from the pioneer office:

. . . and so, just in passing, we felt it advisable to mention, by way of an introduction to what you are about to read, the kinds of intentions we had while producing this volume. not to justify mind you, for if a need to do so exists, something is lacking, but to clarify, so to speak, in the event you find this annual a departure from others of this office you may have encountered. a departure, not in the respect that it is something other than a yearbook, but in the sense that we feel it is exactly that, a book about a year, 1967-1968, a book about you, for you, by you—all of you. we took a look and saw something—a college community caught in the act of being. we photographed it, wrote about it, put it on paper, and now we present it to you—a glimpse of you doing the kinds of things you usually do. read it, look at it, enjoy being a part of it, then put it on your bookshelf, like the rest of your years, to draw on as your needs demand.

there are buildings standing,
the buildings in which foundations will take form ...

there are stairs that can lead to the realization of our aspirations . . .
windows in the buildings let us look at life,
let life look at us . . .
reflections await . . .

as individuals we stand facing the unknown, looking for the support the future offers . . .

time moves us forward . . .
we are individuals who become a part of a relationship . . .

the once desolate area is used by those looking to the future, by those reflecting upon and learning from the past . . .

our discussions and our learning are not limited to the confines of the somber buildings, it is the grounds where we meet with our new friends to discuss, to assimilate, to evaluate—
that we may learn . . .

from the once vague, lonely area
the unity is achieved . . .

the buildings, grounds, and people are one . . .
paterson state college . . .

... yet we are but individuals traveling through the unfamiliar . . .
if alone, the world is cold, uncaring, meaningless . . .
alone we are but faces in the crowd . . .
the world looking at an intruder . . .
if alone, college is nothing but grounds to walk, buildings to get to . . .
anything alone is nothing, meaningless, insignificant . . .

we must stop along the way to talk . . .
 bring forth our ideas—
 then stop and think some more . . .
 for only then is learning profitable . . .

do not rush, but use every minute of time—for it goes all too quickly . . .
use it to enter the world of academics and humanities . . .
use time to discuss;
to meet with fellow students
who are learning with you;
to meet with professors who have learned before you that the time to learn is now, before tomorrow comes . . .
for knowledge alone
is nothing—like the campus,
it must be part of a complex,
the complex of life . . .

it is you who, as individuals, have worked to achieve
an educational goal . . .

in this process you
have grown emotionally,
spiritually, socially,
intellectually . . .

you have come to realize that it takes more than buildings to comprise a college . . .

to you, the students,
who have met on the grounds, in the buildings
to study, to live,
to experience . . .

to you who have
walked together,
laughed together,
fought together . . .

to you, the students, who are paterson state
college, this yearbook
is dedicated. . .

... within this constitutional association lies the foundations of a students' college . . .

here are the individuals who band together to work for the best possible campus . . .

the committees who function as separate entities, but still remain part of the whole . . .

these are our representatives to haledon hall, to the public, to us . . .

sga is the students . . .

government

"government cannot be stronger or more tough-minded than its people. it cannot be more inflexibly committed to the task than they. it cannot be wiser than the people."

adlai stevenson

this simple statement cannot have a more appropriate application than to our own student government. time after time, in different situations, the tough-minded students of our college have worked for a stronger representative body, better and more frequent activities, and a clear flow of communication with neighboring colleges. the accomplishments of the past ten months were achieved through the many facets of the student government association. but the gains were not made by the government or by the association. they were made by the students. from the freshman welcome dance to the coronation ball, from the ricky hummel blood drive to the carnival, student response and commitment were at the forefront. this says it all.

this year, paterson state moved out of the realm of small colleges into an institution of almost university status. again the student body transcended this situation and adjusted themselves at a time when patience and understanding should only have been wishful thinking. in conclusion, i make the dedication of the year 1967-1968 to you the students who have given unselfishly of your time, and to the faculty and administration whose patience and understanding have helped to build the campus life and educational values of the school we will someday call alma mater.

. . . we have gained more than a degree in our years at paterson state college . . .

we have fulfilled a dream . . .

we have attained a better understanding of the world of others; we have attained a better understanding of life . . .

an understanding based on experiences, those we have undergone by ourselves and those we have shared with others . . .

education is a precious entity which must be slowly developed; each experience provides a basis for the next . . .

when we entered college we brought with us a fear of the unknown . . .

experiences of the past were but stepping stones to the future; enabling us to expand emotionally, socially, and intellectually . . .

the fears that we first expressed were soon allayed as we met the demands made upon us . . .

it is assumed that he has met specific standards; but what standards can we set, what degree can we confer upon social adjustment?

we have learned that education cannot be confined to the classroom . . .

it is our relationships with others that truly prepare us for life . . .

. . . underclassmen have many opportunities to develop both as individuals and as a group . . .

by working together on class activities, they allow themselves to become part of the college and the college to be an integral part of themselves . . .

those who allow themselves not only to gain something from the college community but replace through their participation what they have received . . .

these people will be the ones to benefit from the complete experience that the college has to offer . . .

it is only through the exchanges found in the interrelationships of the college and the students that a full development will take place . . .

for the underclassmen this experience is now unfolding . . .

The book cover features a light beige background. A vertical black stripe runs down the right side. A white circle is positioned in the lower half of the cover, overlapping the black stripe. The title 'underclassmen' is printed in black lowercase letters inside the white circle.

... our education would not have been complete without the opportunity to develop ourselves in our particular areas of interest ...

those areas which are started in the classroom and which are supplemented by the extra-curricular program ...

we have discussed religion, politics, and the latest books ...

we have had the opportunity to apply our knowledge of government ...

and we have actively engaged in community projects ...

we have had the opportunity to engage in the arts as performers or members of an audience ...

every direction has been opened; we had only to partake of the offerings ...

a tribute to martin luther king jr.

a sense of shock and sorrow permeated paterson state college on april 5, 1968 . . .

the feeling of respect and the total realization of tragedy demanded expression . . . students and faculty gathered for the inter-faith services held at the newman house . . .

nearly one thousand listened as dr. king was eulogized and his works read at the college service . . .

a moment of silence was the final, ultimate tribute to the tragic and untimely ending of a man's life . . .

... the crack of the bat on a warm spring day ...

the tension filled gym during a close conference game ...

the exultation of the goal that brings a championship ...

the pride of the victors, the sorrow of the losers, the glory of participation exhibited by both ...

cross country

... the paterson state cross country team capped a very successful season with a 10-5 record ...

the roadrunners took second in the state college conference championships and third in the n.a.i.a. district 31 championships ...

individual honors went to captain al paganelli, a junior who now holds three paterson state college cross-country records ...

with four top runners returning, coach james mc donald eagerly anticipates an even better season next september ...

... 1967 was the year that coach wilbur myers' booters fulfilled their promise of that one "great season" ...

capping and outstanding 9-2-2 regular season record was the team's invitation to the n.a.i.a. playoffs ...

personal highpoints of the season included the record breaking performance of ken medaska's 33rd goal and the general excellence of senior m.v.p. hank saxon ...

tony benevento, bill deubert, steve kasyanenko, and stosh bavaro also exhibited prowess on the squad ...

fencing

... having long played an integral part among the intercollegiate athletics on paterson state's campus, the pioneer fencers have earned widespread recognition and acclaim ...

among their members are several of the foremost fencers in the metropolitan-new jersey, and east coast areas ...

these have risen from the ranks of coach al sully's varsity squad to such noteworthy positions as number one sabreman in the state ...

this season the team fenced to a 5-8 record ...

disadvantaged by the lack of a jv team from which to draw experienced swordsmen, the bulk of the squad has, this year, proven to be wholly green rookies who have had little or no on-the-strip experience ...

one exception to the rule was captain jack zellner ...

through dedication, hard work, and very capable coaching these men have progressed to their well-earned status and positions of honor ...

coach: alphonse sully

captains: tom di cerbo, jack zellner

co-captain: bob moore

mike burns, joe cenicola, pat durnin, edward heater, mike hegedus, arnie madrichinoff, tom mayer, al olasin, bob stewart, steve tanasoca, steve wansky.

... although, outwardly and by the nature of its origins, fencing is not a sport designed primarily with the female of the species in mind, these girls miraculously come up with outstanding teams and individual fencers year after year ...

their i.w.f.a. championship record will readily attest to this ...

coach raymond miller has simultaneously, and singlehandedly, maintained two excellent squads of fencers—varsity and junior varsity ...

the '68 season witnessed the winning of many individual medals and only a single loss for the four-girl varsity team whose record ran a meritorious 13-1 ...

the junior varsity squad, recruited for the most part from novices, was undefeated ...

varsity basketball

... basketball, the number one spectator at paterson state, provided the fans with the best season in ten years during the '67-'68 campaign as coach ken meyer's men accumulated an 11-12 record ...

memorial gym was the pioneer's favorite playing place as they hustled to a 9-2 at-home record ...

a highlight of the season came on january 13 at trenton state college when senior captain john rich-jim lepanto's final year as baseball mentor proved a winning one as the pioneer diamond squad enjoyed another banner season . . .

sparked by juniors tom dilly, torre puzzo, jim gash, and sophomore art kinnaugh, an all-conference second-baseman, the paterson club posted a 12-8 campaign record . . .

conference honors loom on the horizon for the pioneers as the entire squad will return for the 1968-1969 season . . .

the coaching staff, students, and varsity athletes envision an exciting and rewarding year . . .

the women's recreation association is an organization open to all women at paterson state college . . .

all dormitory groups, social groups, and other club groups are encouraged to participate in wra functions . . .

the organization has seasonal as well as yearly activities including a welcome tea in september and a farewell banquet in may . . .

the philosophy of wra is to have fun, establish new friendships, and make the most out of college life . . .

the black and orange have developed championship caliber squads in soccer, cross country, baseball, and women's basketball and fencing . . .

men's basketball, fencing, and swimming are holding their own . . .

the hilltop campus has reached a level that garners respect from metropolitan area teams but it is only the beginning . . .

there are many bright tomorrows for the dedicated athletes and coaches of paterson state college . . .

... in each class there are those students who have made their mark at paterson state ...

they have worked for and with the college ...

they have developed as contributing members of a community ...

they have given much more than is required; they have been more than just students ...

they have been ones fortunate enough to achieve and give that something special ...

outstanding
senior
award

sandra kay etchells

this award was given to sandy for her enthusiastic participation and hard work. as a member of the pioneer players, she worked as costume designer, costume crew member, and understudy. as an art major she has given her talents to decorations committees for many campus functions, to the yearbook as photography editor, and on the art majors' shows both on campus and at the njea convention. she has helped with the campus blood drives for three years and has served as treasurer of her class in her junior year, chairman of the junior class picnic, chairman of the junior prom and chairman of a college mixer. a dynamo of energy, sandy has expended herself for her class and for the college in countless ways.

jack karl zellner

this award was given to jack for an outstanding academic record maintained along with active participation in class and college activities. a member of the fencing team for four years, jack was captain during his senior year. he has been treasurer and vice-president of the student government association, trustee of the student cooperative association, three-year member of the financial committee, and chairman for a number of college events. jack was chosen for who's who in american colleges and universities and participated for two years in the leadership lab and the eastern states conference. a winner of a number of special honors, jack received the intramural basketball and football award for two years and was declared a winner for the best social science research paper.

if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours.

the experiment in international living gives students the opportunity to become a part of another people . . .

by becoming a member of a family in another country for a month, the experimenter shares the culture and ways of a different nation . . .

. . . guidance and supervision lie in the hands of the faculty and administration . . .

they are here to guide us in academic and, if necessary, personal matters during our stay at paterson state college . . .

through the offices of the administration our programs of study are coordinated, our activities cleared . . .

through communication with the faculty, we gain their knowledge—the sum total of their past experiences, thought processes, and ideas . . .

we also gain insight into the tangible structures and principles of the universe . . .

in the faculty we encounter learned persons—sounding boards for our interpretations, assimilations, and understanding . . .

... we have recognized the college as an institution of higher learning, and we have seen the life the students bring to a college for ...

there are grounds of trees and stones . . .
there are buildings standing,
the buildings in which foundations have taken form . . .

there are stairs that have begun to lead us to the realization of our aspirations . . .
the windows in the buildings have let us look at life,
let life look at us . . .

reflections still await . . .
