Harry Golden To Speak At State

Tomorrow night, at 8:30 in the Memorial Gym, Harry Golden, author of 1958-59's number one Best Seller "Only in America" and its sequel, "For Ze Plain," will be at Paterson State College.

Mr. Golden may be termed "The Unofficial Court Jester to The Nation" and is the third presentation this year by the PSC Series Committee. He will include in his lecture some passing comments on the American scene via the original and forceful Golden manner.

Writer, editor, and publisher of The Carolina Israelite, a 16-page newspaper issued intermittently, Harry Golden will soon reveal a new effort entitled "Enjoy! Enjoy!" Whimsical, pungent and satirical essays have earned Mr. Golden the praises of such persons as Carl Sandberg, Fannie Hurst, Adlai Stevenson, and Thomas E.

Harry Golden

Dewey. Golden's "Only in America" was dramatized and became an acclaimed 1959 Broadway production with Nehemiah Persoff in the lead role. As a result of his recent rise to fame, Golden now writes a syndicated weekly column in addition to his list of chores.

Harry Golden is respected by his colleagues as an articulate, independent, and frank gentleman. His appearance on the Paterson State campus should be a sparkling event and we all look forward to meeting Mr. Golden.

Tickets for this special Harry Golden program may be obtained from Mr. Martin Astor, Assistant Director of Student Personnel, Series Committee Members, or at the door.

Camping, Anyone?

Ninety sophomore students will be invited to participate in the outdoor education program at the School of Conservation this spring. Thirty students will be selected to have this experience during each of three weeks beginning April 18, May 2, and May 9. Preference will be given to General Elementary and Kindergarten-Primary sophomores. If space is available sophomores in secondary curricula or juniors who have not previously had an outdoor education week may be included.

Sophomores in the above curriculum who have not yet signed up are invited to call at the office of the Dean of the College in Administration Building to indicate a choice of week. There is no cost for this experience to the student and bus transportation will be provided by the college.

Conference Experiment Proves Successful

A very fascinating experiment was calculated by Dr. Tyree and Mr. Austin at the Cooperating Teachers' Conference in Paterson State College Cafeteria on February 15, 1960.

During the conference, Dr. Tyree and Mr. Austin distributed Profile Check Sheets to all those cooperating teachers present. This check sheet was to record the initial impressions of the student teachers of Paterson State College class of 1960 as they were seen by the cooperating teachers after working with them only one week.

The students were judged on their personality, which included their appearance, courtesy, poise, directness, etc.; their ability to get along with others, or effortless, automatic and mutual understandings; their control or influences on children through dictatorship, or development of internal controls; their habits, such as crudeness of expression and so on; their emotional stability; voice; dependability; initiative; intelligence; scholarship; and sense of humor.

The cooperating teachers rated the students highest in habits, dependability and emotional stability; and the lowest in voice and control. The other characteristics fell in between.

The most interesting thing about the survey was that the results were calculated, mimeographed and returned to the teachers before the conference was over. The whole process took fifty-five minutes.

Alumni To Present Bennett Cerf April 25

Monday evening, April 25, 1960, at 8:00 p.m. the Alumni Association will make its annual contribution to the cultural program of the college by presenting Bennett Cerf.

"Run by a storage battery that constantly recharges itself" are the words used by one columnist to explain the versatility and accomplishments of Bennett Cerf — "a dynamo of activity" — half of whose activities would be too much for any average man. As a writer, publisher, compiler of anthologies, and current columnist, Bennett Cerf continues to amaze all who know him with his remarkable ability to keep so many irons in the proverbial fire.

In the last few years—with the publication of his six books of humor and his success on television—Mr. Cerf's name has become a byword in American homes where millions of readers have chuckled over his collections of humorous stories.

Mr. Cerf will lecture to P.S.C. students and faculty on "Trends in Literature and Humor." Tickets for students will be $1.50 each and will be placed on sale in the cafeteria in the near future.

CARNIVAL PLANS ANNOUNCED

The gymnasium will be transformed into the land of the future, May 6 and 7, when the college presents Pioneers in Orbit. This will be the fourth annual college carnival designed to raise money for a student building.

Lou Piccinino, general chairman of the carnival, has announced that the preliminary planning has been completed and now the committee is awaiting the support of the student body.

Any organization or group of interested students may participate in the carnival. Application forms may be obtained from Lou Piccinino. These forms must be completed and returned to either Miss Cheeseman, faculty advisor, or Lou Piccinino.

Lou Piccinino, Miss Cheeseman and Chuck Roth explaining carnival procedures to Miss Kathy Mulcahey, chairman of freshman booth.

Construction of the carnival booths will begin May 2. All booths must be completed by Thursday, May 5. Each sponsoring organization is required to aid in the construction of booth. Clean-up will take place Sunday afternoon, May 8.

Outstanding carnival booths will be awarded prizes during the last night of the carnival. Booths will be judged on the basis of originality, decoration and profit.

To avoid confusion, the carnival committee will supply all materials for decorations. The cost of these materials will be deducted from the $5.00 allotted to each carnival concession. The difference may be used towards the purchasing of prizes. Sponsoring organizations are encouraged to make prizes or obtain donations for prizes.

The carnival committee consists of George Smith, assistant chairman; Joe LaFerra, program; Pete Chabora, finance; Chuck Roth, construction; Walt Dudek, publicity; Paulene Singalekis, secretary; Lois Gede and Ron Johnson, decoration. Listed below are the general rules of the carnival.

1. Each sponsoring association will be reimbursed for all expenses, decreasing, etc., up to $8.00 for each food booth and $2.00 for every other booth.
2. The sponsoring association will be responsible for the organization and management of its booth.
3. The sponsoring association will be responsible for the decorating and cleaning up of its booth.
4. Each sponsoring association may enter an unlimited number of concessions.
5. Booth locations will be determined on a first come first served basis.
6. There will be no games of chance.
7. No concession will be accepted that will destroy, mar, or deface the building or property.
8. All concessions and their operations must be approved by the Executive Committee.
9. Failure to clean-up will result in a $10.00 fine. Said money will be withdrawn from the association's treasury and not from booth profits.
10. All booths will comply with the general carnival theme.

Final entries which are not accepted for publication will be returned if accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope, but they cannot be otherwise acknowledged, nor can the Society compensate students for poetry which is published. All entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, March 30, 1960, to be considered, and the decisions of the Society judges are final.

S.G.A. ELECTIONS

The months of March and April again bring around the annual nominations and elections for Student Government Association officers. To be elected are — a President and a Treasurer from the class of '62, a Vice President from the class of '61 and a Secretary from the present freshman class.

There will be campaigning from the final nominations up till election day. On April 12, at 10:30 in Memorial Gym there will be a campaign assembly to be followed by the general election April 13, from 10 - 4 p.m. in the cafeteria.

P.S.C. DELEGATES ATTEND CONFERENCE

The Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers, an association of over seventy colleges, will hold its thirty-fifth annual conference at the Hotel New Yorker, New York City, on March 24, 25, and 26, 1960.

Representatives to the conference are: Kenneth Dow, Walter Dudek, James Earnshaw, Paul Kugler, Joseph LaFerrera, Nicholas Maratzakis, and Ariene Silver.

The theme of this thirty-fifth annual conference is "Education—For What?" Friday's program will center around discussion groups all groups are chaired, recorded, and summarized by students which will cope with sub-topics of the general theme for the conference: Why are we being educated? How are we being educated? How can we get the right education for each individual? Education for money or meaning? Who should determine the morals and ethics of the college? How does American education relate the education of other peoples? How will the future affect education? The Paterson State College delegates and representatives are holding weekly sessions on these issues in preparation for the conference.

The conference will also provide hours to points of interest in New York City.

Speakers for the conference are: 1) Dr. Lawrence G. Derthick, United States Commissioner of Education, Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

POETRY ANTHOLOGY

The American College Poetry Society is pleased to announce that its third semestral anthology of outstanding college poetry is now being compiled for publication this summer.

Fox, care of the American College Poetry Society, Box 24463, Los Angeles 24, California, with the entrant's name, address, and school on each page. Poems, which may deal with any subject, may not exceed 48 lines, nor may any individual submit more than five poems. Coming! K.D.P. Auction

The Zeta Alpha Chapter of Kappa Delta Phi will hold its fourth annual auction to raise money for its scholarship fund on Tuesday, April 12, Wednesday, April 13, and Thursday, April 14. It will be held in the cafeteria during lunch.

Among the distinguished auctioneers will be Mr. Weidner, Mr. Simon, and Mr. Ferster.

Students are requested to bring salable items, which they would like to donate, to Dr. Ellis's office in Hunziker Hall.

Editorial

Elections are fast approaching, and Paterson State will soon be caught up in the activities surrounding this event. There will be hectic days of campaigning by the numerous nominees which will be ended by the election assembly, where each nominee will be presented to the student body. Election day will climax all of these activities.

The proper selections of these officers is one of the most important tasks a student will be faced with during each year of his college career. This is especially true this year because these elected officers will hold their positions during a time of great expansion. This expansion will bring about new problems, and it is up to you, the student body of Paterson State, to elect leaders who are capable of solving these problems. It is the duty of the student body to make sure they know the qualifications of the leaders they elect. It is the duty of the student body to vote and to insure the victory of the best qualified person. The entire student body must vote so that the candidates will feel that the jobs they are running for are important to their classmates and friends.

In order to insure those things mentioned above, it is imperative that the whole college population attend the assembly on April 12. At this assembly you will be able to see and hear the qualifications of those students who wish to lead their respective classes during the coming college year.

More important will be the speeches presented by those students who are running for positions on the Student Government Association. These candidates will discuss what they plan to do if elected, and they will also state their qualifications. These are the people who will be the voice of the whole student population. These will be the representative of Paterson State College.

During this assembly it is important to weigh one candidate against another so that by election day you will vote for the best candidate.

Remember every vote counts. It takes about one minute to cast your vote, a vote that will mean a lot to the whole campus.

SHORT NOTES

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club is one of the oldest active organizations at Paterson State College, being founded in 1939. Each year it provides programs of significance and of quality to the students of the College. The organization has found that in order to continue this service to the College a larger membership is needed. If you are interested in becoming a member for the coming college year, you are requested to leave your name and class affiliation on a Note of paper, and place that note of paper in the IRC Application Envelope, Personal Note Bulletin Board in Hunziger Hall. All students are welcome to join. We hope that you will take this opportunity to take a more active part in College activities. Applications no later than April 25th.

Highlights for 1960-61

- 1) The Club has a program whereby students will be able to obtain benefits from a student exchange program.
- 2) The Club also plans to attract more outstanding speakers from professions and business. This is provided so that the student may gain a larger view of National and International affairs and Problems.
- 3) To be able to exchange ideas and opinions between capable foreign exchange students in an informal situation.

Student Education Association

Attention, SEA members! The annual spring convention at the YMCA camp at Blairstown is approaching. Attend future meetings for more information.

On Thursday, February 25, members saw the film Skippy and the 3 R's. A tentative date, April 19, was also set for a book sale. Proceeds from the sale will be used for a scholarship fund. Committee members have been receiving a lot of help from the faculty. Pauline Flynn is chairman.

Citizenship Club

A book drive conducted during the first two weeks of March resulted in a fine collection of one hundred fifty pounds of books.

These books were graciously donated by the faculty at Paterson State for college libraries in Korea. This was the club's service project for the school and was only made possible by the generous contributions of the faculty.

The next project is the Ugly Man contest. Don't forget to vote for your favorite "ugly man."

DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know who may apply for a student loan? How are loan awards granted at Paterson State College? What kinds of loans are available to P.S.C. students?

If you are a full-time student enrolled at the college who is in good academic standing and in need of financial assistance you are eligible to apply for student loans. There are two types of loans available to students. One is the National Defense Student Loan Program of Paterson State College for all students. The purpose of this student loan program is to help institutions of higher education to make "low-interest" loans to students of need thereof to pursue their courses of study in such institutions." The National Defense Education Act states that up to 50 percent of a loan (plus interest) may be cancelled in the event the borrower becomes a full-time teacher in a public elementary or secondary school. Such cancellation is to be at the rate of 10 percent a year up to 5 years.

Another type of loan is offered by the Paterson State College

Education Must Stir Discussion of Issues

In this college there are students of sociology, students of history, students of political science, students of philosophy. What can be the purpose of being educated in these fields, if education has failed to stimulate the students into a consciousness of their rights and responsibilities as a citizen? If all the knowledge gathered after four years of intense study to be thrust into an obscure region of the mind, to be dormant and unproductive? Or is our education to find expression in the reaction to the issues that challenge the very precepts of democracy, that has granted the right even for the existence of our indifference?

When shall we awake to the realities of our times?

The Art of Teaching —

"No honor which comes to a man or woman can be greater than to be spoken of as a great or good teacher." Now of course we know that the cynical world does not believe this. So to reinforce it, I am taking a further quote from Mary Ellen Chase, "Teaching at its best is not only the highest of arts but the most exhilarating of occupations."

The art of being taught is the art of discovery as the art of teaching is the art of assisting discovery to take place. Discovery can take place only if the relation between the teacher and student is one of mutual respect. It is especially important that the teacher should respect the student and it will be easy for him to do so if he assumes that the student is someone from whom he may learn. Then it will be the discovery that is mutual. True courtesy in the teacher is courteous because he is respectful and because that is the way in which courtesy is taught, but his respect is for the subject too, which means that although he loves the student, he is sometimes obligated to be severe.

The true teacher is singularly innocent of ambition to be praised, loved or remembered. He is, in fact, the best secular image of the innocent man. And the student hears close throats.

baroque!"
Though the basketball season is almost completed, keep in mind that the majority of these gifts will be back next year and will need plenty of help and I don't mean the best secular image of the innocent man. And the student hears close throats.

respects no other man, least of all one who is crafty or worldly. He will see plenty of worldly men in his time and their craft that the innocent man turns out to have been right. The last things learned will agree with him and then perhaps will be remembered.

I think it is fitting that at this time we should sort of recharge ourselves, revitalize ourselves, look down into ourselves, into our teaching, into our methodology, into our approach to the students. Have we become humdrum, are we just dragging our feet, are we poking along and just irritating the students?

I would simply call to your attention and ask you to remember that no matter what a sophisticated world presently believes about the true, the good, even the great teacher, you and I know that the teacher affects eternity.

Maroon and Gold
Bloomburg State College

A woman who runs a nursery school was delivering a station wagon load of kids home one day when a fire truck zoomed past. Sitting on the front seat was a Dalmatian dog. The children fell off discussing the dog's duties. "Use him to keep the crowds back," said one five-year-old. "No," said another, "he's just for good luck." A third child brought the argument to an end. "Use the dog," he said firmly, "to find the fire plug!" Wonder if this is pre-school rationalization at its best?

The Outlook —
Memmouth College

Speaking of exams, the other day we met a student who was taking a course in music appreciation. A question on the course's mid-term asked that a comment be made on the style of music written in the last century. To this, a somewhat less than enthusiastic teacher is courteous; replied, with the face of an Easter Island artifact, "I am unable to make any statement — all my records are baroque!"

Though the basketball season is almost completed, keep in mind that the majority of these gifts will be back next year and will need plenty of help and I don't mean the best secular image of the innocent man. And the student hears close throats.

SUPPORT

TEAM!

Sports Whirl

By Sandy Di Giacomo

Undaunted by the remains of the March 3rd snow storm, the first sign of spring makes its appearance on campus. Baseball tryouts have begun, as the coaches try to fill the spaces vacated by Jake Keyser, Fred Henry, and Lou Diess. Time has come to dust off the baseballs, bats and spikes, and most important, to put a new shine on the N.A.I.A. Championship plaque.

"To Texas or Bust" — was the cry as the student body rallied in support to send their championship to Texas. No doubt this enthusiasm was greatly appreciated by both coaches and team; but one cannot help but wonder where all this support was when the men were fighting for this championship. Why was it that there were only a handful of students at the games which decided whether or not we would get the invitation to Texas. It took the assurance of a championship to show any sign of support on campus.

Throughout the college there is always the argument for more social activities, yet there is little support of those which are present. Baseball is one of these activities, so why not support it? Join the bandwagon at the beginning, don't wait until you are sure the tune pleases you before you decide to support it.

Coach Wolf extends an invitation to the student body to stop in at anytime during baseball practice to watch the team work out.

CROSS SWORDS

by Dottie Pohlman and Pat Devlin

Roz Culotta takes Silver Medal in N. Y.

P.S.C.'s Roz Culotta, New Jersey's prep champion, recently won the second place silver medal in a New York prep competition held at the Salinas Club, New York College.

Miss Culotta's score in the final round was 5-2. This threw her into a tie for first place with Miss Papes of Rhodes Academy, N.J. Miss Papes defeated Roz in the free-off.

Other P.S.C. preps entered in this event were Joan Monson, who finished 6th, Joan Geffen, 8th, and Ginger Yarnes.

P.S.C. Defeats Hunter

On February 28, the Pioneer women fencers defeated Hunter College, 9-7, for our fifth win in six tries. The Paterson JV also won, 11-5.

The winners for Paterson were Dottie Pohlman, captain, 2-0; Paulette Singelakis, 3-1; Paula Baron, 2-2; and Roslyn Culotta, who insured the team victory by defeating Hunter's captain, Diana Hor, 4-2. Miss Culotta's score for the night was 2-2.

In JV competition, Adriana Schwarz was 4-0, Bernice Jacobson and Gerri Wojcik 3-0, Margie Piper, 1-3.

Saline Team Unbeaten

The men's team lost a tough match to Newark Rutgers, 16-11, on Rutgers' strips. The only bright spot of the day was the fact that P.S.C.'s saline team made up of Lou Piodonimo, Chuck Roth, and Pat Devlin, remained unbeaten. They have posted a 3-0 record, while the team is 2-1.

The saline team posted a 3-0 score against Rutgers. The JV team was 3-0 and the spee team was 2-7. Chuck Roth was the only man to go 3-0 for Paterson, while two men from Rutgers accomplished this feat.

Paterson is still hoping for a 3-0 record in its initial season with three more matches remaining.

P.S.C.'s Zorro's have been invited to compete in the N.C.E. '22 tournament on March 26 at N.C.E. Here the competition is much stiffer than on P.S.C.'s regular schedule, but the whole team is looking forward to participating.

and playing high, thus making it known to the present fencing powers that P.S.C. will have to be looked at as a not too distant power of the future.

Another Silver Medal

Paterson State College's women fencers recently competed in the first New Jersey State Intercollegiate Championships sponsored by the N.J. Division of the Amateur Fencers League of America. Twenty-four fencers from N.J. Colleges and universities were entered in this competition held in the Memorial Gym. Out of eight entries in this individual tournament, 4 of Coach Ray Miller's fencers reached the final round.

Second place went to Paulette Singelakis who posted a final round score of 3 wins and only 1 loss. Paterson's captain, Dottie Pohlman took fourth place with a 4-3 record. First place was decided with a round-off between Pauline and Fran Stern, the 1958 National Intercollegiate champion, who also was 4-1. Miss Stern defeated Pauline 4-2 to take the gold medal. Third place went to Madeline Mulone of F.D.U. — Teaneck, the 1959 Eastern Intercollegiate champion.

Two other Paterson State fencers also reached the final round. Paula Baron and Roz Culotta placed 7th and 8th respectively, on touches. Paula had been touched 28 times, and Roz had received 27 touches.

Other P.S.C. girls entered were: Joan Duran, Margie Piper, Gerri Wojcik, and Joan Geffen. The latter 2 were semi-finalists.

P.S.C. Defeats F.D.U.

Paterson State's women fencers defeated F.D.U. — Rutherford by an overwhelming score of 15-1 recently in the Memorial Gym. The JV also won 3-1.

Posting unbeaten 4-0 scores for the varsity were captain Dottie Pohlman, who was touched only 2 times the entire evening, Paulette Singelakis, and Joan Duran. Paula Baron won 3-1.

In JV competition, Gerri Wojcik and Ellie Nawojski were 2-1; Roz Culotta was 1-2.

WOMEN FENCERS TO DEFEND CROWN

Leave It To The Girls

The N.J. A.R.F.C.W. held its first state playday of the year at Fairleigh Dickinson University (Rutherford) on February 20. The playday began at 9:00 a.m. with registration and coffee hour, followed by a scheduled mock track meet and square dancing. At 12:00 the women went to lunch, and at 1:00 returned to the gymnasium for basketball, volleyball, and ping-pong. The day ended at 3:30 with the presentation of awards to the winning teams. Since the representatives from each member college are separated among the different teams, each college received at least one award. The member colleges who attended were: Glassboro State College, President College; Paterson State College; Montclair State College, President-elect College; Fairleigh Dickinson, Rutherford and Teaneck campuses; and Newark State College.

The next state playday is scheduled for sometime in April, with Montclair State College playing host. At this playday there will also be a business meeting on the agenda to make plans for the Spring weekend which will be held in May.

Undaunted by the loss of their first basketball playday with Douglass College, the W.M.A. Basketball Group went on to win their next seven games.

The record to date stands as follows:

| | | |
|---------------------|---|---|
| Douglass | 0 | 0 |
| Fairleigh Dickinson | 0 | 0 |
| Newark | 0 | 2 |
| Montclair | 0 | 2 |
| Jersey City | 1 | 1 |

Congratulations go to Mary Beth Longo who at a recent archery meet, Barnard College won two awards for outstanding shooting. The first award was a red arrow wiper for the highest score of "red" or seven point gold. She also received a Barnard Arrow as the highest scorer on the P.S.C. team. The final score for the meet was: Barnard College 1884 points and Paterson State 1024 points. The individual scores for the P.S.C. team were:

|------------------|----------|
| Kathy Meehaney | 208 pts. |
| Bernice Jacobson | 116 pts. |
| Betty Hellard | 267 pts. |
| Mary Beth Longo | 288 pts. |

On Thursday, March 31, the Pioneer Women's fencing team will leave for Elmira, N. Y. to defend the Intercollegiate Championship title held by P. S. C. for the last 3 out of 4 years.

The National Intercollegiate crown first came to Paterson State in 1959, the same year that captain Jane Dardia won the individual championship title. Her teammates were Jean Morek and Joan Ulrickson. For the last 2 years, the title has been held by June '59

Standing: Dotty Pohlman and Paula Baron. Seated: Roz Culotta and Paulette Singelakis.

BASEBALL STATISTICS

Although the Pioneers lost the main stages of their pitching staff they could still walk away with the N.E.S.C.A.C. conference title for the second consecutive year. Losing Fred Henry and Jack Keyser, who accounted for 13 wins between them, is a big blow to the Pioneers, but newcomers Bill Born, Frank McCarthy, Lou Caroleh, and Tim Shelton will try and make up the loss.

Another big loss is the graduation of Lou Diess, slugging short stop who sported a .484 batting average to lead the team last year.

To look on the bright side, back are Tim Averette, centerfielder with a .389 average, and Armand Polizansky, first baseman carrying a .354 average.

Coach Ken Wolf and assistant coach "Doc" Whelan are happy with the team as it looks now and are confidently awaiting the seasons opener against Newark College of Engineering April 4 at Paterson. N.C.E. was the only school to beat Paterson State last year. After the opening loss the Pioneers went on to win 18 straight and national recognition.

graduates Fish Dolan, Marilyn Gerber, and Carol Sulzowski. This year's captain, Dottie Pohlman, is the only varsity returnee from the '59 season. Dottie captured the silver medal in last year's intercollegiate and also fenced on the winning team.

This year the going looks a lot tougher. The Pioneer team, probably the most inexperienced one ever sent out to defend the crown, will probably be seeded second behind undefeated F. D. U.—Teaneck. Paterson's record now stands at 3-1.

But coach Ray Miller may still have a few surprises up the sleeve of his fencing jacket. Besides capt. Pohlman, who was second in this year's Eastern Intercollegiate Christmas Tournament, there is sophomore Pauline Singelakis, a strong, fast, left-hander who took fourth place in the Eastern Intercollegiate, and has many other credits stacked up for this season. Filling the 6th spot on the team is Paula Baron, also a sophomore, who took seventh in the Eastern Intercollegiate, and may prove to be the winning factor of the team. Roz Culotta, a first-year newcomer to fencing, has probably taken the fourth varsity spot. Roz is this year's N.J. prep champion, while she is second to N. Y.'s prep champion, Sandra Kabaikin, another probable starter. Is a fast, left-handed senior with 4 years of fencing behind her.

The last time the National Intercollegiate was held at Elmira College was in 1952. Four fencers from P. S. C. made the trip and managed to place third. This year, a total of 11 Pioneer swordswomen will probably journey to Elmira, many of them sharing the expense and making the trip only to cheer their team on to victory. The competition itself will take place on April 1 and 2 and the group will return on April 3.

THERE'LL BE SOME CHANGES MADE!

THE SPINNER

Hold your fire! The Spinner is willing to smokum peace-pipe. He much sorry he make crack about Running Bear. In fact, he not know that White Dove is, in reality (like LaMont Cranston, only prettier), gal on campus who think nothing of slugging Spinner near out of head. Henceforth, will those people who disagree with The Spinner please notify him in advance of the massacre? Now him know how Custer feel-um.

Latin A La Lee ism, like absolutely everything else Peggy Lee has ever done, too great to put a single word to. This gal has been singing the best ones for so long that now it doesn't matter whether the song itself is so hot, just as long as Peggy sings it. This album ranks as one of her best, and it makes for the finest in lets-stay-home-and-talk-about-mood music. And for those of you who, like The Spinner, enjoy catching people with the fingers stuck in their ears, Eugene Ormandy and the almost-too-flawless Philadelphia Orchestra have scored a beautiful booboo on their stereo recording of Ferde Grofe's Grand Canyon Suite. A rather over-zealous trumpeter gets a bit away from the music and stands out like the one kid in school who took a morning shower on Piggy Day. (Remember that little unofficial bit of social dictum?)

On the side of the singles, there are two or three which really bear mention, and leading the pack again is one by Della Reese, Someday You'll Want Me to Want You, a gas from the beginning to the five-times-repeated end. And running right alongside Della is another fabulous platter, this one by Dinah Washington. It Could Happen To You, sung the way Dinah can sing it, makes it seem like having it happen might not be too awful at that.

The Spinner palmed himself off on some friend or another a couple of Tuesday nights ago and eyeballed the Perry Como Show, a pastime shared by many other PSC students, judging from the discussions in the Snack Shack next day. This guy named Como has the craziest knack for sticking together a show knit as tightly as good cashmere, and having it come off looking for all the world as though all the performers just happened to be standing around with nothing special to do when the show opened. Relaxed, informal, and always star-studded, the Kraft Music Hall on Tuesday nights is a fine place to take one's study-break for an hour. And, while on television, The Spinner feels that he is obligated to make note of the fact that "Jerry" Paar has returned, his handkerchiefs all neatly dried and pressed, waiting for the next time he feels like taking a vacation of nearly international importance. The guy is such a square peg in a round hole that the Spinner finds himself chuckling in selfish pleasure over the idea that someday the people with talent who make their show palatable might take it into their own heads to walk out and leave NBC's answer to the Sandman on his own. Good grief, what a mess that would be! Don't show this column to Mr. Paar. It just might start the tears flowing again, and we mustn't forget the horrors of the Johnstown Flood!

Bob and Ray are back on radio, but, as usual, they probably won't last too long. No sponsors seem to want to take the chance. Anyhow, tune in ABC at 6-630 evenings, and enjoy it while it may.

Saw a really choice flicker the other eve. The Spinner was in the Big City with some spending-type friends when the subject of The Story on Page 1 came into conversation. Decided to see it, and the Spinner admits to being mildly pleased. Anthony Franciosa is excellent as the third-wheel on a bike, and Rita Hayworth sings not one song, nor dances one dance, but she does tear the place apart with an acting ability which she hasn't shown in a long time. Albeit the ending might have been different, you'll see what the Spinner means, but the film itself is second only to Witness for Prosecution as a court drama.

The Spinner is running out of paper, but he cannot close this column without sending a double bouquet to the people who are responsible for two of the best things to happen to adult entertainment since the days of Kukla, Fran, and Ollie. Of course, he is referring to Quick-Draw McGraw (Tuesdays at 6:30) and Huckleberry Hound (Thursdays, 6:30 also). For those who haven't seen either, the titles may sound like The Spinner is getting a bit softer in the brain calling them adult shows, but ask anybody who has caught them, and you'll find that they are just that. Funny, incisive, sometimes caustic in their describes on current events and people, both shows are destined to become classics, just as did their predecessor, the late-and-dearly-lamented K, F. & O.

OBJECTIVES OF P.S.C. DISCUSSED BY DR. SHEA

In her Convocation address on February 9, 1960, Dr. Shea re-emphasized some of the long-term objectives of the College, of which all students should be aware. We repeat them at this date for the student body at large.

1. The faculty must be steadily strengthened to guarantee the highest academic, professional and ethical quality for the future of America is bound up closely with the depth and quality of the education its citizenry will receive and the values it will hold dear.
2. The curriculum and methods of teaching must be continually revised if we are to improve the learning process by increasing the individual responsibility of the student and if we are to be realistic about meeting the tremendous new pressures now beginning to be felt in higher education.
3. Both the quality of mind and the character of the student must be considered in the admission, the retention and the graduation policies of a college dedicated to the preparation of teachers.
4. We must seek to make students realize that one of the goals of their college education is the ability to think for themselves, to use their minds as computers and creative tools and not merely as sponges retaining information passed along to them.
5. Students must realize that only in personal responsibility is there security—that the freedom we have in America to work, to worship, to talk is a privilege our citizens enjoy and to confuse irresponsibility in public or private life with freedom strikes at the very meaning and life of our democracy.

6. Our students must be thoroughly prepared and dedicated to the profession they have chosen if the children they will serve are to have the best instruction in the years that lie ahead.

7. We must all—students and faculty alike—be prepared for world citizenship, for America is already concerned with the well-being of the world and will be increasingly so concerned in future generations.

8. The college itself must assume a larger leadership role in continuing education. It must find the ways to develop this concept in its immediate geographical area.

In her discussion, Dr. Shea called for a continuous evaluation and re-evaluation of aims and goals, for she said, "In the words of Abraham Lincoln, 'If we could know where we are and whither we are tending, we could then judge better what to do and how to do it.'" She cautioned students to guard jealously their places in the college, "remember," she cautioned, "that a college is occupied by others; that our admissions, retention and graduation standards must be maintained and that our goal of putting into the public schools the best educated and most dedicated teachers becomes each year more attainable. Our selection becomes more selective; our retention based on established point averages and evidence of fitness to teach; more closely scrutinized; our graduation list, a matter of faculty vote."

"We know that the shortage of faculty is certain in the decade ahead," she said. This requires that the collegian of today and the future do more independent study, perhaps beginning in the freshman year. This will not affect learning adversely, if conditions for it are properly.

In closing, she commented on the sense of well-being and confidence which pervades the campus and "the growing sense that ours is a singular purpose and a high calling."

Procedure For Curriculum Changes

Students who desire to make curriculum changes should follow the procedure listed below.

- (1) Consult with your advisor concerning the contemplated change.
 - (2) Obtain the official form for curriculum changes in the Registrar's Office.
 - (3) Fill out the official form.
 - (4) Obtain the signatures and approval of the following people on the official form:
 - a. Your advisor
 - b. The department chairman of the previous major
 - c. The department chairman of the curriculum you wish to enter
- Deadlines for curriculum changes
Students are advised that the following deadlines must be observed when making curriculum changes:
- (1) Curriculum changes desired for the Spring semester must be submitted to the Registrar prior to the last day before the Christmas vacation.
 - (2) Curriculum changes that are to be effective in the Fall semester must be submitted to the Registrar prior to August 1 immediately preceding the Fall semester. Since many faculty members are not on campus during the summer months, it is suggested that current students submit this request prior to the first day of the summer vacation.

Students who fail to submit requests for curriculum changes prior to the dates set above must continue in their present curriculum for the following semester. For example, anyone wishing to change from General Elementary curriculum to an English major effective the second semester of a school year must submit forms properly completed prior to the first day of the Christmas vacation preceding the Spring semester. If this is not done by the established deadline, the student must continue as a General Elementary major for the following semester. Requests for curriculum changes received after that date and prior to the beginning of the second semester will not be honored. Curriculum changes cannot be made at the time of registration.

Plans for curriculum changes should be thought out carefully and discussed with the various people concerned. The matter of curriculum changes is a serious one and should be arrived at lightly but only after careful deliberation and the advice of the faculty members who can best help you.

The above regulations concerning curriculum changes also apply to entering students. If a student originally planned to enter the General Elementary curriculum and then decides to change to Social Studies curriculum, the request to change must be received before the dates mentioned above.

Departments have quotas to which they must adhere. If the department is up to its quota, it may not admit a student to that major. A change of curriculum is not effective until the official form properly filled out and signed by the faculty members concerned is returned to the registrar. Under no circumstance is a curriculum change authorized if the chairman of the new curriculum does not approve the request.

Dr. Peter Henderson Confirms Battle Site

Shadow On the River is a series of documented events in the Campaign of 1776 written by Dr. Peter L. Henderson, Director of Student Teaching, Placement, and follow-up. It relates the validity of the fact heretofore unrecognized of the significance of Fort Lea Bluff on the New Jersey Palisades to the final outcome of the American Revolutionary War.

The account takes up the whole New York Campaign in brief from the Battle of Long Island through the fall of Fort Washington and the retreat of the Continental Army from Fort Lee across the Hackensack and Passaic Rivers.

The question Dr. Henderson poses is: Were there a small troop of "irregulars" left to fight a hopeless rear-guard action to stall Cornwallis' troops while Washington made his escape? Reports of Sir William Howe, the British Commander, and old magazines of the period confirm this suspicion.

A limited mimeographed edition which was turned over to the Fort Lea Historical Society (Box 1775 Fort Lee), sells at a nominal cost. The profits from the sales will go to the Society's fund for building a monument to mark this site.

To gain a position on the Honor Roll, a student must have no grade below a B in any subject.
