Vol. 29, No. 4 PATERSON (N. J.) STATE COLLEGE October 4, 1963

Smothers Bros. Tickets On Sale

"The Smothers Brothers, renowned folk singing team, will appear at Paterson State College's Memorial Gymnasium on Tuesday, November 5, at 8:15 p.m." announced Cathy Cahill and Elaine Flesko, chairmen of the Evening Series Committee.

Tickets will be on sale from October 7 until November 5 from 9:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. in the front of the snack bar of the College Center. Price for faculty, staff and day-time students with ID cards is $1.00 while guest tickets are $2.00.

All Junior G.E. and K.P. majors are urged to obtain tickets next week because of junior practicum and because of the limited seating capacity.

In the past, the Series Committee has sponsored "Jose Greco," "The Brothers Four," "The Four Freshmen," and other entertaining programs. Besides the Smothers Brothers performance, tentative plans are being made for a second evening program for the Spring semester.

Frosh I.D. Notice

Pictures for I.D. cards will be re-taken on Oct. 9 in the Octagonal Room in the College Center from 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Anyone (including Freshmen) needing an I.D. card must have his picture taken.

Flu Injections Soon Available On PSC Campus

A series of two Flu injections at a cost of $.50 each will be administered at the college by a team from the State Health Department.

The first injection will be given on October 8, and the second will be administered at a later date. Permission slips must be secured from the college Health Office in Memorial Gymnasium and signed by parents for students under 21. All slips must be returned by October 4 to the office along with $1.00 for the injections.

Recognize Organizations? Majority Vote Yes!

The popular feeling at Paterson State, as a result of Tuesday's opinion poll, is an overwhelming YES for recognition of social, political, and religious groups on campus. Statistically, the poll tallied 1,135 student voters, equal to the record turnout at the SGA and class officers election held last April.

Social groups placed first in student choice by a total of 88% of the votes. Another 82% are asking for recognition of political groups, and the remaining 78% felt that religious organizations should be acknowledged by the administration.

With this information, the SGA can now approach the Student-Faculty Relations Committee with concrete evidence of student desires.

A breakdown of the voting by classes is given below.

Of 537 members of the Senior class, 266 voted.

| | Yes | No |
|-----------|-----|----|
| Social | 240 | 26 |
| Political | 243 | 32 |

Of 477 members of the Junior class, 217 voted.

| | Yes | No |
|-----------|-----|----|
| Social | 189 | 28 |

| Religious | 183 | 33 |

Of the 548 members of the Sophomore class, 272 voted.

SENIORS Fred Koenig and Gene Ricci observe voters in last Tuesday's Opinion Poll. More than fifty percent of the college enrollment at Paterson State voiced an opinion to the SGA question: Should social, political and religious groups be recognized on this campus?

Slides, Discussion Highlight Dinner For College Ambassadors

Paterson State College's first participants in the Experiment in International Living Program, Pat Carson, Nancy Sommers, Emma Trifiletti, and Len Lakson, were guests of Dr. Mary V. Holman, dean of students, at a dinner in Wayne Hall last Wednesday evening. Also invited were the present members and last year's members of the SGA Executive Council and Dr. Marie Yevak, assistant director of student personnel.

The program included an open discussion and a presentation of slides. The seniors outlined their trips and answered questions concerning the Program and cultural differences that were encountered by them.

Although there were language difficulties Mr. Lakson, who spent the summer in Sweden, and Miss Sommers, in Holland, met some people who spoke English. Miss Carson, experimenter to Argentina, was required to speak Spanish most of the time and Miss for the Pioneer yearbook will be taken on Oct. 21 and 22. Students who are scheduled for pictures during class hours may be excused for that purpose. Students are asked to report promptly. Photography schedules will be printed in next week's issue of the BEACON.

Recently, the actor appeared in "Take Her She's Mine," "The Critics Choice," and "The Pleasure of His Company." Mr. Conried is also noted for his lovable and comic portrayal of Uncle Tunoose on the "Danny Thomas Show."

X-Rays Required For All Juniors

All Junior students are required to have a Chest X-ray taken prior to Jr. Practicum on Thursday, Oct. 10 and Friday, Oct. 11. The X-ray mobile will be located in Visitors Parking lot from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on both days.

Before entering the mobile unit, X-ray cards must be obtained in Memorial Gymnasium from Mrs. Margaret E. Zybas, college nurse. Those unable to be X-rayed at this time must have the chest examination taken by a personal physician at the expense of the student.

The X-ray program is also available to faculty and staff members, maintenance and food service help.

Student Teaching

A Placement-orientation meeting for all K.P. and Secondary Seniors will be held on Thursday, October 10 at 10:30 a.m. in Memorial Gymnasium. Final orientation and preparation will take place on Thursday, October 31, at 10:30 a.m., also in Memorial Gymnasium.

Attendance is required at all meetings.

Hans Conried To Address Assembly

"An Afternoon With Hans Conried" will be presented by the Assembly Committee on Tuesday, Oct. 8 at 1:30 p.m. in Memorial Gymnasium. The celebrated actor, motion picture and T.V. star will present theatre stories, poetry readings, and excerpts from Shakespeare before the student audience.

Before Mr. Conried began his career in radio and motion pictures, the entertainer appeared with the Columbia Players while an undergraduate at Columbia University.

What Next?

The issue still exists — but this may be the year of resolution. Beacon readers know of which issue we speak — recognition of social, political, and religious groups on campus. Review of the problem is not needed in this editorial. However, review of the week's happenings is necessary before we look to what may happen within the immediate future.

Of the 2,172 future teacher-citizens, 1,135 exercised their right to vote (52%). Less than one-half of the student body abstained from voting either for or against recognition of the groups considered.

What has been proven? First of all, the college should be proud of the democratic processes which have taken place. Students didn't demonstrate; the administration didn't squelch attempts to hold the opinion poll — but the entire plea has been brought to fore through the Student Government Association.

Now we know the opinion of the students who care. The students who cared enough to vote in last Tuesday's opinion poll. Although the ultimate decision does not lie with the student body, the Student Opinion Poll has served a purpose.

Now the Student Government Association Committee for the Investigation of the Sorority and Fraternity Question is preparing to take their part in the "campus cold war" problem to the Student Faculty Relations Committee. The Student Faculty Relations Committee is the intermediary which may bridge the gulf and bring about understanding of the recognition issue.

The Beacon strongly suggests that the Faculty of Paterson State be polled in the same manner that last Tuesday's poll was held. The next step, whatever it may be, should be channeled by the student body through the SGA. The Beacon commends the SGA for accomplishing more in fourteen class days than has been accomplished since the official policy of the college was stated in 1954.

Parking Rule

Announced

Freshmen who park their cars in Camp Veritans, Gate 1, will be allowed to use Gates 3 or 4 only after 4:30 p.m., reported Dr. Grace M. Scully, assistant director of student personnel.

This regulation was made for the convenience of those students who will be on campus at night, or for Saturday or Sunday events. Other regulations regarding speed and line observance are not to be disregarded.

A Cappella Choir Performs At Convocation

The A Cappella choir at Paterson State College performed for the first time this year at the Convocation ceremonies held on Tuesday, Sept. 24. The choir's purpose in performing is to share with the students the joy which is found in music. The choir also acts as a public relations arm, reaching out to nearby communities, reminding the people that this is a many-faceted college.

This semester performances will, for the most part, be during the Christmas season. The first performance will be at Manchester Regional High School on Dec. 11. Dec. 12 the choir will perform at the Alexander Hamilton Hotel for the Paterson Rotary Club, and it will conclude the Christmas season at the annual Christmas concert in Memorial Gymnasium on Dec. 17.

State Bond Issue Provides Promise For Progress

New Jersey teachers are not buying the argument that the proposed $750 million State bond issue could mortgage children's future. The NJEA Review warns: "Children have only one chance to go through school. The decision we make this fall will determine what happens to thousands of school pupils and college applicants in the next three or four years." In the magazine, the teachers' association says the only valid argument against the bond issue is that "more money for education financed by a broad-based tax would have been better."

"But — and that 'but' gets bigger every day — the realities of the State's present political situation make it highly improbable that such a tax plan is going to be voted by this year's Legislature — or next year's Legislature," adds the magazine's editorial.

"Facing such a political situation, educators are offered little choice. We must expand, improve, and correct conditions in our schools and colleges. We can only go after the one program which shows promise of immediate enactment" — the bond issues. The NJEA Review points out, "Most of our State Colleges and most of Rutgers were built with borrowed money.

"This is hardly the time to turn our backs on bond financing simply because it does in a single, big way something we have had to do many times in the past."

World Spectrum

To Hate One's Brothers

by Richard Strassberg

Four children lie in their graves in Birmingham, and we have killed them, you and I. We did not throw the bomb or light the fuse, but we are guilty just the same. Our apathy condemned them; our silence murdered them. Their blood is upon our hands and hearts and souls.

"Why me?" you say, "What could I have done? After all, I'm just one individual." Yes, you are only one individual; and so am I. And so are all our fellow "citizens" individuals. We are, indeed, a nation of "individuals" — and we are all guilty.

We claim to live in a democracy. It is the will of the people, supposedly, that decides the course this nation follows. As such, if this nation stands accused of a crime and is adjudged guilty, we all are accused of a crime and adjudged guilty. This nation's crime — our crime — is prejudice, the unreasonable, paranoiac hatred of a class or classes of our fellow human beings. As long as this prejudice exists, we mock the principles upon which this nation is founded and we become the worst kind of hypocrites.

"How dare you," you say. "I've always supported civil rights — I'm not prejudiced!" No — of course you're not. It's the other guy that throws the bombs and rocks. It's the "other guy" that causes a riot if a Negro tries to move into the neighborhood. It's someone else who tells the racist jokes and laughs, or tells his little boy not to play with Johnny because he's Negro and "everyone knows that Negroes are dirty." And even if the "other guy" does do all these things and we don't; we're the people who close our eyes when the brick is thrown, or laugh at the joke, or lock the door and pull down the curtains when the riot starts. But more important, we're the ones who elect — or whose parents elect — the Senators or Representatives in Congress who are afraid to say the words "civil rights" above a whisper and who hide under their desks when they're asked to take a stand for them. It's not the Congressman's fault. They do what they think their constituents want them to. If their constituents are apathetic about civil rights or the mass murder of innocent children, then they're going to be the same.

The blame for the foul crimes committed in prejudice and race hatred rests with every one of us. The paradoxical part of this situation is that every crime committed against the Negro or any other minority is a crime against us all. We are, then, in fact, destroying ourselves. Each blow against the freedom of one individual or group is a blow against the freedom of every individual. If we design the Negro a second class citizen, then why not the Puerto Rican, or Jew, or Catholic or any one else with a minority background. To deprive one citizen of his rights is to lay the foundation for the destruction of the democratic ideals upon which this nation is founded. We cannot go on as a nation dedicated to "liberty and justice for all" when people living here are deemed second class citizens because of a difference in skin pigmentation. We must stand up as citizens of a nation dedicated to the principle "that all men are created equal," and fight for the rights of every individual — regardless of his color. If not, our enemies shall not need to destroy us; we shall destroy ourselves. This would be our just reward — if we are indeed a nation of hypocrites and bigots.

Six Artists Exhibit Prints In Wing Gallery

"Spectrum," an exhibition of forty-one color prints by six creative artists, can be viewed in the Hunziker Wing Gallery at Paterson State College from now through Oct. 11, Monday-Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.

Nathan Lyons, well-known photographer and assistant director of George Eastman House, selected the prints on display. Of the exhibition, Nathan Lyons writes: "Color photography has added a challenging dimension to photography's potential as an expressive medium . . . In the work of each personal interpretation the rendition of color is evident. The photographic materials convey a color experience which is much different from that of other media."

In addition to full grants, which provide round-trip transportation to any one of fifty-one countries, as well as tuition and maintenance for one academic year, two other types of grant are available: Joint U.S./Other Government grants offered cooperatively by the U.S. (which provides travel) and a foreign country (which provides tuition and maintenance); and Travel-Only awards which supplement maintenance and tuition scholarships awarded by a university, private donor or foreign government.

General eligibility requirements are: U.S. citizenship, a bachelor's degree or its equivalent in professional training, language ability commensurate with the demands of the proposed study project, and good health. Preference is given to applicants under thirty-five years of age.

Participating countries include Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium-Luxembourg, Bolivia, Brazil, Ceylon, Chile, China, Columbia, Costa Rica, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Iceland, India, Iran, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, Malaya, Mexico, Nepal, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Norway, Pakistan, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Spain, Sweden, Thailand, Turkey, United Arab Republic, United Kingdom and Venezuela.

N. J. Lacks College Facilities

Sorry, no room! Unless they are expanded at once, New Jersey's public colleges will be sending many more notices like this to qualified high school graduates, warns the New Jersey Education Association. The $750 million state bond issue, which is the only current proposal to finance college expansion, will provide an additional $135 million.

An alarming increase in the number of high school grads is expected by NJEA. In New Jersey alone the classes of 1964 will be graduating 13,000 more students than in 1963. This increase is expected to continue in the following years. Many of these graduates hope to attend public colleges.

The NJEA Review has noted that although the $60 million bond issue has enabled the state to increase its college facilities, this measure has not been adequate.

One state college last spring had 3,200 applicants for 712 places. Rutgers University was only able to place 3,300 high school graduates, although 11,500 qualified.

NJEA further states: "If New Jersey's public colleges are to admit their share of the larger freshman class that will pour out of the classes of '64-65 they must know now that buildings are coming to house them."

BEACON Deadline

All items for publication must be submitted to the BEACON office, second floor of the College Center each Tuesday before noon for a Friday edition of the newspaper. Club presidents, faculty, and administrative offices should keep this in mind if BEACON coverage is desired. Editors and other staff members may be contacted by telephone any week-day at AR 8-1700, Extension 227.

Folk Singers Audition For Hootenanny Benefit

Folk singing auditions to select campus talent for the first annual New Jersey Inter-Collegiate Hootenanny will be held Sunday, October 6, 4:00 p.m., at 422 Broadway, Newark, announced Frank Hawkinson, chairman of the charity event which is being sponsored by the North Newark Junior Chamber of Commerce. More than one group or individual from any school may try-out for a place on the program.

The N. J. Inter-Collegiate Hootenanny will be held Saturday night, November 23, at Upsala College in East Orange. Proceeds of the affair will go to the charity and youth programs of the North Newark Jaycees.

Because of the charitable nature of the program the Jaycees are asking participants to appear without pay. The only incentive offered is the opportunity for good, but relatively unknown, campus talent to perform in public and before an audience of 2,500 people.

Talent from 17 colleges in the state are expected to participate.

Trifiletti had difficulty learning the Northern Italian dialect since she was more accustomed to the Southern. Mr. Lakson found the Swedish language easy to learn, especially the familiar drinking songs.

In Holland Miss Sommers found it often necessary to ride English bicycles. As in most European countries it is a common sight to see women as well as men riding through the streets.

Miss Sommer's trip included parts of Germany and France. Before returning to the United States, Mr. Lakson hitch-hiked into East Germany for a very brief visit.

Cross Country Team Hosts Jersey City State

Contest Starts at 4:00 p.m. Today

CROSS COUNTRY Coach Dr. James Lepanto is pictured with his harriers prior to this afternoon's opening meet with Jersey City State.

Rumblings From A Rambler

by Ron Verdicchio

The support of the student body is a must for any college athletic organization to survive. Today is the first home game of the '63 soccer season. There is no reason why there cannot be a tremendous turn-out for today's contest since there are over one-hundred women living on campus plus many men students boarding in the Wayne area. Granted there are some hardships endured by the Paterson fans such as sitting on the cold ground for lack of bleachers and walking the long, rocky path to the field. Despite these hardships, student support is a must.

What is the giant excavation on the right of the walk way to Wightman Field? I understand at one time the hole was dug for a building. Since the plans for the building were obviously abandoned, the pit has been left to gather all sorts of debris. Perhaps a contest for ideas on the subject could be started. "If I owned the sand pit at PSC I would . . ."

The Cross Country team has their first meet at home today. So, while you are watching the soccer game and a harrier goes strutting by, give him a big cheer. It means a lot in a sport like cross country.

With the strong intramural competition this season, there should be some interesting contests for PSC men. A new ruling this year allows soccer men to compete in the intramural league. With football being the game it is, suppose a player is injured on the day of a soccer game?

Speaking of football, after an absence of years, Glassboro State has returned to the grid wars. They have scheduled four games for the J.V. slate and expect to return to varsity competition in two years.

In a more serious vein, the athletes of Paterson State deserve a large amount of credit for their efforts. It is my contention that an award of some sort should be given to the athlete of the year for outstanding contributions to Paterson State College sports. The honor need not be based on performance, but on a combination of qualities that constitute a fine competitor.

Perhaps some on campus group man be interested in sponsoring such a title. This writer welcomes constructive pros and cons on the subject.

Defense Proves Difference In Soccer Season Opener

The Pioneer soccer men, scoring with ten minutes remaining in the game, shutout a tough Shelton eleven 1-0, in a brilliant defensive contest at the loser's field last Tuesday. The Pioneers displayed team effort that was anticipated prior to Tuesday's season opener.

The first half was a back and forth encounter with near scores by both teams. The prowess of Paterson's defense was led by goalie Gary Witte. The six foot one, 170 pound senior made 21 goal saves to leave the home team scoreless. Gerry Stefanacci, Angelo Izzo, Jim Heffernan rounded out State's defense along with Cliff Raymond, Rich Witte and Rich Gore. State employed a "W" formation dropping a third man in the back to aid the defense. This left Stefanacci, Izzo and Rich Gore in the rear slots.

In the first half the game was defensive, for Paterson made only 6 goal attempts. With ten minutes remaining in the second half, Mark Evangelista passed to Carmen De Sopo who booted in the only score of the game.

Paterson, sporting a 1-0 record, faces Jersey City State in a N.J.S.C.C. game today. Jersey beat P.S.C. last year by a 2-1 count. This year J.C. bettered N.C.E. for a like 1-0 record.

Study Series Begins Monday

The 3rd annual lecture series for freshmen concerning study habits will be given by Dr. Grace M. Scully, assistant director of student personnel, beginning next Monday, Oct. 7. The lectures will be held in Wing 101 at 4:30 p.m. on the following days:

When To Study — Oct. 7, 8, 9, 10.

Cheerleaders Choose Five; Search For "Pioneer Spirit"

Varsity and junior varsity cheerleading tryouts to fill vacant positions on the squad were held Thursday evening, Sept. 26. Barbara Mellow and Lucille Meriviglio were selected for the varsity squad. Elvira Brown, captain, Rosalind Tyson, co-captain, Lenore Petovis, Marney Dobken, Margaret Gillen, Mary Henkelman and Darlene Vandermark are also members of the squad.

JoAnn Barletano, Kitty McGrath and Arlene Wellenbrink are new members of the junior varsity squad. Five more girls are needed to complete the junior varsity team. Practice for the cheerleaders began last Thursday evening, Oct. 3 at 6:30 p.m. in the gymnasium.

The cheerleaders will be present at all soccer and basketball games, except when Southern Connecticut will play host to Paterson State. Elvira Brown expressed enthusiastically that buses will supply transportation to away games. Transportation was the main problem in the past. Miss Brown also stated that the cheerleaders would like to start a booster club and are looking for a volunteer to represent a pioneer — the pioneer spirit of Paterson State.

Interested students should contact Miss Brown or one of the cheerleaders.
