NY attempt at a compilation of all the events included in college life is bound to be incomplete, but some pieces can be fitted together to form not a picture, but a mosaic—this is our theme.

Our mosaic, however, has no constraining limits. It is not confined to a finite frame. Because our mosaic is composed of life itself, it continually involves itself with change. New theories in education, philosophy, and science contribute to our ever-expanding pattern of existence. That "A" in history, that certain dance, that special ball game are all disjointed tesserae which are cemented together only by that mystical adhesive created by the interaction of people. We hope a similar interaction will occur between the imagination of the reader and the reality of the printed page.

ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION

DR. MARION E. SHEA, President

Dear Friends,

Tennyson in his famous poem, "Ulysses," puts into the mouth of his hero the line, "I am a part of all that I have met." So it is with each of you who are graduating this June of 1961. Whatever you are is the result of all the knowledge you have acquired, all the experiences you have had, all the problems you have met and solved, all the causes you have espoused, all the stimulation you have received, the sense of values you have acquired, the basic abilities and skills you have developed, the joys and satisfactions you have felt, the commitment you have made to your career in teaching.

From each of your peers and your parents and teachers you have taken, as well, traits of character which fit together in the well-adjusted individual as the pieces of a mosaic are joined and fused to create a beautiful picture. As a teacher you will seek to make of this you, which is the product of years of becoming a truly professional person who works unceasingly with and for others in an attempt to affirm man's right to knowledge and the free use thereof, and in your own way help to establish universal literacy and the idea of cultural heritage as basic concepts throughout the world.

Yours is a choice of career which involves acceptance of certain limits on personal reward and which, in effect, offers its rewards only in terms of increasing responsibilities and ever-deepening dedication. In return, you are granted the priceless assurance of accomplishment in service and, if you are unusually well-endowed, the tremendous satisfaction of being the instrument for the introduction of some new idea or element into the social structure.

If, after all you have seen and known, you are able to recognize how little you know, how little you remember of what you know, how much more you have to learn, how much you owe to all with whom you have associated—then we have done our part well and we can safely let you go into teaching like Ulysses, "to sail beyond the sunset . . . strong in will to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

Sincerely yours,

MARION E. SHEA

ADHERING to our mosaic theme, we dedicate this book to the faculty. We feel that the various presentations of subjects and life by our faculty have broadened our perspective. The faculty has become not only separate tesserae, but an integral element in the unifying adhesive of our mosaic. By combining all their knowledge, experiences, and talents, they have attempted to make us worthy members of their profession.

It is in appreciation for their efforts in this direction that we dedicate our yearbook to the members of the faculty.

ATHLETICS

ATHLETICS

The sports program at Paterson State College is designed towards furthering the educational process on the campus. Athletics have inherent values which can develop more fully the physical, mental, social, emotional, and recreational aspects of student and faculty life. This further development is the primary purpose of the activities and one which justifies their place in the program of education. Sound leadership is necessary to achieve fully the purpose.

The scope of the athletic program is dependent on various factors, such as facilities, finances, personnel, and college interest. With the advent of expanded facilities, Paterson will be in a position to enlarge its sports offerings. Specifically, I can predict enriched service and intramural programs which will better fill the needs of the students when dormitories are constructed on campus. To our present varsity activities we shall possibly add tennis, golf, and track. The introduction of these activities is somewhat contingent on the interest of the male students on campus.

I believe that the program is showing a steady and healthy growth and will continue in this vein.

Bowling, archery, volleyball, basketball, softball, and modern dance are among the wide variety of sports in which the members of the W.R.A. participate.

In addition to scheduled activities, the members of the W.R.A. hold playdays with other colleges in the metropolitan area. They also sponsor high school sports days for girls in the neighboring high schools.

A point system has been devised as an incentive to participation. This system enables girls who actively participate to accumulate points which lead to eventual awards. The recipients of these awards attend an annual dinner and are formally presented with these awards.

Miss Mildred Lee, Miss Mary Jane Cheeseman, Miss Louise Fonken, and Miss Diane Scholer are the association advisors.

Recognizing that the junior varsity basketball team needs morale boosting, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were formed for the 1960-1961 season and serve the same purpose as their sister cheerleaders.

This activity should provide a fine training ground for the varsity cheerleaders in much the same way as the varsity ball clubs pick their men from the lower ranks.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Designed for the men who do not participate in varsity sports, the intramural program provides an opportunity to compete for team trophies within the confines of the college. The thirty minute games are played during the free period on Thursdays.

Varsity Bowling

Bouncing back this year after finishing in sixth place during the 1959-1960 season, the Pioneer keglers can give credit to Varsity regulars back from last year, including Bob DeBlasi, who sports an average in the 190's, Ron Johnson, and the captain John Cooper who will be lost to graduation in June. The new men are hitting consistently along with the regulars because the team has carried an average of over 170.

Bowling is under the auspices of the Eastern Intercollegiate Bowling Conference and is guided by Coach Gabe Vitalone.

Cross Country looked better during the 1960 season than it has looked since its inception two years ago. Although the year's record is not impressive, it does show two major wins over Queens College and St. Peter's College which is a start in the right direction. Paterson also played host to the N.A.I.A. District 31 Cross Country Championships in which a total of 42 runners from 7 colleges participated.

Coach Gabe Vitalone again assumed the coaching duties and sparked several runners to earn medals in the various invitational meets.

Bouncing back from a winless 1959 season, the 1960 Varsity Soccer team recorded five big wins. It was a fine season highlighted with wins over St. Peter's College, Bloomfield College, and a most satisfying win over Glassboro State College which spoiled their homecoming day. Head coach, Dr. James Houston, and assistant coach, James Lepanto, have done a commendable job in such a short while.

Bob Demarest, Don Erskine, and Carmen De Sopo provided the bulk of the scoring punch and will return to next year's squad.

Graduating seniors Cliff Knapp, Bill Schmitter, George Del Monte, Art Bowne, John Corcoran, Donato Izzo, and Cliff Fuhs provided a bulwark of defense that contributed greatly to the winning effort.

Next year should prove even better for this fast growing and popular sport.

Varsity Basketball

The Paterson State squad entered the 1960-1961 season with high hopes. So strong was their belief that this was the year that same top New York teams—Yeshiva, Manhattan, and Queens—were added to the schedule. Although this competition provided good experiences, the grade was too steep for the boys to handle, and the team ended the season with a 7-14 record.

The team boasted a majority of juniors—Lou Carcich, John Jacone, Armand Palmisano, John Padalino, and Richard Trexler, along with one freshman—Donald Duin.

The seniors on the team, every man above the six foot mark, were Art Bowne, George Fruhbeis, Jack Moran, and Cliff Knapp. Bowne, a 6'5" giant, has been a consistent rebounder and has shown strong determination and steady team play. A fine shot from all sides, George Fruhbeis has been aggressive both on offense and defense. Jack Moran, a good ballplayer anywhere on the court, has been a valuable team player and scorer. Knapp, who was elected to the All-Conference team in the 1959-1960 season along with Armand Palmisano, has been a tough man under the boards and a fine offensive ballplayer.

With most of the lettermen returning next season and some experienced players rising from the junior varsity, the Pioneers are looking forward to a successful season.

J.V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity displays a fine team play on offense as well as an adequate defense despite their lack of height.

Again, as always, Mr. Vitalone has done a fine job of preparing the boys for a varsity berth. After four years at Paterson, he sports a record of 58 wins against 27 losses which is a good indication of the caliber of players that move up to the varsity team.

Varsity Fencing

The Fencing Team, after an initial season record of 3-4, has made great strides towards bigger and better accomplishments. Under the able tutelage of Ray Miller, the team has developed in skill and ability until the present time when they have a fourteen meet collegiate schedule with such powers as Temple, Lafayette, Fordham, Yeshiva, and Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute.

In spite of the fierce competition, individual members have won numerous medals in the Amateur Fencing League of America competitions.

The team is strong now, and, luckily, graduation will claim only two men—Pat Devlin and Charlie Helwig. With the many returning lettermen and the additional blood that tries out every fall, the fencing team can look forward to a successful season in 1962.

Coaches Gabriel Vitalone,
Kenneth Wolf, James La Panto.

The 1960 season was a trying experience for Paterson State's baseball team. Although the record for last season was not too impressive, several individuals had a fine season. Rich Adu-bato, Armand Palmisano, Rich Mola and Ray Horvath all sported a .300 or better batting average. Bill Fleming, John Jacone, Cliff Fuhs, Rich Garofolo and Joe Bores proved very useful defensively while Joe Klinger, Bill Born, Jim Sheldon, and Lou Carcich carried out the mound chores.

With nine men returning for the 1961 season, Coaches Ken Wolf and Gabriel Vitalone see a year which could repeat the achievements of the 1959 season.

Carnival

Carnival time is the highlight of the Spring season at Paterson State. Booths, featuring games and refreshments, are patterned according to a different theme each year. The proceeds from the All-College Carnival are given to the fund for the Student Union Building.

Off-Campus Activities

The pattern of our mosaic extends beyond the frame of the campus. The skyline of New York City, which can be viewed from the college, is a constant reminder of the activities available at our doorstep. Concerts, plays, and museums comprise a portion of the life at Paterson State.

Field trips and off-campus dances and parties are also important in college life.

Shaeffer Play Day, with the boat ride up the Hudson, provides a final farewell between seniors and undergraduates. After this, off-campus activities become the graduates' lives.

New Dispute Looms Over Rebel Bid to Take Up Political Issues—Attack by Pro-Red Troops Is Charged

By JACQUES NEVARD

Special to The New York Times.

VIENTIANE, Laos, May 4—(AP)—Talks to work out the machinery of an armistice in Laos are scheduled to begin at noon tomorrow between representatives of the pro-Western Vientiane Government and those of the pro-Communist and neutralist rebels.

However, the two sides appear to be going to the meeting prepared to talk about different things.

Prince Souvanna Phouma, Laotian neutralist leader, accepted as the "only legitimate Premier of Laos" by the rebels, has proposed a parley to take up the formation of a coalition (scheduled to open May 12 in Geneva.

Premier Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi Nosavan of the Vientiane Government, however, look on tomorrow's meeting as designed to work out the details of the truce that became effective yesterday. The delegation they are sending to the meeting is composed of officers, headed by Gen. Sing Rattanasamay, inspector general of the Laotian Army.

[General Phoumi Nosavan accused the rebels of having ignored the cease-fire order and of having fired on his troops, Reuters reported.]

ALBANY, May 4—Governor Rockefeller said today he would start an inquiry into the state's bingo laws and their administration as soon as he could find a qualified investigator to do the work.

Mr. Rockefeller said he did not believe it would be necessary or advisable to repeal the laws that legalized bingo games three years ago.

The new bingo investigator is expected to report his findings before early 1962, and the governor said he did not plan any interim action to tighten bingo regulation. However, he did plan to study further report by the State Investigation Commission on hearings it just completed in New York City.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.—Leukemia has been found to be two to four times more prevalent among children in families of high economic status than among low-income families, reported here today.

That pattern is identical to that found in diseases infectious hepatitis and poliomyelitis prior to immunization programs.

The findings lend circumstantial support to the theory that leukemia is a virus.

Santiago Schools Seized—Spanish Clerics Assailed

By The Associated Press.

MIAMI, May 4—The Cuban Government stepped up today its campaign against Catholic priests.

Seizures of many Catholic schools were reported. The seizure for the day, offered to the Government-controlled radio, was "Out with the Falangist priests."

Premier Fidel Castro has characterized foreign-born priests in Cuba as "Falangists" or "Spanish Fascists."

"More than twenty private schools were said to have been seized in the area of Santiago. Their staffs abandoned."

One broadcast reported that the Government was sending priests and nuns to Santiago to teach in their schools. Dr. Castro announced that he would expel all foreign priests. He has charged that they are of the Spanish Government Generalissimo Francisco Franco.

Premier Castro said he was working against the priestly regime. The team, QUEBEC, May 4—A Canadian nuncio who was turned to Canada by the superior said Sister St. Francis was injured off the helicopter.

A mosaic is a picture comprised of many individual pieces, each fitted to the other in such a way as to form a total image. Because we believe that life, itself, is such a mosaic, we have pulled together these bits and pieces from the world in which we live, adding them to the mosaic of our lives at Paterson State College.

In January, 1957, the world focused its attention on a REFUGEE SHIP DOCKS WITH NEW BABY. The new year had brought America's open door to thousands of Hungarian people forced by their love of liberty to leave their homeland. Most of us did not know it then, but that new year was going to open some new doors for us, as well. High school graduation came to most of us just after June 1, 1957, when the headlines told us that U.S. TO BID SOVIET JOIN TRIAL CURB ON A-BOMB TESTS. Some of us thought about A-Bombs, but our major concern lay with the new life which we knew was awaiting us in September. Strange how embarking on a new phase should spark the headlines of the month in which we, too, would be embarking. BILLY GRAHAM'S FAREWELL PACKS BROADWAY. Nothing so dramatic for us, but we were spruced up and ready for that first day of college, much as if we were headed on a tour of the world.

We arrived, were led, jostled, confused, and then, suddenly, another new year was dawning for a world which read that the PRESIDENT ASSURES SOVIET OF U.S. GOOD WILL IN 1958. By this time, we were beginning to feel good will toward our new comrades, our classmates. And as the ARMY PUTS SATELLITE IN ORBIT, we, the class of 1961, orbited the first of our own stars, Carol Lanika, elected as Campus Queen. Later, while the HOUSE APPROVES TAX EXTENSION headline kept us informed of outside goings-on, we were begging for term paper extensions and

DRUG MAN SCORES BILL BY KEFAUVER

Winthrop Laboratories Chief Sees Threat to Research

A warning that a bill now be- fore the Senate would stifle the research incentive of the phar- maceuticals industry and harm the American consumer was sounded yesterday at the annual member luncheon of the Brand Names Foundation at the Com- modore Hotel.

Leaders in manufacturing, re- talling and advertising were tol- by Dr. Theodore G. Klump, president of Winthrop Labora- tories and a former chief of the Drug Division of the United States Food and Drug Adminis- tration, that the measure would cost consumers a high price in reduced product quality and shaken confidence.

The measure was introduced by Senator Estes Kefauver, Democrat of Tennessee, and an identical bill has been offered battling our way through our first experi- ences with spring finals.

It was under a dark cloud that we resumed our studies that September. LITTLE ROCK DELAYS SCHOOL OPENING told the world, and us, that all was not as it should be in a nation dedicated to edu- cation for all the children of all the people.

But a new light had been rising even farther south, and, on January 1, 1959, another new year opened under headlines which we mostly cheered at the time: CAS- TRO NAMED PRESIDENT AS REBELS EN- TER HAVANA. How little we know—how much to discover. But we, as sophomores, were so busy with getting prepared for our first genuine show of unity as a class, our presentation of the new Coronation Ball, that we were little worried by head- lines screaming at us about JUVENILE CRIME RATE IN CITY SCHOOLS SHOWS RISE. After all, we were college men and women now, far enough from juvenile gangdom to notice such reports in passing only; someday, perhaps facing those chil- dren as students, we shall realize that all youths' problems are always ours. June and Shaeffer Playday combined to help us talk about GYPSY OPENS ON BROADWAY. We wondered and ventured guesses about what new plays would make it through the year. We had made it through another year, even if "all of us" were now a smaller number than it had been a year ago.

As juniors, in September of '59, we noted more acutely that 1400 POLICE SHIFTED TO FIGHT YOUTH CRIMES. Practicum now lay imminent, actual contact as profes- sionals with people the same ages as those who caused a major reorganization of the largest police force in the world. Perhaps our newly acquired knowledge of human behavior could serve us well in practice. But rising on the horizon was another moment eagerly awaited by us all, and we frankly worried very little that a BUS he said he was not "glaring at the White House" or in a "rage." He volunteered his continuing belief that Mr. Kennedy would "go down in history as a great President."

Secretary Rusk would not comment on the prospects for assigning United States troops to South Vietnam. He said it was a "question for the future." But he added that a "strong effort" would be made to extend increased help in "all areas."

The Secretary's news conference was devoted largely to problems of Southeast Asia and Latin America, but he announced that he was leaving Saturday for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's meeting of foreign ministers in Oslo.

He also disclosed that he planned to go from Oslo to Geneva to head the United States delegation at the opening sessions of the fourteen-nation conference on Laos that is to begin May 12.

Senator John J. Sparkman, Democrat of Alabama, will visit Seoul and Tokyo next week as an official representative of the United States Government, Mr. Rusk said. ## A Policy for Laos

The prospect that the tentative cease-fire has been reached in Laos will develop into solid general truce creates a new situation which political considerations should take precedence over the military struggle.

The new phase, provided it becomes a reality will be a difficult one for the anti-Communist leaders and for the United States. Communist-led Pathet Lao and collaboratorist forces have occupied half the country of Laos and established clear military superiority over the anti-Communists. The latter in the political sphere will have been rendered from a position of weakness.

The new circumstances re-emphasize the need for a positive and consistent United States policy for Laos along the following lines:

1. By the weight of our own government through mobilizing international opinion must see that a Laotian Government that gives adequate representation to all leaders and is committed to a firm under international agreement.

2. When conditions are favorable, the United States military assistance we must be prepared to counter the Russian, North Vietnamese, and Chinese in the Americas.

3. We should indicate that the United Nations, the American meeting, the Cuban issue, and the complicated matter of a meeting only if it was proper.

4. Among the Government's policy in Laos, high-level parley on basic agreements reached beforehand.

5. As the last time the sphere for foreign ministers met in Cuba—in August, 1960, at José, Costa Rica—a week spent in bitter behind-the-scenes wrangling that, in the end, produced a resolution unsatisfactory to nearly all the participants.

However, Mr. Rusk said there was now a "considerable crystallization" of anxiety in Latin America. A genuine Laotian Communist of anxiety in Latin America is a fresh United States approach.

A genuinely good that the not particularly good that the nation of Laos can be avoided, States effort.

STRIKE TO HIT CITY was headlined in New York. We had already gassed up our cars for the Junior Prom in December of that year, 1959.

1960 bloomed forth and we raced along the path to our finals once again, finding them less a scare on this, our third time around. And then, under the laughable banner HOTEL ADMITS CASTRO PARTY, September opened the college's doors for our last year. Mr. Khrushchev was in New York, along with every other statesman of importance in the United Nations, and we avidly followed the day by day accounts of the happenings there, fully aware of their urgency in our world.

While the secondary majors were in the midst of early fall finals before student teaching, the nation and the world were told that KENNEDY WINS CLOSE ELECTION. This election was especially important to us, because, for many of us, this was the first time we had voted in a Presidential election. In January of 1961 we had a new President. KENNEDY FORESEES CRUCIAL DECADE. This time the inauguration address had more meaning to us, for we, as teachers, were integral parts of that decade. This same month saw the WORST WINTER GRIPS EAST. One look at our almost totally obscured campus proved this. We survived, however, and the senior class was reunited when the elementary school student teachers returned in April, 1961. After an extremely short and busy two months, the all-important headline appeared—PATERSON STATE GRADUATES CLASS OF 1961.

The picture is still not yet completed, nor will it be until the last piece is pressed gently into place. But we always know that as we grow, so will grow the mosaic which is our lives; grow by adding tiny pieces, yes, but each one, regardless of size, adding its color and meaning to the picture which is ourselves.

Odd figures of human values and interests present a puzzle and challenge to harmony. Some people are so designed that they can measure with wisdom their harmonious place in the pattern of life.

Not to nudge, irritate, or overshadow the pieces of humanity which lie adjacent, but to fit comfortably—this is her talent.

PROUD piece of a whole by itself must die
As leaves are shorn and pierced by Nature's eye,
To cast a thought within man's lifted reach
Engaged in doubt and strained by reason's breach.
Reach high you file of souls with minds attached,
To prove in heart and thought you stand unmatched;
One fact you know well, that you will not fall,
None touched you here, but masters, doctors all.

Our colors, our figures are blended to form
Not that which is dead, but breathing and warm;
Now move down the aisle in sure stately step,
And open the door where men's dreams are kept.
Remember your birth; forget not your tie,
Proud piece of a whole, by itself must die.
