her forearms at a young age, won ten games as a pitcher for the WPC softball team this year.

Siamese sextuplets try out for WPC field hockey

By Groin Connection
SNORTSWRITER

This fall, the WPC field hockey team will do something that no other team in sports history has ever done.

The Lady Pioneers will field a family of siamese sextuplets when their season begins in September. Lori, Laurie, Lauren, Loren, Lora and Lara Buttstuck, who have been joined at the pelvis since birth, will combine as goaltender for WPC.

"With the six of them standing in front of the goal, there's no way anybody will be able to score against us," said WPC coach Halbert Cola, who last year recruited a group of rotting corpses to play for the team with the hope that the smell of their dead bodies would scare away the Lady Pioneers' opponents.

Cola's plan last year did not work, as WPC's opponents wore gas masks throughout the season and easily drove past the Lady Pioneer's dead players.

This year, however, there seems to be no defense against WPC.

"The six of them put together are the same size of the width of the goal," Cola said. "As long as all six of them are in goal, there is absolutely no way anyone can score against us."

The Buttstucks, age 19, cannot be physically separated because, if they are, it will mean that their asses will have to be removed. As it is, having connecting butts causes problems for the girls.

"Whenever I have to go to the bathroom, I wind up taking a crap all over my sister Lora," said Lara Buttstuck, the front end of the siamese sextuplets.

"Sex is nearly impossible for all of us."

According to league regulations, the Buttstuck girls will count as one player, because there is no way of separating them.

"It would be unfair to the team if the girls were to count as six individual players," said one league official. "They're connected for life, so we might as well have some sympathy."

The Buttstuck girls have never played field hockey before, but Cola doesn't believe this will cause a problem.

"All they have to do is stand there," she said. "There's no way we can lose."

The Buttstuck girls were recently featured on the cover of Snorts Illustrated and in a story in The Snorting News.

"All the publicity is great," Lauren Buttstuck said, "and we haven't even played a game yet."

This is the snorts section, the pride and joy of The Bacon. Snorts Editor Jeremy "Stoner" Singer is the model for what every Bacon editor should be.

The Buttstuck sisters, who are joined at the pelvis, will combine to play goaltender for the WPC field hockey team next season.

