Miss Greenaway's Book Accepted for Publication

Miss Emily Greenaway, the author of the novel "Sweepstakes", several children's books, and co-author of the text book "The Secretary at Work" is awaiting publication of her new book, "Ever-Lovin' Mom". A fictionalized biography of the Greenaway family, "Ever-Lovin' Mom" is an amusing story of the courage of ordinary people who come out on top of all their trials and tribulations. It is centered around "Mom" a courageous, humorous, resilient woman, who was an inspiration to her family and friends. "Mom" is seen through the eyes of an eight year old child, Meg, (M. Emily Greenaway), and is written in the first person.

The book was written in the late thirties and was accepted for publication by the Houghton-Mifflin Publishing Company in 1940. It was rewritten at that time to meet certain specifications of that company. The coming of the war postponed its publication, and it was later returned to the author. It was rewritten a second time and was accepted for publication by the Exposition Press of New York for publication in the late summer of early fall of 1956.

Mr. Faulhaber to Leave For Cambodia This Year

We regret to announce that Mr. Faulhaber will leave P.S.T.C. on March 28. He will accept a position in Cambodia, a small area in Indo-China. There is a population of 4,500,000 in Cambodia; 20% Vietnamese, 50% Cambodian, and 30% Chinese. In 1946, 2% of the children attended school; in 1955, 40% attended.

Mr. Faulhaber is being sent by the U.S. government as a Field Education Supervisor with the International Cooperation Administration (formerly the Point IV Program). He will work with the establishment of pilot schools in

President's Message

During this changing season, college life will come closer to your hopes if you take time out to stand in the sun and wind on our high hill and meditate on the imminence of spring and the rebirth of all nature, if you remember to refurbish your spiritual outlook as you would re-do your room at home. If you forget yourself and selfish desires and lose yourself in others and their hopes and desires. This is a season to be glad; to rejoice in the privilege of attending college and of being among those who, like you, have chosen teaching as a profession.

On April 18, His Excellency, Governor Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, will make his first visit to our campus on the occasion of the dedication of our new building—Memorial Gymnasium and the Sarah Byrd Askew Library—and our enlarged cafeteria, Wayne Hall. Let us prepare for this special day in our fast-growing college by readying our home and ourselves by doing our spring housecleaning now, by dressing up for Easter.

May your Easter be happy and the days ahead bright and filled with a sense of pride in yourself and your college.

Senior-Faculty Foodfest At Donohue's April 20

On Friday, April 20, the traditional senior-faculty dinner was held at Donohue's restaurant in Mountainview. The affair is presented to seniors by the S.G.A.

Originally scheduled for the 23rd of March, the dinner was moved up because of the Eastern States Convention which many of the faculty attended.

Governor to Dedicate Paterson State Edifices

On March 18, Sunday, Alumni Reunion Day was held at P.S.T.C. The program consisted of a tour of the new buildings, with student guides, class meetings, refreshments and a general meeting. At this meeting, Rocco Montesano, class of 1947 and president of the Alumni Association, delivered the welcoming address and then introduced Mrs. Joan Fisher, chairman of the reunion. Mrs. Fisher in turn introduced our president, Dr. Shea, who spoke on the future of our college. Some of Dr. Shea's dreams of dormitories, a demonstration school, a new Student Life building and additions to our curriculum promise to become realities in the near future. Dr. Shea also invited all alumni to the dedication of our two new buildings to be held on April 18th at 2:00. The guests will include Governor Meyner and Commissioner Ranbinger.

To close the program, Edie Timmer, S.G.A. secretary, presented a check for $657.00 to the Association treasurer, Ann Lawler, for membership dues for our present students in the Association.

Pat St Teachers College Represented In ESAPST Confab In New Yorker Hotel

Members of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers, the largest student centered professional group in the United States, attended the annual Spring conference at the Hotel New Yorker on March 22, 23, and 24.

The theme for the conference was "The Teacher and the Learner." Lewie Standand was chairman of a panel group representing colleges from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York, whose topic for discussion was "The Role of Student Government in the Preparation of Teachers." Marjela Pair, acting as chairman of the group concerned with "The Place of General and Professional Education in the Preparation of Teachers" was associated with panel members from New Jersey, New York, and Massachusetts.

Dr. James Houston, our official college representative, Al Piaget, our official student delegate, members of the S.G.A. executive committee, consisting of Pat Groves, Steve Hodgson, Don Maloney, Adam Richberg, Rudy Salletti, Edie Timmer, and Thom Westling, and several faculty members, all attended this conference.

The principal speaker at the dinner attended by all on Friday evening, was Dr. Howard Lane, Professor of Education at New York University.

'Beacon' Wins 2nd Prize At Columbia

We are proud to announce that at the annual Columbia Press Convention in N.Y.C. on March 15, 16, and 17th the BEACON was awarded second prize among the teachers colleges in N. J., Mass., Pa., Del., and Ga.

Also at this conference, Miss Judy Johnson, sophomore and News

JUDY JOHNSON

Editor of the BEACON was a member of a panel entitled "Editorial Page Layout." The panel discussed subject matter of editorials, editorial cartoons, editorial length and many other ideas we at P.S.T.C. will try in the future. Also on the panel were: Dick Webber and Dorothy Grass from East Stroudsburg S.T.C., Irene Lamken, Boston S.T.C., and Arlene Belanger from Rhode Island College of Education.

Prof. of Art to Leave After 30 Years

At the close of this spring semester, Miss Marguerite Tiffany, art instructor and Palatser advisor, will complete her teaching career here at Paterson after serving since 1927.

Having studied at Syracuse, Columbia, and New York University as well as Paterson's School in New York, Miss Tiffany has received her B.A. and M.A. degrees, the latter being in industrial art. A member of the National Art Education Association, Eastern Arts Association, American Artists Professional League in New Jersey, to mention a few of her activities, Miss Tiffany served for two years as president of the Montclair Museum Art Association and is honored by being included in the Who's Who in East and Who's Who in American Art.

Although no definite plans have been made as yet, Miss Tiffany, "our absent-minded professor", shall either continue her career at another school, or enter the business world where she may continue her art work and leave time for enjoyment of the theatre, opera, and dancing. As any rule, the entire student body wishes her the very best of luck!

Sophomore Soloist Plays At Hamilton Celebration

On March 19, 1955, Claire Spratter, a sophomore at P.S.T.C. was soloist at the Alexander Hamilton Hotel in Paterson at a luncheon honoring Alexander Hamilton as founder of Paterson. Miss Spratter sang the Star Spangled Banner and was accompanied by Dorothy Cantillon also a sophomore.

This occasion marked the first day issue of the new Alexander Hamilton stamp. Among the honored guests were two great, great grandsons of Alexander Hamilton, the Deputy Postmaster General, the President of the Bank of New York, which Hamilton founded, the Honorable Peter W. Rodino, Congressman for Essex County and Passaic County Congressman, Gordon Canfield.

Well, well . . . so it's spring!!

It's good to have nice weather again after a long and miserable winter. With Easter just a few days away and a vacation to look forward to, everyone is in a gay old mood. Guess they have spring fever like me.

Boy, was the school empty without our beloved juniors and seniors. We kids almost rattled around here. It'll be nice when we're back together again as a large, happy family.

Everywhere I look now I see some crazy-mixed-up golfing hats. The freshmen have decided to bring some of that old "ivy look" to P.S.T.C., according to Bill James.

Come next September, we'll have two veteran Marines back on campus. Kathy Sordelich and Carol Peterson are going to the W.O.T.C. training program at Quantico, Va. Hope they decided to leave all those Marines and come back to us when their time is finished.

It seems that the girls who were so busy making socks a little while ago have now started a new craze. Now they are knitting afghans.

If any of you kids stay around school later than 3:00 on Wednesdays, you might hear a loud chorus singing. It's just Dr. Lee's camping education class having a grand old time. In fact we are learning how to lead singing so in case you should peek in and see hands motioning, it's just a bunch of Sophs trying to get the four-four beat to "White Coral Bells."

Along with our boys' quartet, we now have a girls' quartet, made up of Pat De Vries, Alice Borer, Cathy Canisano and Dot Cantilina. They sure sounded good the other day when I heard them practicing. Everyone will get a chance to hear them at a future program they will present.

Since our gym wasn't ready, the Freshmen and Sophomore girls have been going howling at the Wayne Country Club. Just ask Lee Gemza and Evelyn Hadler what they hit besides the pins.

Everyone should check the new student mail box once in a while . . . it's put up for the convenience of all the kids but if mail isn't taken out after being in there for two weeks it will be taken out again. It is right outside the main office. All mail and student notes may be left under the appropriate initial, instead of on the bulletin board.

Chris has had some complaints that he hasn't covered all classes sufficiently so if you know of any news from now on please, please leave a note either in the BECON box or write a note for Marie Mesko. This way all students may be newsgutters for Chris.

Well, I guess I'll get back to my hole, or maybe curl up in the new lounging chairs in the library. So long for now . . . have a Happy Easter.

Introducing . . . GIRL FRIDAY

Jack Kaiser

By JANICE TEICHLER

TAKE IT FROM AN EXPERT

I. How to Take Notes:

The easiest way to take notes is to follow the Harvard system of outlining. Start with a Roman I, and then indent to capital A. Indent further to an Arabic 1. Draw a line from the top center of the I, through the point of the A, and attach to the top of the 1. Through the bottom of the I, draw another line parallel to the former, ending at the bottom of the 1. This forms an attractive leaf. To the right of this leaf, draw a stem and crown with a brilliant burst of a sunflower, or the graceful curves of a tulip. Continue in this fashion until a garden results, or the bell rings, whichever comes first. Another favorite technique of note-taking is to pretend that your fans want your autograph, and see how many times you can write your signature in sixty seconds. Information on the classroom discussion can be gained from the boy in the next seat.

II. How to Appear "Activated":

At no time should you be seated. Always appear to be coming from or going to. Frequently make loud remarks, such as "Those meetings are getting longer and longer" or "I ache all over from practice yesterday" or "Everything falls on Thursday, third period." It is permissible to throw open the door of Room 1450 and bellow, "Any mail for me?" Complain that you'll never get your homework done at this rate; announce that you'd better hurry with the copy if you want to beat the deadline; and always pretend you've read everything before publication. It is also advisable to tell all your friends that house-plan dues are bankrupting you.

III. How to Answer a Test Question:

The following standard answer has proven successful time and again:

"There are many facets to formulating the proper approach to this question. Insofar as proponents of this idea feel, it is equally beneficial to all if this idea is given pre-eminence above lesser and inconsequential rationales. It is nevertheless true, however, that opponents frequently voice valid and somewhat authoritative objections but they fall short of adequate and sustained truths.

"It should also be noted that no one argument can be validly and convincingly presented which would circumvent the critiques of specialists in this field and which would, at the same time, ascertain all the determinants of the accepted dogma.

"Thus it has been shown that although frequent and sometimes irresponsible challenges exist, the principles expressed in the question are considered ever-present."

IV. How to Avoid Reading That English Book:

Our English Departments chores classics which, happily, are frequently made into movies. Watch theater and television announcements for enactments of that book that's assigned. A search of the library will produce a review of most books and frequently the reviews contain summaries. Contact book clubs for possible "blurbs" they may have available. Inquire if Classics Illustrated comics have made pictorial paragon with the plot. Locate people who may have some knowledge of the book or pump eager-beaver classmates. Only as a last resort should you read the book.

V. How to Return an Over-due Book.

Tariff-Free, to the Library:

Place the book on the counter and then quickly change the subject by asking the length of the waiting list for "Marjorie Morningstar." If this ruse fails through ask if the library carries Ramon's "New Concepts or Diary of a Secretarial Student" by Nudley. If a search fails for these books fails, then advise the Librarian that the phone just rang, on the far, far side of the library. If this plan is likewise thwarted ask the nature of the ceremonies at City Hall. When the Librarian looks out the window, you slip out the door. In case of emergency, faint.

ing. According to Coach George Brown, Jack is an excellent prospect for the future. He also intends to land a spot on the baseball team this spring and if his high school record means anything he should make it very easily. Jack has always divided his time between pitching and first base but is willing to play almost anywhere. He is also a member of the M.A.A.

As can be expected, "Jake's" hobbies include all kinds of sports, but his taste also runs to redheads! He dislikes all kinds of work, especially homework, and intends to spend as much of the summer on a ball field as possible since he would like to include coaching as part of his profession after graduation.

Beverly Patterson

Vivacious, cheerful and friendly are the adjectives that best describe Beverly Patterson or Bev as she is known to all her friends of the Freshman Class. Having from Union City, Bev came to us via Holy Rosary Academy, where she was active in Student Government and held membership in the Latin, French and Dramatic Clubs. In addition to these activities, Bev was co-editor of the 1955 Yearbook and a student par excellence. She was chosen class salutatorian for graduation.

At Paterson State, Bev is a staff member of the BEACON and active in F.T.A., as well as being a fencing enthusiast. A popular member of her class, she has many friends, but Sheila Moore, Mickie Nilies, Mary Pannoni and Muriel Morgan are her inner circle.

Bev's favorite pastimes are skating, swimming, bowling and dancing. She admires men who smoke pipes but there is a certain somebody, attending college in the West we hear. Her pet peeves: two-faced people and slow drivers.

Central Theatre to Hold First Stage Presentation

After an absence of ten years, big "name" bands are returning in all-star "in-person" shows at the Central Theatre, Passaic, where such musical greats as Frank Sinatra, Glenn Miller and Benny Goodman have performed in the past to the delight of local music-lovers.

The first new program in this new stage-show policy at the Central Theatre, Passaic, will take place on Monday and Tuesday, April 2 and 3, when the great Duke Ellington and His Famous Orchestra, celebrated Capitol recording artists will headline an all-star program of radio, TV and record celebrities. Also appearing "in person" in this star-studded show will be Johnny Desmond, famous recording star of Coral records; Lillian Briggs, "Queen of the Rock 'n' Roll"; Artie Dunn, fast-rising new comic from the Ed Sullivan TV show; and "The Four Winds," roller skating acrobats. A full-length feature attraction, "The Steel Cage," starring John Ireland will round out this stellar stage and screen show, which will be presented three times daily, Monday and Tuesday, April 2 and 3, at the Central Theatre, Passaic.

Citizenship Club

To start the new semester off with a bang, the Citizenship Committee of P.S.T.C. sponsored a tea in the Little Theatre on February 16, 1956. Open invitations were sent to all classes with special invitations issued to the new Freshmen.

Pat Byers, chairman of the club's Social Committee, spoke to the group present and told of the work which the club has done in the past and also what the future plans will include.

The officers of the club were introduced. They are: President Mary Gail Theiler; Vice President Richie Perns; Secretary, Rose Jung; Treasurer, Mary Hamilton.

The advisor to the club, Dr. Miller, answered questions pertaining to the club's activities.

Everyone interested in joining the Committee is most cordially invited to be present at the next club meeting which will be posted on the bulletin boards in Hambley Hall.

Doctor Freeman Speaks At Teachers' Convention

From Thursday through Sunday, March 29 to 31, the fifty-ninth ($9) annual convention of the Eastern Business Teachers Association will meet in Atlantic City, New Jersey, with Dr. M. Herbert Freeman, chairman of P.S.T.C. Business Education Department, scheduled to present a keynote speech on "Teaching Bookkeeping for Future Needs."

Besides Dr. Freeman and Dr. Louis C. Nannery, a member of Paterson's faculty and students, including Carol Smith of Clifton and Andrew Pryor of Garfield, shall attend this convention which generally draws approximately one thousand (1,000) business educators from the thirteen (13) Eastern states.

Dr. Freeman was also the chairman of the Office Services Committee for the national conference of the Association or the Supervision and Curriculum Development which was held March 18th through 23rd at the Hotel New Yorker in New York City.

FACULTY CORNER

Sometimes, we as students are inclined to think that we are the only ones with busy schedules. Here is a list of some of the things some of our faculty has been doing the month of March. This is not, by far, a complete listing but it gives us an idea what the faculty does besides preparing class work, tests and marking papers.

Miss Meeker:

- March 5—Workshop for Livingston Teachers
- 7—Hawthorne High School, "Future Teachers of America"
- 8—Passaic High School Assembly Recruiting
- 10—State Reading Conference South Orange, "Reading in the Primary Grades"
- 15—Midland Park School Assembly — Recruiting. Ridgefield P.T.A.—"Your Child and Reading"
- 20—Bogota High School Assembly—Recruiting
- 21—Cooper Teachers Conference and Tea—P.S.T.C.
- 26—P.T.A. Tenafly Smith School, Moderator on Panel
- 28—Hackensack Junior High School, Recruiting.

Ed. note: By recruiting is meant speaking to possible future applicants to P.S.T.C.

Dr. Mark Karp

- March 12—Pines Lake P.T.A. lecture—"Reading in Our Schools"
- 20—Gilbert Avenue P.T.A., Paterson—lecture—"Teaching of Reading"
- 10—Reading Conference of N.J.E.A. in South Orange—"Establishing Reading Levels in Elementary School"

Miss Jeffries:

Chairman of judges for the American Association of University Women's creative contest in poetry, short stories and drama, the winner of which is to be announced on April 7th at the Spring Creative Arts Festival at Douglass College.

Mrs. Stine:

- March 8—Guest at Career Night at Ramsey High School

Mrs. Klein:

- March 19—Panel member on "Community Mobilizes the Health of Its Youth." School 26 in Paterson.

Miss Tiffany

- March 12—Member of banquet committee of Eastern Arts Convention N.Y.C. at the Hotel Commodore. These Patersoners were also asked to make the 1,000 place cards for the banquet. Miss Tiffany is also on the art committee of the Museum of Modern Art at the State College of Pennsylvania.

F. T. A.

On Thursday, February 23, the Future Teachers of America Club has two guest speakers at their meeting. Miss Sally Jacobs, Art Consultant to the Marmaroneck annual to be held at the Central Schools and Mr. Leon Shanker, Theatre in Passaic. This contest Art Supervisor to the Statewide is a preliminary to the Miss Schools' both spoke of their art teaching.

Miss Jacobs explained the various roles an art teacher plays in different school systems and also stressed the need for greater understanding between the regular classroom instructor and the special teacher. Mr. Shanker then demonstrated the different techniques used by an artist to stimulate a young child's interest in art.

For the benefit of the members, both brought along several projects which their pupils had completed. Everyone was amazed at the ability of such young children for the speakers said that almost any child was capable of good work if he was interested enough and if he was encouraged.

All in all, it was a most beneficial meeting and all who were present required a desire to have Miss Jacobs and Mr. Shanker back again in the near future.

For their next meeting on Thursday, March 22, the Club presented a program on Visual Arts and its use in the classroom.

Mr. Suttman on Group For Science Pedagogues

At the National Science Teachers Association Convention, held in Washington, D.C. during the days of March 14th through 18th, Paterson State was represented by Mr. Frederic X. Suttman who acted as consultant on a committee concerned with stimulating interest in elementary school science. Mr. Suttman, who is also a member of the American Society, further served on a committee discussing the testing of high school chemistry programs.

Passaic Junior Chamber To Have Pageant In May

The Passaic Junior Chamber of Commerce announces its Fourth Annual Miss Greeter Passaic Pageant to be held at the Central Schools and Mr. Leon Shanker, Theatre in Passaic. This contest Art Supervisor to the Statewide is a preliminary to the Miss Schools' both spoke of their art teaching.

will compete with winners of other local contests for the title of Miss New Jersey.

The requirements for entrance are as follows:

1. Entrant must be single and never have been married, divorced, or had marriage annulled.
2. Entrant must be a high school graduate by September of this year.
3. Entrant's age on September 1st shall not be less than eighteen nor more than twenty-eight years.
4. Entrant must be of good character and possess poise, personality, intelligence, charm, and beauty of face and figure.
5. Entrant must possess and display in a three-minute routine—Talent. This talent may be singing, dancing, playing a musical instrument, dramatic reading, etc. or she may give a three-minute talk on the career she wishes to pursue.
6. Entrant may be either amateur or professional.

All girls who are interested should contact Mr. Rudy De Blasio, Central Theatre, Passaic New Jersey.

This is an excellent opportunity for girls with talent or theatrical ambitions to compete with other local girls for recognition.

We hope all of our eligible P.S.T.C. ladies will throw their hats in the ring.

M and M Club to Present Tree Planting Is Planned For Arbor Day Program

Living up to its reputation as an active organization of P.S.T.C., the Masque and Masquers has scheduled for the last week in April, a unique double production consisting of two plays, one of which will have an all girl cast and the other a cast composed entirely of men. The former, to be directed by Tuzbe Schweitzer, is in the process of casting while the latter's players are as follows: John Moeschella, as Bob; John Moran as Ed; Don Corran, as the bellboy; Mario Voipe as the first fireman; and Rudy Sallitti, as the second fireman. Appropriately, the second play is entitled "The Shift

On April 16th the Campus Improvement Committee, consisting of Dr. Shea, Dr. White, Dr. Baker and various students, will conduct Paterson State's annual Arbor Day Ceremony.

Planned for the most part by the seniors, the day is generally observed on campus by the presentation of each class, through its president, of a tree which is planted according to the major landscaping plan for P.S.T.C.

Alarm," and promises to live up to the success of last year's comedy, "If Men Played Cards Like Women Do."

Intercollegiate Fencers To Be Guests of P. S.

Members of the Intercollegiate Women's Fencing Association will be the guests of Paterson State on Saturday, April 14. This will be the twenty-eighth annual meeting and competition of the group, and the second time that Paterson State has been the "hostess" college.

The entire day will be utilized, with business meetings and practice sessions dominating the morning's activities. At noon the contestants and officials will join together for a buffet luncheon prior to the afternoon's competition.

There will be three categories, A, B, and C, in the competition. A three bout match between girls in the same category will take place. There will be nine rounds which will complete a round robin of the teams.

In previous years the number of matches won has been the basis for the scoring; however, the executive committee has revised this, and now the number of bouts won will determine the winning team.

Following the team bouts, a pool of six fencers from each team (top three in A, two in B, and one in C) will have to qualify for the individual championship.

Dinner will be served in the cafeteria, followed by the presentation of trophies, speeches, and the induction of the new officers. This year's president and secretary-treasurer were Jane Dardila and Jean Moreck, respectively. This was the first time that both of the officers represented the same college.

Rochester Institute of Technology took first place in team scoring last year, and Jo Ann Montevideo, who has graduated from Fairleigh Dickinson, captured the individual championship. Paterson State and Jane Dardila placed second in the respective championships.

Paterson's team has lost no members through graduation, and had the new scoring been in effect last year, they would have won.

The teams represented in the association are Brooklyn College, Elmira, Fairleigh Dickinson, Hunter, Jersey City State, Kenia, Montclair State New York University, Paterson State, and Rochester Institute of Technology.

Playday At Glassboro Enjoyed By 6 Colleges

On Saturday, February 25, Glassboro State Teachers College held a Playday for the six member colleges of the New Jersey Federation of College Women. It began at 10 o'clock and ended with a dinner at 4:30. Various sports were played among which were basketball, volleyball, ping pong, darts, shuffleboard and cage ball. The Glassboro Modern Dance Club also presented two dance numbers. The colleges which were represented were: Patner, Drew, Saint Elizabeths, Trenton State Teachers College, Paterson State Teachers College and Glassboro State Teachers College.

CAMPING NEWS

By devoting an entire section of their convention to "Camping in Action," the Association of Private Camps is turning April into July on Saturday morning, April 7th, at the New York Hotel.

At the hotel, college students and prospective counselors will see actual demonstrations featuring six of the most popular camp activities. All the exhibits are designed to acquaint the visitors with the way a program is run at a member camp of the Association of Private Camps.

For the exclusive benefit of college students, both men and women, especially those who are looking forward to careers as counselors or teachers, the Association provides a Counselor Placement Bureau open at all times during the Convention. This bureau is staffed with trained personnel supervisors who will be glad to advise students and prospective counselors, with or without experience, about the possibilities of employment in any of the 250 camps who meet the high standards required for membership in the Association.

The "Camping in Action" program covers six activities, all of them intended to demonstrate how a daily program is handled in a model camp. At the Arts and Crafts Exhibit, for instance, there will be a staff of actual teachers led by Dr. Kenneth Benson of New York University giving sample lessons in their particular specialties. The creative activities exhibit, including art, music, and dance will also be manned by teacher-counselors who are past masters in the arts. The other exhibits will be equally interesting to students and prospective counselors, featuring a discussion of Teen Age Camper programs and a complete display of the material used in Outdoor Camping and Pioneering. Those who attended scout or campfire meetings can inspect the latest equipment used in canoe trips, overnight hikes and other aspects of outdoor living.

The Head Counselor and Director Workshop will attract those who are ambitious to become group heads or head counselors or those who are interested in program planning and organization. There are also 105 colorful exhibits covering the many phases of camping supplies and programs.

The Convention is planned for directors of private camps but college students may obtain tickets from their Physical Education Department or by writing to: Association of Private Camps Convention, 55 W. 42nd Street, New York 36, N. Y.

Hotel New York, N.Y.C., April 4, 5, 6, and 7.

Paterson Fencers Whip Fencers from Fairleigh

The Paterson State Varsity fencing team was once more victorious as they routed Fairleigh Dickinson, 5-4, at the competition which was held at Paterson State Teachers College, Thursday, March 15. The team now leads with seven wins and two losses.

Jean Moreck and Joan Ulrickson lead with two wins while Barbara Tatem topped the other necessary bout. Results: Moreck defeated Hayek, 4-0; Moreck defeated Freund, 4-1; Gunther defeated Moreck, 4-2; Ulrickson defeated Freund, 4-1; Ulrickson defeated Gunther, 4-2; Hayek defeated Ulrickson, 4-3; Tatem defeated Freund, 4-0; Gunther defeated Tatem, 4-1; Hayek defeated Tatem, 4-1.

The Junior Varsity also triumphed with a win of 5-4. The team was comprised of Carol Smokowski, Betty Ross, Patricia Ruane, and Beverly Patterson.

P.S.T.C. Meets Brooklyn

Paterson's women's fencing team blanked a squad from Brooklyn College, 9-0 at the Paterson Camps on Mar. 21, to give the winners a season's record of eight wins and two losses. State also won the J.V. test, 5-4.

Three Paterson State Fencers Qualify

Three Paterson State Teachers College women were among seven who recently at the P.S.T.C. gym qualified for the national open fencing championships to be staged by the Amateur Fencing League of America at New York City in June and for the Atlantic Coast championship set for May in Baltimore.

A total of twenty two entries competed for New Jersey qualifying berths in both tournaments. Jane Dardila, Jean Moreck and Joan Ulrickson were Paterson State representatives to win, along with Cathy Kopp and Estelle Ackin of Seton Hall, Jackie Fumbar of Fairleigh Dickinson College and Denise O'Connor of Jersey City State Teachers.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I am, indeed, gratified to learn that the policy of the Paterson State "Beacon" does not misinterpret one of our basic freedoms. For, as was so correctly stated in Mr. Wealing's column, "No reporter has the right to criticize any member of the administration or any student attending Paterson State Teachers College."

In the past, freedom of the press was corrupted by Francis A. O'Connor, Thomas Paine, H. L. Mencksen, and other men of the ilk. But today man is so conscientious that any type of criticism is, of course, a great sin. This is a fact that Mr. Wealing has just recently been "forced" to realize. I say "forced" not in the sense that he was placed under any undue stress by the administration, but "forced" in the sense that the objectivity of his nature "forced" his subconscious into accepting what was a conscious error in his judgment.

Why it took great, perhaps even superhuman, courage for Mr. Wealing to apologize. I think we must all admit that.

Teachers Colleges Urged To Form 6 Team League

At the start of the 1955-56 basketball season it was opined that the Pioneer quintet could produce a winning season. Unfortunately, however, the orange and black finished with a record of 7 and 12.

There are many reasons why the team lost 12 times, but the main reason, I think, is that they were mismatched on many an occasion. As a matter of fact, against schools not classified as teachers colleges the Pioneers never won a game.

Now it may be pleasant to lose but I've never encountered anyone who ever thought so. Therefore, I recommend not only a more realistic schedule, but also a schedule that would arouse the interest (therefore, the school spirit) of students attending the 6 state teachers colleges.

Way not have a league composed of Paterson, Glassboro, Jersey City, Newark, Montclair, and Trenton. These teachers colleges could play each other 3 times a year for a total of 15 games. Then in addition to these 15 games, each school might play 5 or more contests with other schools providing these schools did not include such Universities as Iowa, Kentucky, or San Francisco. In other words, reason must transcend ambition.

Yet there are some who do not know, or care to recall, how "ambition's debt was paid." These are the same people who would have the Pioneers play Patner, Rider, and other teams of outstanding caliber. And, too, these are the same people who refuse to remember that Panzer walloped Paterson by 46 points and that Rider ripped Panzer by 15 points.

Sophomore Class Hosts 'Sadie Hawkins' Dancing

On Friday, March 23, the sophomore class gave all the girls a chance to snare her man by presenting a Sadie Hawkins dance in the Little Theatre. Popular and square dancing was featured with Mr. Herbert Califano acting as caller.

Committee members for the dance were as follows: Refreshment committee—Ginny Garvey, chairman, Evelyn Hadler, Lynn Appelgate, Cynthia Fincan, Irene Kahrs, and Elaine Morpagan; Publicity—Shirley Stewart, chairman, Joan Breyer, Norman Gallagher, Sally MacPherson, Anne Lipart, and Alice Borer; Decorations—Judy Johnson, chairman, Lynn Appelgate and Ginny Garvey; Tickets—Fat Byers and Anne Lipart.

Mr. Faulhaber

American government hopes to have 1,200 teachers in training by the end of 1958.

One of the major problems in this area, as in the U.S., is the construction of schools since materials are scarce and expensive, but the people of Cambodia are very eager to educate their children so this is a step in the right direction.

Mr. Faulhaber will report to Washington, D.C. on March 29 for two weeks organization before leaving by plane for Indo-China. His wife and daughter will follow by ship.

Although he is a new addition to our staff, Mr. Faulhaber has become known to most of the students and has been a friend and companion to many of us. We are sad that he is leaving but very proud to have known a man as courageous as this one; a man who will dedicate many years of his life making the world a better and more peaceful place to live.

Leave It to the Girls

To see a robin in the midst of a snow draft is just about as odd as asking whether the girls or Paterson are ready for a program made up of all the wonderful spring sports. In spite of how odd that robin looks in the snow drift, he is there. Therefore, I ask you, "Are you ready for a full spring sports program, girls?" When the newspaper is being read, no doubt all the snow will be gone so that it will not be difficult to imagine putting around on the green, practicing on the tennis court, or nodding an arrow. Am I succeeding to arouse your anxiety to participate in the sports scheduled on the W.A.A. agenda? This little effort to make a change into your gym togs during activity period on Tuesday and Thursday is well worth the fun that will follow. I can assure you that much.

We are planning a most interesting program including badminton, archery, baseball, golf, and tennis. Bowling has made such a big hit so that it possibly will be continued. If you should like to continue bowling at the Wayne County Club during the next month or so, please give your opinion to the Bowling Chairman, Merry Ann Wolf and Ruth Olsen. Thank you.

For the benefit of all Freshmen, the Women's Athletic Association will celebrate the close of the school year by giving an Annual Banquet. Many of you know the point system organized by this association, and therefore realize that Maytime is THE time to honor all those who have been active participants in the club. Our records indicate that the banquet will be a success since so many students have accumulated enough points to receive a Paterson letter. However, we do not want a banquet wholly dependent upon award winners for its success. Last year many girls attended the banquet for the mere job of congregating in the cafe to hear a very fine message from Dr. Shea, enjoy a good supper, and laugh at the entertainment supplied by the members of the W.A.A. Reserve an evening of fun with the Women's Athletic Association. You will be glad you did. It is early to think about the close of the year and annual banquet, I know, but maybe the robin I mentioned reminded me of the "early bird." We want YOU.
