

CAMPUS CARNIVAL OPENS TONIGHT

Kyle Honored At Awards Assembly

Among the students receiving recognition at the Annual Awards Assembly, next Tuesday, May 19, will be Richard Kyle, editor of the 1963 Pioneer yearbook. Mr. Kyle was selected most outstanding senior, the annual Alumni Award.

Also receiving awards at the assembly will be members of the campus musical groups, members of Phi Kappa Phi, Kappa Delta Pi, Phi Kappa Theta, the Beacon and Pi Epsilon, the WRA members, and other staffs.

active members of numerous other clubs and organizations at the college.

Club advisors will present the tokens of recognition, which vary according to the organization.

This year the students deserving awards for participating in the campus athletic programs were presented their trophies, sweaters, etc. at the Sports Banquet. The banquet was held last Monday evening in the Food Service Building.

Opening tonight on the Paterson State campus will be four shows, a variety of skill booths and food concessions that go into the excitement of an all-college Carnival. Completely student organized, the annual event will run tonight from 7 p.m. to mid-night, and will re-open again tomorrow at 3 p.m.

All students and their guests will find the carnival attractions located in Memorial gymnasium, the College Center, in the Guest Parking lot adjacent to the gymnasium and in Huziker Hall 101.

A highlight of the evening will be the one act skit in G-1 presented by the winners of last year's Carnival "Most Original Show Award." The Merriweather Girls, under the direction of seniors Pat Dunn, Judy Lewellen and junior Charlotte Averra will do a take-off on an Academy Award motion picture satirizing local campus competition.

The group that sold the most tickets at the Carnival 1962, the Green and Gold Enterprise, will stage a variety show in the Little Theatre. Featuring an all-male cast, the group hopes to take first place again this year in tickets sold.

P.O.P., an interested group of students on campus, will perform in Huziker Hall 101. The show planned by the students is a take-off on Carnival goers. Joanne Thomas and Suzanne Lambert are directing the show.

The women in Residence Hall have planned to add to the Carnival atmosphere by presenting a musical comedy entitled "Censored." Sally Fisher, Ellen McCloy and Barbara Abbate are organizing the show which can be seen on the stage of Memorial Gymnasium.

The fourteen skill booths make available games of fun with rewards to the lucky contestants. All proceeds from the two-day Carnival will go to the College Development Fund.

CARNIVAL 1961 and 1962 set a precedent for group shows that will be seen this weekend.

HOW TO SEE EUROPE FOR ONLY $300 A DAY: NO. 3

When all of you go to Europe during your summer vacation, you will certainly want to visit Spain, where the tall corn grows. The first thing you will notice upon entering Spain is the absence of sibilants. In Spain "s" is pronounced "th" and thereby hangs a tale. Until the reign of Philip IV—or Guy Fawkes, as he was sometimes called—Spaniards said "s" just like everybody else. Philip IV, however, lisped, and Spaniards, having an ingrained sense of propriety and not wishing to embarrass their monarch, decided that everybody should lisp. This did indeed put Philip IV very much at his ease, but in the end it turned out to be a very bad thing for Spain. It wrecked the sasstras industry—Spain's principal source of revenue—and reduced the nation to a second-class power.

As a result, Spaniards were all forced to turn to bull fighting in order to keep body and soul together. Today, wherever you go in Spain—in Madrid, in Barcelona, in Toledo, in Cleveland—you will see bulls being fought. For many years the bulls have sought to arbitrate this long-standing dispute, but the Spaniards, a proud people who use nothing but Castile soap, have rejected all creatures.

It is therefore necessary for me to explain bull fighting to anyone who is going to Spain. It is also necessary for me to say a few words about Marlboro Cigarettes because they pay me for writing this column, and they are inclined to pout if I ignore their product. In truth, it is no chore for me to sing the praises of Marlboro Cigarettes, for I am one who fairly swoons with delight when I come upon a cigarette which gives you the full, rich taste of good tobacco plus the pure white Selestrate filter, and Marlboro is the only smoke I have found that fulfills both requirements. Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! The flavor reaches you without stint or diminution. You, even as I, will find these statements to be happily true when once you light a Marlboro. Marlboros come to you in soft pack or Flip-Top box, and are made only by the makers of Marlboro.

But I digress. Let us return to bull fighting. Bulls are by nature bellicose creatures who will keep fighting till the cows come home. Then they like to put on pipe and slippers and listen to the "Farm and Home Hour." However, the Spaniards will not allow the bulls any succor. They keep attacking the bull and making veronices—a corn meal pancake filled with ground meat. Bulls, being vegetarians, reject the veronices and then, believe you me, the fun starts to fly!

To be perfectly honest, many Spaniards have grown weary of this incessant struggle and have left their homeland. Columbus, for example, took off in three little ships—the Patti, the Masera, and the Lavarna—and discovered Ohio. Magellan later discovered Columbus. Balboa also sailed to the New World, but he was silent on a peak in Darien, so it is difficult to know what he discovered.

Well sir, I guess that's all you need to know about Spain. So now, as the setting sun casts its rosy fingers over El Greco, let us take our reluctant leave of Spain—or Perfidious Albion, as it is peculiarly called. Aloha, Spain or Perfidious Albion, aloha!

Let us not, however, take any form of smoking pleasure. Let us continue to smoke Marlboro Cigarettes—soft pack or Flip-Top box—available in all the States of the Union.

Sixty-Five Donors Needed For Ricky

by Linda Hall

One hundred fifty students are needed to donate a pint of blood on "Ricky Humrad Day" May 15. To date only eighty-five have volunteered from the college's 2100 student enrollment.

Undoubtedly, there are a percentage who, due to medical or religious beliefs, cannot give blood. There are also others who are under 21 and are unable to get parental consent. However, this still leaves more than enough who can—but will not donate.

If there is fear, this is understandable for the needle does hurt. However, this little pinch is nothing compared to the feeling which comes from the knowledge of having really helped especially in this incurable disease of hemophilia.

Blood plasma is the only known pain reliever and indeed life saver for hemophilia. If this campaign is successful it will be the first time a blood donor unit will have come in to the Paterson area. The Red Cross is hoping that this campaign will be effective, and they have promised another one-half pint for each pint donated.

Students who wish to donate may contact Mrs. Zyrus.

Attention Seniors

Check the bulletin board for student notices in Huziker Hall for the list of seniors eligible for the verbal reasoning test. The test will be given on Thursday, May 16 at 10:30 a.m. in Memorial Gymnasium.
