Sophomore Class Plans Gala Hop

DATE SET—MARCH 30

The Sophomore Hop this year is expected to be one of the biggest events ever sponsored by the Class of '48. The theme for this affair will be spring and April showers, and the date set for the affair is Saturday evening, March 30, from 8:00 to 1:00. Bids are now being sold at $3, and at present pledges are being taken, with the deposit of $1.00.

The Sophomores are adopting the motto of giving their guests even more than their money's worth. Plans are being made to procure an excellent ten-piece band, and Connie Russo, chairman of the Refreshment Committee, is seeing to it that everyone will not go hungry that night!

Paulison Heads Decorations
The entire Sophomore Class, under the leadership of Ann Paulison, has volunteered to decorate the college auditorium for this event. Rather elaborate plans are being pursued, but the enthusiasm and interest of each sophomore more than insure success.

Something different in the line of publicity is also being conducted, under the chairmanship of Muriel Smith. So keep your eyes glued to the bulletin board and your ears open to some floating "ditties" about the Hop!

Bids Now On Sale
With such enthusiastic and ambitious plans, the Sophomore

Junior Prom Colorful Success

Pre-war festivities returned to "State" on February 21, when the Juniors sponsored the first formal Prom held since the beginning of hostilities. Formal gowns, dim lights, soft music (furnished by the La Sala Brothers Orchestra), and tables arranged in horseshoe fashion set the scene of the big event.

The theme of the Prom was "Snow" and the college auditorium was appropriately decorated with blue and white balloons, streamers, trees, and snow fairies.

Entertainment was provided by three Staters. Eunice Velle gave her rendition of the catchy "Personality"; Karl Krupp sang three popular numbers; and Joe Di Gangi played his arrangement of "Begin the Beguine."

Prom-trotters were greeted by a reception line consisting of Dr. Clair S. Wightman, Miss Edith Jackson, Miss Marguerite Tiffany, Junior Class Advisor; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Vivian, Alex Patterson, Class President; and Sonia Follender, Head of the Social Committee.

Other committees which helped to make the Prom a success were: Decorations Committee, Chairman Evelyn Walton; Refreshments Committee, Chairman Marianne Richardson; Publicity Committee, Chairman Estelle Gerland.

The entire class "pitched in" willingly to set the pace for a bigger and better formal ball.

Students-Faculty Members To Attend Eastern States Assoc. Conference

MURPHY SELECTED AS PANEL MEMBER

On Thursday and Friday, March 14 and 15, several student and faculty representatives of P.S.T.C. will attend the annual spring conference of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers which will be held at the Hotel Commodore in New York City. Phyllis Murphy, Senior Class President, has been selected as a panel member to discuss the topic: "Understanding the Russian People."

M & M To Present "Hired Girl"

The long awaited dramatic production, "Hired Girl," will be presented by the Masque and Masquers on March 22, during assembly period.

This one-act play has been in rehearsal for four weeks, and those who will perform in their respective roles before the expectant student body are June Stevens, Gladys Blum, Gloria Tarabour, Arlene Clebnik, Karl Krupp, George Pappas and Murray Saul, with Helen Potash acting as director.

This play tells of a temperamental spoiled girl who thinks she can write books, but can't; an English teacher who thinks she's a maid, but isn't; and a newspaper-reporter who thinks he's being chased by all the females, but isn't. These are only a few of the many complications that reveal themselves during the twenty-five minutes this play takes to unfold its zany plot.

To Present Three-Act Play
The three-act play to be presented in May, has already been cast and rehearsals will soon be in progress. The new play entitled "He Couldn't Marry Five," fulfills all the promises the title makes for a fast-moving side-splitting comedy. There is a serious element though, because after all, he couldn't marry five; out the events leading up to the final choice provide for a rollicking evening's entertainment. The date has not yet been set—decision is pending.

The Masque and Masquers in collaboration with the Art Club under the leadership of Muriel Smith, vice president, will begin work on scenery and stage-craft for the three-act play as soon as conditions permit. Any students interested in helping with the technical and back-stage phases of the new production will be welcomed by Murray Saul, scenery committee chairman.

KENNEDY MAKES DEBUT AT TOWN HALL RECITAL

Mary Kennedy, graduate of Paterson State Teachers College, will make her debut at Town Hall on Sunday, April 28, 8:30 p.m. in her recital.

Having undergone a long period of training under the noted Maestro Astolfo Fiescia, Miss Kennedy will include in her Town-Hall repertoire well-known selections in French, German, and Italian, as well as a group of traditional Irish melodies in English and Gaelic. This young artist is gifted with a beautiful soprano voice of a rich, vibrant quality and purity of diction.

President, Miss S. Wightman is one of the co-chairmen of the recital.

The program scheduled for Thursday and Friday, which will open with a faculty luncheon on the 14th, includes various student and faculty-alumni conferences dealing with student and social problems and a study of the teacher's role in social understanding. The student conferences which will be held on Thursday are "Student Government Problems," "Curricular Needs and Interests of Students," "Student Publications," and "Extra-curricular Activities." Topics to be discussed on Friday are "Science and Human Understanding," "Understanding the Russian People," "Improving Race Relationships in the United States Through Education" and "Understanding Labor-Management Relationships."

These panel discussions will be conducted with faculty members acting as moderators and students participating. The student-faculty program committee, under the chairmanship of Dr. Roland Will, has announced "that they are endeavoring to select problems for discussion which are most challenging and interesting to present day college students."

P. & Q. Club Sees "The Desert Song"

Members of the P & Q Club made their second trip into New York to see a play. During the first semester the Club saw "The Song of Norway" while "The Desert Song" was the second play seen. All members enjoyed both plays very much.

During the February meeting plans were made for a faculty tea, which will be held some Wednesday afternoon in the month of April.

Under the suggestion of Ann Paulison, chairman, plans for the "Mock Wedding" was cancelled. A new idea is now being planned.

THINK OF THE NEXT FELLOW . . .

The final realization of our dreams for a new college may be very slow in materializing but we're soon going to be given an opportunity to show how appreciative we can be for any improvement of our environment. Yes, a new smoking room is being built for us. It will replace the old one with many renovations. Perhaps the most outstanding addition to this room will be its increased size.

With the proper amount of neglect, carelessness, and selfishness, this room can once more be the "stuffy, dirty" room it was before the carpenters and the painters came to the rescue. Yes, with almost no effort at all, we can forfeit any further opportunities for improvement of our surroundings.

This room will accommodate many more people than before. Let those of us who are looking forward to the new room set an example for others who are new who might unintentionally misuse what we have been waiting for so long.

Treat the newly decorated smoking room as you would your best friend and dissuade others from doing anything harmful or injurious to our only social room. The minutest amount of consideration and thoughtfulness is all that is necessary to make the new room a socially-accepted meeting place. Let's be fair about it—think of the next fellow!

"HEAR YE STUDENTS"

This is not an advertising campaign, only a "heart to heart talk" about something that has been discussed over and over again—assembly attendance.

Every Friday morning at assembly time the same familiar faces are present in the auditorium. Their attendance is greatly appreciated and these "faithful few" will continue to support assembly programs. But where are the other fifty percent of students. Have you ever walked through the halls during assembly time and watched groups of students wasting an hour that could be both enjoyable and educational?

Have you ever analyzed the programs presented? A more versatile group could never be found. Outside entertainment, student participation, and musical assemblies are all skillfully presented before a mere handful of students.

Upper classmen: are you encouraging or discouraging new Freshmen to attend assemblies?

This is only wishful thinking, but just think what a wonderful sight it would be to see the auditorium filled to capacity for every assembly program!

IT'S NOT OVER YET!

. . . and it won't be over until all the boys are home for good. That's why the American Red Cross still has a tough job ahead of them. The Red Cross Annual Drive is being conducted here at P.S.T.C. during the month of March, as is being done by many other colleges and organizations.

Let's do our share, "Staters" by really backing and contributing freely toward this cause.

A Grim Fairy Tale

Once upon a time Johnny Raindrop lived high on a fleecy white cloud. He was known to be the most successful drop of water in all Cloudville, making more trips down to the planet Earth than any other drop in history. But, alas, everybody agreed on one thing, Johnny was no business man!

One bright morning Johnny decided to visit his "earthwhile" friends again via the April rain. Special—a decision which was destined to become the turning point of his career. On this excursion he met Francie Dewdrop.

If there's now such a thing as "love at first sight" for human beings, there certainly is for Raindrops. They were married in a matter of drizzles.

Francie and Johnny Raindrop became known as the happiest young couple of the day. Johnny's office work prospects flocked to him; everyone fought for his advice. He even induced the sun to sign a contract in which Mr. Sol promised to immediately raise all water drops into Cloudville upon request.

Alidst all this luck and good fortune, Francie went to the hospital to await the arrival of Sir Stork. Then it happened! The Raindrops were the proud parents of millionuptlets, the healthiest little bunch of drips you've ever seen!

On a beautiful summer day, Francie stood a little fearfully at the side as her husband and his brood fell collectively down to Earth for the first time. But there was nothing to fear. This occasion wrote Johnny's name indelibly in the Who's Who of the Stratosphere. Johnny Raindrop will forever be known as the inventor of the Sun Shower.

... "Through Our Goggles"

By JEAN PASINSKA and CAROL GREY

We proudly introduce a new type of feature which every student in the college may contribute. This special column will be compiled to include your most interesting experiences, original jokes, short short facts, and personal views and opinions. Here's how two cents to "your" column. Jot down anything the aforementioned suggestions (legibly, please) and drop it in the BEACON box found on the library. Nominations for a person to the "Month" may also be inserted, but your real reason. Signature is necessary on any written information.

SALUTE OF THE MONTH

Two weeks ago Mr. Eugene Vivian sacrificed classes for a very worthy purpose. He used the time for an informal talk urging Brotherhood Week activities. The second period was cancelled for those who attended the Brotherhood meeting, February 19, at eight o'clock so many complimentary remarks have been made about Mr. Vivian that he may find it gratifying to have a brave attempt to penetrate our thick skulls and succeed than he ever expected. If enough of us work on spreading the dogma of the Brotherhood, this will be a better place to live. Thanks again, Mr. Vivian!

DISA AND DATA

So glad to see some of the new freshies taking "Ping-Pong." Why call it an art? Well, it's not so easy to ball over the net, but to keep the ball out of the net really requires arduous practice.

My! My! My! What can the trouble be? So many fragile females are coming down with laryngitis that the males would answer in unison, "That's because you're so much," but, personally, I think it's because of parading around the upper corridors in their tight, tight physical, (of course).

SO WE'RE TOLD!

If Joe Di Gangi approaches you with, "I have a question to ask you," be sure to answer, "no" (for bigamy). And when he calls you "dub'naysh," it doesn't worry. According to Joe's new vocabulary, it's "dub'naysh."

"OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF BABES"

One day at Ray's, Ruth Wheeler settled herself to light a cigarette, and suddenly felt a slight tug. Looking down, she saw a small boy with such a pleading facial expression that it looked out of place on his face. He stared solemnly up at her and said, "Does your father smoke?"

AFTER-THOUGHTS

Say, have you heard those jokes Thimbleton has been spreading around? If not, here goes:

1. Who is the father of all jokes?
2. Did you hear about the couple who were candlelight? Too bad it only had one candle!
3. Who was the earliest prehistoric singer? Just in case you haven't met Thelma, she's Needle Nosed Nick!

Till next time then we leave you these few over. Who is "Kilroy?" and are the women at surplus? (See George Pappas.)

SPORT RAYS

By JOE JASKIEWICZ

INTERSCHOLASTIC SPORTS have returned; that is, basketball and baseball. Coach Schmidt is back, and he has now taken over where he left off some three odd years ago. It's going to take a lot of work on the part of both Mr. Schmidt and the players to bring Paterson State back to the sports position held by State in the days of yore. We used to have one of the best basketball teams in the state, and if there is anyone who can bring back new teams that compare with those of the past, it's Coach Schmidt. The way it looks, he certainly does have the material to work with.

THIS IS OUR FIRST SEASON and we cannot expect too much but the mere fact that we have more wins than losses goes to support the fact that we do have the material and the coach. While watching the games, I was very much impressed by the trio that came to us from Lodi High School: Grembowiec, Pekaar, and Piazza—they've been playing a good brand of ball. Piazza has the highest total of points for the season—Grembowiec has been doing a good job on the defense, especially guarding individual best players on the opposing team—Pekaar has been doing well under the basket. Art Aronoff plays an exceptionally good center position. Ernie Genrich adds quite a few digits under the basket. Mort Fink does his bit at the pivot slot—he has quite a few points to his credit also. Don Beattie has been moving that ball with great skill. Lastly, there is Sy Sirota who's always good for at least three baskets if not a greater number.

SCHOOL SPIRIT has been lacking at our away games, but I think that this problem has been solved. Special buses are now hired to transport those students who are interested.

BASEBALL CHATTER is beginning to fly around throughout the 48 states and in about three weeks, the epidemic will strike at State. A team manager has already been appointed and a schedule is being formulated. Other schools now being contacted include: Panzer, Trenton State Teachers, Montclair State Teachers, Iona, East Stroudsburg, Wagner, and Upsala. The majors are warming up everywhere this year, including such places as Panama and Florida, (not that we compare, coach, but when do we leave?)

BERT - "THE RUGGED ROOPER"

2ND QUARTER 3RD QUARTER 4TH QUARTER

Aubrey Pankey At Assembly

Aubrey Pankey, well-known Negro baritone, accompanied by Rudolph Schaar, presented a delightful and varied program during the assembly period on March 1. He sang an assortment of selections including several classics and Negro spirituals. For his encore, he sang "The House I Live In" which everyone particularly enjoyed.

Mr. Pankey's musical education includes studies in both America and Europe. He has made more than 200 appearances in sixty cities of foreign countries. He has the distinction of being the first American to make a concert tour of Palestine.

Mr. Pankey has been in the United States since November, 1933, and has been establishing his American career as soloist with the symphony orchestra, on concert tours, and on radio programs.

To Kalon Sponsors First Formal Affair

At the last meeting of the To Kalon Sorority, which was held at the home of Rose Adams in Hoboken, Monday, February 28, plans were made for the first formal affair since the war. Although all arrangements have been tentative, the affair is expected to be held on a Saturday evening, March 16, at the Moresque Restaurant in Montclair.

The Sorority also intends to see a New York play during the first week of June. Tickets will be procured for one of the three following plays: "Lute Song," "Show Boat," and "The Red Mill." The trip to New York will include dinner, also.

Faculty Veterans Guests At Party

In honor of Paterson State's three faculty veterans, the faculty held a dinner at the Paterson Y.M.C.A., Friday, March 3, at 6:30. Honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weidner, Henry E. Schmidt, Carl E. Snedeker, and Mrs. Elizabeth Money-penny, who taught the music classes during Mr. Weidner's period in service.

The faculty social committee was in charge of arrangements, with Mrs. Margaret Ford as chairman of the dinner, assisted by Miss Mildred Lee in charge of games. Eugene Vivian led the singing, including a welcome song written for the veterans by Miss Lillian Adams.

Weidner, Schmidt, Boer, Vivian, Win Prizes

After the dinner, games were played. Earl "angel" Weidner won the prize for the "prettiest" newspaper costume designed by Dr. Louise Alteneider. Other newspaper costumes which won prizes included that of Henry "Time to Retire" Schmidt, designed by Mrs. Weidner; "Cher" Boer, designed by Miss Adams; and Mr. Vivian's "funniest" costume, designed by ?.

Games Prove Hilarious

Much merriment was caused by the baby pictures brought by most of the faculty, which were numbered for identification in a guessing game. An animal-spring game turned into mob hilarity, when the captains who were guarding the "bean nests" were unceremoniously evicted. Another lively game of hilarity ended the party with the veterans volunteering to clean up the room!

ZETA KAPPA CHI PLANS DINNER
Zeta Kappa Chi Sorority will hold a Mother and Daughter Dinner at Nystrom's Restaurant on March 7. Plans for the affair are still being made.

Eastern States

A general luncheon for students and faculty will be the high spot of the conference on Friday, and the "a capella" choir of State Teachers College, Trenton, will furnish music for the luncheon.

Faculty members and students who will attend the conference on Thursday, March 14, include Dr. Clair S. Wightman, Dr. Samuel Unzicker, Miss Christie Jeffries, official faculty representative, Miss Juliette Trainor, and Mr. Howard Haas. Students also attending on Thursday are BEACON representatives, Angela Romanelli, Editor-in-Chief, and Mary Lobosco, News Editor.

On Friday, the four Class Presidents: Phyllis Murphy, senior; Alex Patterson, junior; Helen Potash, sophomore; and Herbert Stelling, freshman, and the four members of the Executive Council of the Student Government: Edith Coyle, president; Marjorie Dickerson, vice-president; Ruth Spedding, secretary; and Estelle Bishop, treasurer, will attend. Dr. Tunis Baker, Dr. Herbert Freeman, Dr. Mark Karp, Miss Mildred Lee, Dr. Henry Schmidt, Dr. Edith Shannon, Mrs. Margaret Ford, Miss Marguerite Tiffany, Dr. Unzicker, Mr. Eugene Vivian, Mr. Earl Weidner, Mr. Robert Williams, Mr. Gordon Matthews, and Mr. Carl Snedeker, faculty members, will attend on Friday, March 15.

New Business Students Honored By Debits & Credits

On Wednesday evening, February 13, the Debits and Credits honored the new business students with a party held in the auditorium. Dancing, "get-acquainted" games, refreshments, and singing, made the evening a huge success. Much of the credit for its success should be given to the members of the entertainment and refreshment committee.

The Debits and Credits presented their first assembly program, which was also this year's first exhibition of dramatic ability, on Friday, February 15. A skit entitled, "The Newark Bus Stop" was portrayed by Marie De Rosa, Gloria Tarabour, and Ada Skuratofsky who enacted their parts very realistically. Dotty Webber's antics in "Prospects" had the audience giggling, while Sylvia Cook's perfection as the woman executive and Claire Barth's efficiency as the perfect secretary provided just the right contrast. Mr. Bowle from the Gregg Publishing Company presented the college with a bronze plaque signifying BEACON as the winner of the 1935 shorthand contest. The plaque was accepted by Marie De Rosa who was the winner of the first prize in the contest.

Plans for the annual trip to New York are now being made by the club. This year they plan to go "behind the scenes" at Macy's, have dinner together, and then attend a broadcast at Radio City in the evening.
