

Herald-News Photo by Jack Anderson

"HRUMPH, AS I WAS SAYING . . ."—What better day for a bright wool topper than yesterday's slurp? The usually somber stature of Garret A. Hobart that greets all at the Paterson Courthouse wore a festive air yesterday, Hobart, a Paterson lawyer, was vice president under William McKinley until his death in 1899.