Vol. 27, No. 28

Paterson (N. J.) State College

May 18, 1962

THE ALEXANDER HAMILTON, a steamship with a 2,000 passenger capacity, will take Paterson State students, faculty, and guests to Bear Mountain, the site of Shaffer Play Day, June 8. The boat will leave the New York pier at 9:30 a.m.

Beacon Holds First Dinner

Beacon staffers are invited to attend the first-annual banquet to be held at Le Neve's Cedar Cliff Restaurant on May 28, at 5 p.m. Those planning to attend must make reservations with the editor before Monday, May 21.

The restaurant is situated on Belmont Ave. in Paterson. Awards will be presented at that time, and plans for the 1962-63 Beacon will be announced.

Baccalaureate Service Slated For June 3

Baccalaureate ceremonies for the senior graduates will be held at Paterson State College on Sunday, June 3. Dr. Harold Stahmer, associate professor of religion at Barnard College and chairman of the department, will be guest speaker at the services. The topic of Dr. Stahmer's address will be "Teaching the Spoken Word."

At the commencement ceremonies Dr. George Drayton Strayer, former professor of educational administration at Teachers College, Columbia University, will be presented an honorary degree in education from Paterson State College.

Dr. Stahmer is a member of the National Association of Biblical Instructors and the American Association of University Professors. Among Dr. Stahmer's recently published writings are two articles for the American People Encyclopedia: "Frenz Rosenzweig" and "Eugene Rosenstock Huessey," and a review of "American Catholic Crossroads," by Walter J. Ong.

Dr. Strayer, who will receive the honorary degree, served as president of the National Educational Association, and in 1932 he was awarded the Nicholas Murray Butler Silver Medal for his contributions to the field of educational administration.

A great majority of Dr. Strayer's recommendations have been adopted as a result of surveys, and in California, where his most important study of higher education was made, all but one of his recommendations were enacted, as that state moved into a greatly expanded program of higher education to serve its rapidly growing population.

Shaffer Play Day To End School Year

Shaffer Play Day, Paterson State's traditional culmination of the school year, will take place Friday, June 8 aboard the steamship Alexander Hamilton, which can accommodate 2,000 persons and at Bear Mountain.

The eventful day will begin at 8:00 a.m. Friday at the Paterson State campus where transportation from Paterson to the 125th Street dock in New York City and back will be provided for by chartered buses at a fee of fifty cents per person. Tickets are now on sale in the bookstore. Students may purchase two tickets now and many possibly purchase more after next Thursday. Those planning to attend are advised to take the buses since parking facilities will be limited in the City.

The boat is scheduled to leave the New York pier at 7:30 a.m., arriving at Bear Mt. and departing at 5:00 p.m. Music aboard the boat will be provided by the Esquires.

Once at Bear Mountain, swimming, roller skating, boating, baseball, picnicking and other facilities will be available. Students may pack a lunch or buy it at the Bear Mt. Inn.

Shaffer Play Day has long been a traditional outing at the college. Each year the student body votes to select the site of the activity. This year Rye Beach was the site voted upon by Paterson students but due to the lack of docking space at Rye Beach, a boat small enough to dock and yet large enough to accommodate the college could not be procured. This however makes the fourth consecutive year Bear Mountain has been the site of the Play Day.

Dr. Benjamin, whose long career as an educator has included teaching and administration at the secondary and college levels, has been affiliated with schools and educational projects in the United States and many foreign countries. He is widely known both here and abroad as an educational consultant, commentator, author, lecturer, and teacher.

His best known published work, perhaps, is the satire on modern progressive education, "The Saber-Tooth Curriculum." He has also contributed frequently to educational journals, and has written humorous articles on education under the pen name of J. Abner Peddwell.

Guest Day Program Slated For Sunday

Guest Day preparations are underway for the annual affair scheduled for Sunday, May 20 on the Paterson State campus. The day's program will be devoted to incoming freshmen, their friends and families.

The program will include various displays by the English, Social Studies, Math and Education departments. The Health and Physical Education departments will display women's fencing in the Memorial Gymnasium under the direction of Mr. Raymond Miller.

SGA Elects Six Co-Op Trustees

The Student Government Association council has elected six student trustees to the Student Co-operative Association for the 1962-63 academic year. Beverly Barberi and Dave Honey from the senior class, Gladys Kastner and Vic Farkas from the junior class, and Fran Moroz and Joan Schmidt from the sophomore class were named.

Dr. H. Lee Ellis, chairman of the social science department, serves as faculty adviser for the Student Co-op. Dr. Marion Shum, president of the college, Dr. Mary Holman, dean of students, Dr. Grace Seutly, assistant director of student personnel, Mrs. Lina Walter, assistant professor of math, and Mr. Frank Zenteno, college treasurer, serve as faculty trustees.

"The Student Co-op is a non-profit corporation sponsored by Paterson State College and is custodian of all student funds. It also develops policies for the College Bookstore and serves as a disbursing agent for the S.G.A.," said Dr. H. Lee Ellis. Proceeds from the Bookstore, activity fees, and a cumulative reserve are resources for this financial organization.

Meetings are held in the conference room in Haledon Hall four or five times a year of which two meetings are devoted to hearing a financial statement from the Bookstore.

1400 Attend Bros. Four Performance

The Brothers Four, popular Capital recording stars, performed before 1,400 students, faculty, and friends of Paterson State last Wednesday evening in the Memorial Gymnasium.

Among the many selections rendered by the group during the concert were Greenfields, Grass Leaves of Summer, Yellow Bird, and the Rock Island Line.

Durley an interview with the BEACON staff following the two hour performance, the Brothers Four, Mike Kirkland, John Paine, Dick Foley, and Bob Plisk, mentioned the 83% of their appearances are before college and university students. Recent appearances include Syracuse University and St. Bonaventure University.

Many of the songs that are used by the Brothers Four have been written by the singers. Some of those heard at the Paterson Concert include: The Mac, Super Man, and Free. They also arrange whatever material they use at these engagements.

Sunday evening the singers will appear on the Ed Sullivan television show. Future plans include an album to be released in August, the Brothers Four in Paterson.

the direction of Mr. Raymond Miller.

The music department consisting of the A Cappella Choir, Chansonnets, Women's Choral Ensemble, and Wind Ensembles, will perform from 2-3 p.m. in the Little Theater. Dr. Angelo Annunzio, of the math department, will direct Field Math problems from 2:30-3 p.m. on campus. Botany and Biology exhibits in room 237 will be held from 2-4 p.m. under supervision of Dr. Leone S. Emerich.

Other programs are being arranged by the Modern Dance group, the BEACON and the acting classes under Mr. Anthony S. Sauter's direction. The Art department will put on display proof of the years work in the student lounge of the Food Service Building.

Blood Needed For Operation

Fifteen blood donors are presently being sought to aid the mother of Margaret Simanek, a Paterson State freshman, who will undergo open-heart surgery at Passaic General Hospital, July 5. Donors must have Type A positive blood.

Those who can help are asked to call Miss Simanek at SW 7-2848 or write to her at 16-10 Split Rock Road, Fair Lawn. All donors must be at the hospital on the morning of July 5. Without the necessary blood contributions, the operation can not be performed.

Shaffer Play Day Tickets On Sale

Tickets are now on sale for Shaffer Play Day in the College Bookstore at a fee of fifty cents per person. Two tickets per student are now available.

Edelhauser Earns Senior Award

Hank Edelhauser, president of the class of '62, was presented with the Paterson State College Alumni Association's annual outstanding senior award at the Alumni dinner on April 28. Hank, a biology major and chemistry minor, plans to begin graduate work in physiology at Michigan State in the fall.

Each year the recipient of this award is selected by the PSC faculty on the basis of grades and activities. Hank's outstanding achievements on campus include: membership in the Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, vice president of Kappa Beta Pi (1961-62), co-chairman of the assembly committee, and membership in the National History Club. Hank has been on the Dean's List for four semesters and has been on the SGA council, Pioneer Players, and the Cross Country team.

Mrs. Mae Hansen, president of the Alumni Association, presented Hank with the award.

Beacon Interviews

Students who wish to report for the BEACON next semester should arrange to speak with a member of the editorial staff of the college paper. Interviews will be held on Monday, May 28 at 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., Tuesday, May 29 at 1:30 - 3:30 p.m., and on Wednesday, May 30 at 1:30 - 3:30 p.m. in the BEACON office on the second floor of the College Center.

It Is With

A great deal of satisfaction with the BEACON reaches this milestone in its history—its 28th edition of the 1961-62 school year. A year ago, sceptics said that a weekly newspaper at Paterson State was an impossibility. Lack of material and inadequate student participation were given as reasons. Despite obstacles, the BEACON has reached many of the goals set last year including weekly publication, uncensored editorials and a growing status in terms of prestige among students. These are not pinnacles of achievement but only the groundwork for student journalists at Paterson State in the years to come. The BEACON, in some cases, has not been able to accurately reflect prevailing student opinion. It has also failed too many times to gain student support in its dealing with controversy. These are among the goals of the future for the BEACON. It will only be as effective as its supporters make it. Only by making its editorial pages a sounding board of dissatisfaction and a rallying point of support will the student gain full benefit from his newspaper.

We cannot and will not attempt to list accomplishments of the past year and claim credit for them. We will, instead, rehash a few BEACON editorials and events that followed.

Protest to elimination of instructors names from master schedule (Sept. 15)—their reappearance in said schedule in January; questioned whereabouts of unpublished SGA Bulletin (Oct. 6)—first bulletin published in mid-October; questioned absence of stairway between Let 4 and Hunziker Wing (Oct. 13)—stairway constructed two weeks later; call for blood for Ricky Hummel (Oct. 27)—Ricky Hummel Day held Nov. 1, 50 pints of blood donated by students; questioned flying of tattered 48-star flag on state college campus (ours) (Jan. 5)—new flag appeared four days later; called for elimination of SGA Council "dead weed" (Jan. 12)—referendum to change SGA system of representation passed by majority vote on April 11; cited unfairness of scheduling one-section exams on last two days of classes (Jan. 12)—spring exam schedule eliminates policy, voiced student dissatisfaction with book-store operation (Feb. 16, Feb. 26)—new manager hired, policies altered in mid-March.

We hope that herein lies some small indication that a free, outspoken student newspaper can be a valuable tool to all students. We hope for increasing support for our undertakings in the coming school year.

To next year's editorial staff—our continued support along with our wishes of best luck.

Coed Dorms Planned For Stanford U.

PALO ALTO, CALIFORNIA—The Stanford University student government recently voted its support of a plan to make the largest hall on the Stanford campus co-educational next fall. Two units of the hall, which now houses men only, will be converted into coed units for 40 women and 60 men. However, the males and females are going to be strictly limited in the amount of togetherness they may practice since "provisions between the upper floors of Fremont and Holladay (the two units involved)." Residents for the coed program will be volunteers. A questionnaire, recently filled out by undergraduate women indicated that 170 would consider living in the coed units.

In general, opinion on campus has been favorable. Stanford's Dean of Men and Assistant Dean of Men have expressed support for the plan. Cost of converting the units to coed housing is estimated at $2,500, including the cost of installing a bathtub in the women's section. (The Daily Californian)

Expansion, Change Mark School Year

Expansion and change are the key words for the 1961-1962 year at Paterson State College. A total of twenty-four new faculty members in addition to the almost six hundred freshmen were added to the Paterson State family in the fall.

A foreign language division was added to the English department, and courses were offered for the first time in Spanish and French. Will Latin die in '68? And speaking of the English department, it finally "joined the campus" and was given offices for its profs in Hunziker Hall. Also making their appearance on the PSC campus for the first time this year were such noted personalities as Plato, Aristotle and Spinoza with the debut of courses in general philosophy.

Ah, what PSC student can forget the day in October when five hundred additional cars were allowed to "join the campus." Good-bye Cathy and Dan's. Or who can forget the day that the food service building opened its doors for the first time this past fall. Food, cigarettes and rock 'n roll — who could ask for more? The college center had everything. Everything including high-prices. It was also a year of student expression, for PSC students made the headlines in the boycott against conditions in the food service building and in the student center. The prices were lowered.

It was also a year of firsts "in the Sports Corner" at PSC. Senior captain Chuck Roth won all seven bouts in A sabre, spearheaded the Paterson State Men's fencing team as it walked off with top honors in the fourteenth annual Newark College of Engineering Invitation Fencing Tournament on March 28. For the first time the PSC Bowling Team captured the New Jersey State College Athletic Conference. Bill Mandara captured the singles title. The PSC Cheerleaders, headed by captain Fran Dinino, captured first place for the second consecutive year with a perfect score of three hundred in the Metropolitan-Intercollegiate Cheerleading Competition. Carmen DeSopo, soph from W. Peterson, was named to the New Jersey State College All-Conference Soccer team. Paulette Singelakis took first place in the Gilbert and Sullivan players, Margaret Mead, General Carlos Romulo, and the U. S. Navy band.

One more thank-you from Ricky Hummel, hemophiliac and son of Mrs. Leonore Hummel, of the education department.

Will the SGA Bulletin live longer next year?

Can anyone tell me who was the victor in the Tony DePaul-Mike Fitzpatrick debate?

If the presentations of the Pioneer Players' productions of the Wizard of Oz, the Lute Song and Blithe Spirit are any indication of forthcoming plays — Broadway watch-out! The three plays were excellently produced and staged.

"American Travelogue" — $2,538 Success? The carnival this year, under the direction of George Berisso, provided the student body with a chance for every student to see Fort Lauderdale.

Congratulations to Paul Czesak,

MARGARET MEAD, guest speaker at an Assembly program on January 4, spoke on "The Preparation of Children for an Unknown Future."

Helen Waywell and Jean Calahorra, winners of the College Bookstore's offer of ten dollars worth of free books from its new paperback browsing section. Educators Urge Student-Led Seminars

NEW YORK, N. Y. (UP)—Recent articles in the New York Times indicate that the education problems have not yet diminished much.

The first one, dated Feb. 10, noted that faculty members at Harvard, Smith and Mt. Holyoke colleges and the University of Massachusetts recommend that graduates can — and should — be given more intellectual stimulation and opportunity for student seminars.

The recommendation appears in a booklet, "More Power to Them," prepared by Prof. J. Barber of Amherst, a leader in the movement for curriculum reform in the colleges.

The report is the result of experiments with freshmen student-led seminars in which an instructor was present, and the techniques originally proposed by Prof. Barber for an experimental New College which he and his followers hope may some day be established by the four schools.

The report adds an important warning. "Students work well independently only when a created academic situation has been created for them." It warns that if they are alone, they find themselves in a social situation, learning is gained. But "when they are provided with a universe of course and awareness of problems they show readiness to take it and move on their own."

On the other side of the coin, however, the chairman of the division of social sciences at Francisco State College has been distressed by the results of a $100,000 three year study. According to the report, Jan. 21, the department of international relations had had one of a "breakthrough" in teaching in this field. Instead, Dr. C. A. McClelland said, "We had more than a pancake."

Recent changes have been made in the proceedings of the sophomore during their week stay at Stokes State Forest. A change was announced during the week of April 23-27 when students were displeased with arrangements.

Petersen State campus is now be permitted to select their cabin mates beforehand. This will change to fit students' wishes will also be made. This change that is given to students several of the other state schools with Stokes requirements.

SNACK BAR PSC is popular with students during free hours. Ever since its completion in December, students can be found "socializing" with classmates.

365 Students Receive Degrees

Three-hundred and sixty-five students will receive degrees on June 7 at graduation ceremonies. Two hundred and twenty-eight of the 319 candidates for the B.A. degree are women, and 31 of the 36 candidates for the M.A. degree also are women. There will be 175 graduating E. majors. This is the largest graduating from one particular curriculum. Other degrees will be given for Kindergarten-Primary, Junior High School, Social Studies, Art, English, Biology, and Mathematics majors. Degrees for graduate study are to be given in Administration and Supervision, Elementary Education, and Reading.

German Student Visits Campus; Presents Slides

Bernard von Leihmann, a German student from West Berlin, was a guest at Paterson State on Tuesday and Wednesday. He visited classes and presented slides of West Berlin to Geography classes. Mr. von Leihmann, who speaks excellent English, plans to remain in the United States for several months during which time he will take a summer job and travel.

He has also visited the Montclair State and Princeton University campuses. When questioned about his impressions of the American college he noted that students are extremely social and warm forming friendships very easily. He also noted that the college and university as an academic institution is something like an advanced high school.

If any group is interested in having Mr. von Leihmann present his slides or speak before the group please contact Dr. Mary V. Holman.

Marlboro

the filter cigarette with the unfiltered taste. You get a lot to like.

King-size pack or flip-top box

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

This is the final column of my eighth year of writing for the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes, and this year, as in every preceding year, when I come to the last column of the season, I come to a problem.

My contract with the makers of Marlboro calls for me to write a humor column and, truly, I do the best I can—all things considered, I am not, I should explain, a jolly man by nature. Why should I be? First of all, I am shorter than everybody. Second, there are moths in my cashmere jacket. Third, I work in television.

All the same, when it comes time to write this column, I light a good Marlboro Cigarette, put aside my trauma, and try with all the strength in my tiny body to make some jokes. Sometimes it works better than others, but on the last column of the year, it just flatly doesn't work at all.

Even in the very beginning this was true—and that, you will recall, was eight years ago when I was relatively young and strong and had not yet developed that nasty knock in my transmission. Well do I remember sitting down to write the final column of my first year. Day followed barren day, and not a yuck, not a boff, not a singer did I produce. I was about to give up humor and take a job selling mechanical dogs when all of a sudden, in a blinding flash, I realized why I couldn't think of any jokes!

I leapt up from my typewriter and ran as fast as my little fat legs would carry me to the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes, and I tugged my forelock, and I said, "Sir, I am well aware that you have engaged me to write a humor column, but today, as I approach the final column of the season, I am far too misty to be funny, for the final column of the season is, after all, a leave-taking, and when I think of saying goodbye to my audience—the swiftest audience any columnist ever had—the college students of America—wonderful human beings, every man and woman of them—wise but kindly—astute but compassionate—perspicacious but forbearing—when, sir, I think of saying goodbye to such an audience, I am too shook up even to consider levity, and so I ask you, sir, to let me, in the final column of the year, forego humor and instead write a simple, dignified, straightforward farewell."

Then I took out my handkerchief, wiped my eyes, ears, nose, and throat and waited for a reply from the makers of Marlboro.

They sat around the polished board room table, the makers, their handsome brows knit in concentration, puffing thoughtfully on the Marlboro in their tattooed hands. At length they spoke. "Yes," they said simply.

I never doubted they would say yes. People who make a cigarette as good as Marlboro must themselves be good. People who lavish such care on blending tobaccos so mild and flavorful, on devising a filter so clean and white, on boxing a flip-top box so flip-top, on packing a soft pack so soft—people like that are one hundred percent with me!

And so from that day forward, the final column of the year—including the one you are, I devoutly hope, now reading—makes no attempt to be funny, but is instead a simple thank you and an revoir.

Thank you and au revoir, makers of Marlboro. The memory of our eight years together will remain ever fresh in my heart, and I would like to state for all the world to hear that if you want me back again next year, I shall expect a substantial raise in salary.

Thank you and au revoir, college students of America. May good luck attend all your ventures. Stay well. Stay happy. Stay loose.

Small Max has said it all. We, the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes, can only add a heartfelt second chorus: Stay well. Stay happy. Stay loose.

Students See "Rosmersholm"

Three Fencers Qualify For Fencing Tourney

The qualifying round for the National Fencing Championship to be held during the week of July 1-8 at the Park Sheraton Hotel, New York City, took place at Paterson State, April 7.

Three Paterson State fencers qualified. Paulette Singelakis, who qualified automatically because of last year's achievements in which she placed second, is classified as an "A" fencer. Roz Culotta qualified also and Jane Tainov fenced in the final round in which she was classified as a "C" fencer.

Sports Corner

by Frank McCarthy

It was said—"The evil men do lives after them; the good is oft interred in their bones..." We will try not to make this the case, in this, the last issue of the BEACON. But instead, we will look at the sports scene over the past school year, and try to review some of the highlights for you.

De Sopo Named To All-Conference

As a jumping off point, we have the soccer campaign. Handicapped by a small squad, the charges of Dr. James Houston came close to closing the door on Jersey City in the season opener. A fourth quarter goal by Carmen De Sopo gave the Pioneers a 1-1 tie with the defending champions. Individual merit was bestowed on halfback Carmen De Sopo, as he was named to the New Jersey State College All-Conference soccer team. I'm sure Carmen, and the other men on the soccer squad would be first to praise the efforts of Coach Houston, who we feel was indirectly responsible for any merit garnered by the squad, and directly responsible for the growth of soccer as a varsity sport at Paterson State.

Mc Colgan Kept Winning

Certainly highlighting the cross-country season, was the winning ways displayed by junior veteran, Brian McColgan. For the second consecutive year, Brian took top honors in the Montclair State Invitation Meet, and came back one week later to establish a course record of 15:11 in defeating exchange student Jason Niziki of Kenya, East Africa, in the meet with New Paltz. In three years of competition, Brian has recorded 20 firsts, to write his name in the record books for a good many years to come.

Student Leader

Highlighting the men's fencing efforts, was their first place finish in the Newark College of Engineering Invitation fencing championship. Undefeated in this competition, and the mainstay of the fencing squad, was senior captain Chuck Roth. Although he excelled in competition, he surpassed this excellence in his relationship with the other members of the squad. Because of his outstanding ability and unselfish attitude, Chuck was most instrumental, we feel, in establishing the men's fencing program to its present status. Proof of this was in Mr. Rockman's appraisal of Chuck at the All-Sports banquet, sighting his invaluable assistance in helping the new comers to the fencing team.

On the women's fencing scene, we find our girls again reigning as intercollegiate fencing champions. As is the case with most championship teams, there is a standout performer. Again this was Paulette Singelakis. Among the many Champion and, individual champion in the Christmas Invitational Tournament held at New York University, Paulette is now the fourth ranking woman fencer in the country, on a non-intercollegiate basis.

Certainly one of the highlights of the basketball campaign was upending Trenton State by a 50-39 score at the loser's court. Sophomore center Don Duin tapped a two-pointer through the hoop at the final buzzer to give the Pioneers the win. Don also received an individual award in being placed on the second team All-Conference basketball squad.

The P.S.C. keggers also had their hands in the championship pot. Co-captains Ron Johnson and Bob DeBenedictis, along with Bill Mandara, Fred Koenig, and Dave Alexander, captured the New Jersey State College Athletic Conference bowling championship at the Glassboro Invitational in Glassboro.

The one honor, however, that seemed to climax the cheerleaders' trophy for the second year in a row, of the cheerleaders' trophy for the invitation (Cheerleading Competition). This honor was bestowed on our cheerers, after they

Well, we're only in the highlights—and at that, only some of them.

Cheerleaders Elect Capt. And Co-Capt.

Captain and co-captain of the Varsity Cheerleaders for the 1960-61 academic year are Elvira Brown and Lucille Alouri, respectively. The other members include: Lynn D'Antonio, Carol Kaiser, Joyce Quackenbush, Roz Tyson, Diane Vecchione, Lenore Peloyis, Maryaret Gillen and Judy Lewellen.

Enthusiasm, interest, personality, and ability were the integrating factors by which the girls were selected. Try-outs were held on Wednesday, May 9.

Pioneers Bow To Jersey City 7-6

JERSEY CITY — The Paterson State baseball nine was edged by Jersey City State Saturday, when for the second straight time Jersey City State beat them by the identical score—7-6.

Bill Born, the left fielder, and Mark Evangelista, the first baseman, continued to show the hitting ability they have displayed for Paterson thus far this season. Born went 4 for 5, extending his hitting streak through 14 straight games, and Evangelista hit his fourth home run of the season.

Jersey City led in the ball game 5-1, when in the fourth inning the Pioneers rallied behind the hitting of Evangelista and Born, tying the score 5-5.

Each team scored one more time in the sixth, but Jersey City went ahead for the final time in the seventh inning when Bob Loe doubled, and C. J. Moy singled him home.

Dennis DeLorenzo, whose record is now 2-4 for the season, was pinned with the loss. Rich Tauber was credited with the win.

Soccer Schedule Released For Fall

The 1962 fall schedule for the Paterson State soccer team has recently been drawn up. When Dr. James Houston, head mentor for the soccer squad, was asked to comment on the schedule, he said:
