Hopelessly Human . . .

It's a strange aberration,
this brainstorm of youth
Though it's lost in translation from fancy to truth
It's hopelessly human both inside and out
A joyous occasion, no reason to doubt
It's easy somehow, what once was elusive is calling me now

I am waiting, I am patiently
Doing nothing, in a reverie
Climbing higher, seeing everything
Interacting, slowly spiraling,
I am giving, while I'm watching the life I'm living, precious energy
Escalating, what was once just a game
It's never the same, no one's to blame

It's a strange situation, there's no cause for alarm
All those hot licks and rhetoric
surely do you no harm
They're hopelessly human, both
inside and out
A joyous occasion, there's no reason
to doubt
When each word is read, would you know the difference
If nothing was said?

All is rhythm, all is unity
I am laughing, as it's meant to be Just amusing, I am using the Word was given, making harmony
Moving slowly, dancing aimlessly
Endless circle, turning fearlessly
Resurrected, falling down again
Introspected, I'm just stating my views
Now you can choose, what do you feel
It is for real this time

PLAYBILL

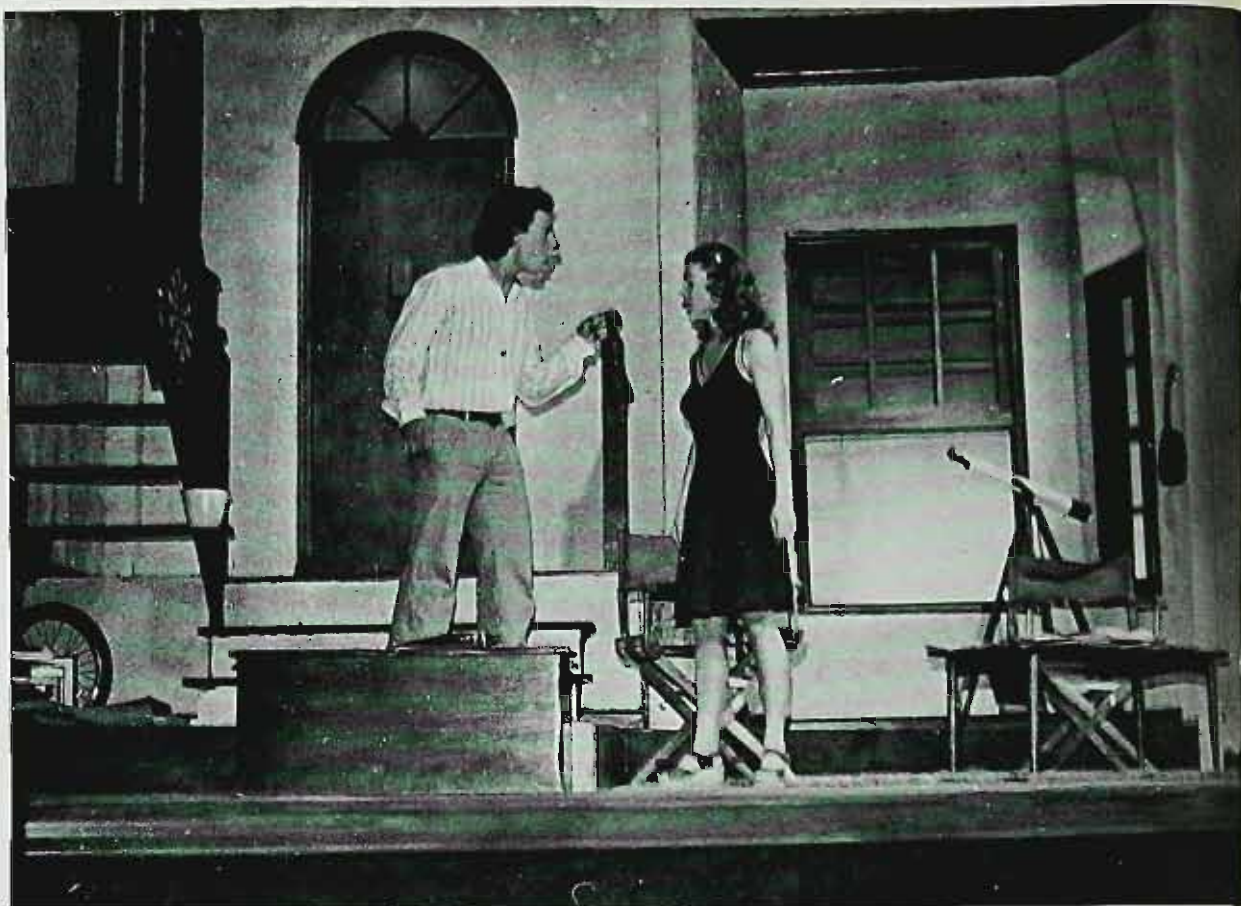

Man of LaMancha

Laughter, tears, and all those emotions inbetween were in great supply in the WPC Theatre Department rendition of "Man of La Mancha." Chev Rodgers, a member of the original Broadway cast of the musical, delighted the audience with his complex portrayal of the dauntless Don Quixote. Talent was consistent throughout the cast. Mark Owen and Robin Miller exemplified the outstanding vocal abilities of the supporting cast, while Fiore de Rosa and Kathleen Durrie, in the respective roles of Sancho Panza and Aldonza, were energetic and convincing in their major roles. The combined efforts of all involved produced a truly professional theatrical production.

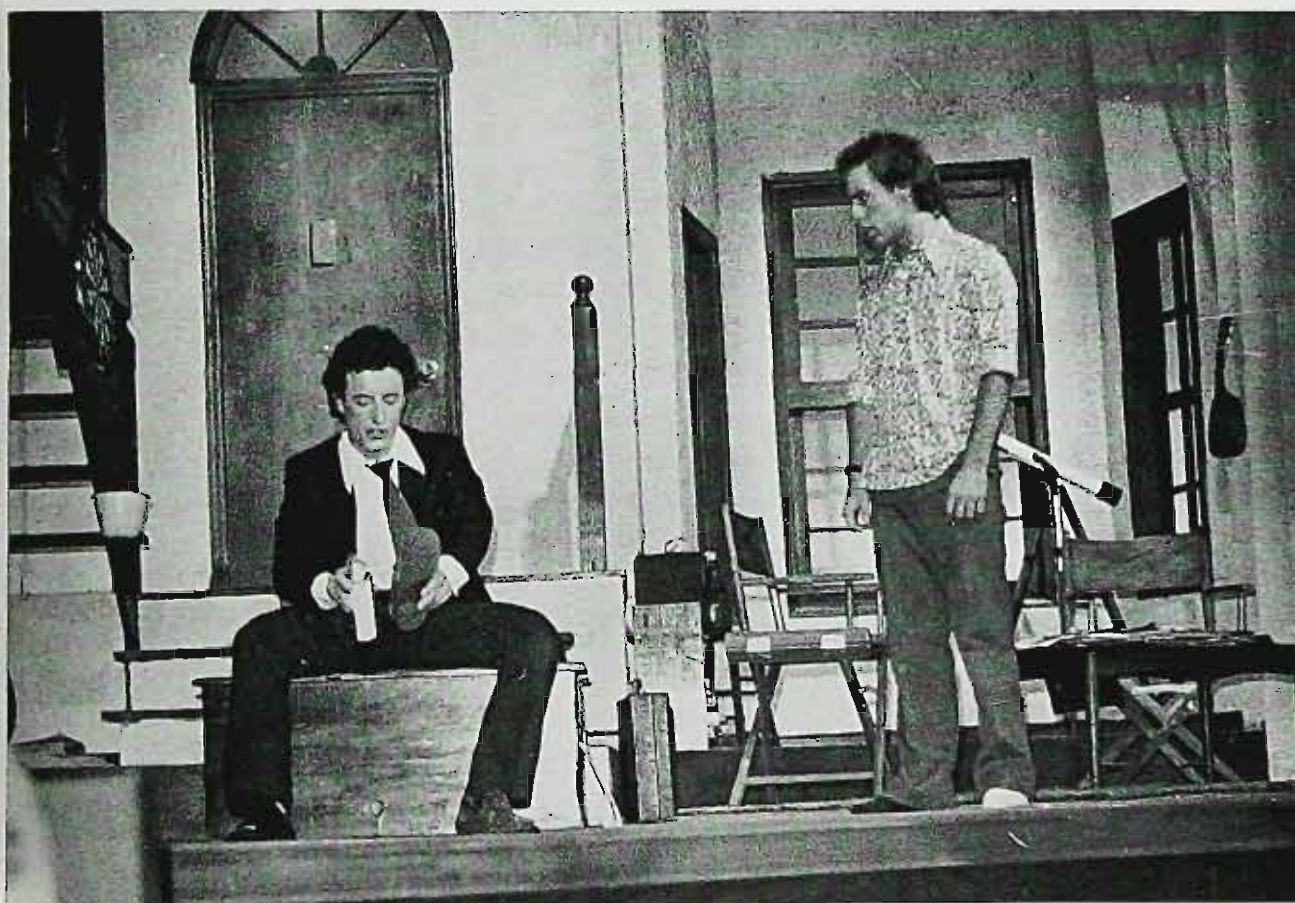

This slapstick comedy of Neil Simon demanded an awareness of timing which was lacking among the WPC actors. The performance did have some amusing moments, but the overall production was a disappointment.

Star

Girl

A Rose Tattoo

A troubled family provides the focus in Tennessee Williams' "The Rose Tattoo," and the WPC players, directed by Dr. Young, rendered the theme interesting. Marked with some fine interpretations, Brenda Luchetti, who depicted Serafina Delle Rosa, and Fiore De Rosa, who portrayed Alvara Mangiacavallo, the players revealed a sensitive understanding of psychological conflict. Quality of performance was not consistent throughout the play, but the actors reflected an intuitive understanding of a difficult subject.

Jesus Christ Superstar

A contemporary twist was given to "Jesus Christ Superstar," the popular rock opera presented by the WPC players March 8th through March 11th. Films of slime-like colors were projected on a screen behind the stage and live musical accompaniment was provided by the college orchestra. A musical in "sensurround" was the final effect. Though less "noise" and more talent was needed to polish the show, Paul Dames, in the title role, and Elizabeth Chambers, the sensitive portrayer of Mary Magdelene, matched the special effects in their energy and exuberance. The play, whose deficiencies were minimal, resulted in an enjoyable and invigorating evening.

An abandoned geriatric, a self-seeking middle-aged mother, a daughter considered by many to be slightly daft, and another who raises rabbits and mutated flowers, all live in a house littered with rabbit droppings.

Producer Wil Grant assembled all these unlikely characters for a strong performance in the Hunziker Theatre.

R-A-I-N

Over 2000 graduates assembled on Wightman Field for the 145th commencement of William Paterson College. Although weather conditions postponed the ceremony one day, the cloudy skies and threat of R-A-I-N did not affect the euphoric graduates on their big day.

Team Scoring Record Surpassed

Packed into a small package is a powerhouse of a football team. An average of 22 points per game were scored in the 1978 season, and with less than forty members, the team surpassed all scoring achievements of the past.

Two members of the powerhouse package are Ed Balina and Terry McCann. Balina, a member of the NJSCAC, and Back of the Week, accumulated 930 yards and 92 points. McCann, a fullback, scored five touchdowns in one game against Jersey City and was credited with a total of 487 yards.

With a new coaching staff and many new players, the squad's 3-7 record came as no surprise to coach Frank Glazier and assistant coach John Dull. But, for the hard working team, a dynamic 1979 season is a certainty.

Teamwork and Talent

It was expected to be a rebuilding year, but with a good nucleus and a large freshman turnout, the WPC soccer team came out on top. Despite the loss of all but two of its starters, the club finished with an impressive 8-5-3 season, placing fourth in the NJSCAC.

Teamwork and the strong leadership of Coach Wil Myers proved a successful combination for the club. Talent and ability was equally distributed as well. Each of the thirteen players was credited with at least one goal.

The WPC "B" team contributed its share to a memorable season. Under the guidance of Ray Spadaro, they finished the season with a 5-1-2 record.

Soccer

Individual performance is essential to the success of a team, as proved by the WPC soccer players.

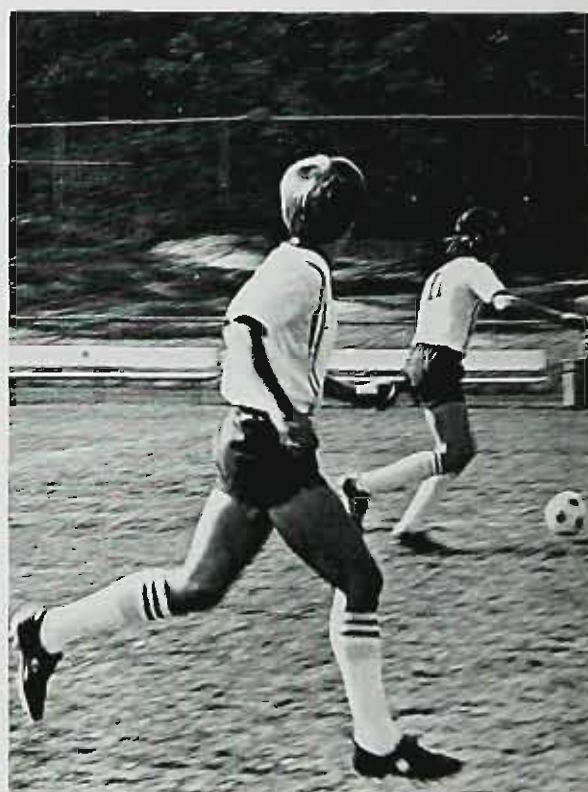

Three such players were returning veterans Victor Vitencz, Weldon Myers, and co-captain Mike Dittmar, who were tied for the team lead in goals. Working together was the club's magic formula.

Dedication is also needed, and was in no short supply among the team members. Known for their "triple vision" effect, the three Loudon brothers have been playing soccer together for eight years, and hope eventually to play professionally.

Teamwork and talent: the basic ingredients of the soccer club. Together they make a promising future for the team.

The WPC cross-country team finished the season with a 6-11 record, but Coach Bob Smith is not discouraged. Athletes like Jeff Seymanski, Ken Nichols, George Lester, and Dave Blinstrub, with respective times of 27.35, 27.50, 28.01, and 28.15, indicate the team's great potential.

With an anticipated 15-20 runners, Coach Smith is looking forward to improved performances for next year's team.

Potential Proved in Fall Season

d

It was a demanding fall schedule for the WPC baseball team. Cohesion was lacking in the club with its many new players, but by defeating Seton Hall their potential was proved.

The outcome of the spring season is difficult to predict. The one certainty is that the competition will be tough.

CAUTION: Goal tending may be hazardous to your health. The WPC field hockey team learned this the hard way. Top goalie Cathy Lowry was injured in the season and replaced by Pat Cole, the senior captain. Totally unfamiliar with the position, Cole managed to hold the team together.

Cole's aggressiveness was matched only by Meg Gallarelli's scoring ability, with 17 out of the squad's 28 goals to her credit. Gallarelli may well become one of the finest players in the conference.

Coach Karen Cushing sees great potential in the team, which was victorious in its last game against Centenary, with a score of 5-0.

Spikers End with 9-8 Season

Marked by its ups and downs, the WPC volleyball team ended the season victoriously. The powerful serves and spiking of players Bonnie Jablonski, Marguerite Hertz, Debbie Willard, and Maryann Taormina contributed to what was a fine overall team performance. A record of 9-8 was achieved at season's end.

Netters Show Improvement

With the loss of nine of their players, the Netters managed to end the season with a 9-6 record. Marla Zeller, undefeated in first singles play, was undoubtedly an asset to the team. Lori Johnson also contributed her skills. When paired with Zeller, there was double trouble as the Netter pair went on to defeat Trenton's state tourney finalists, Laughlin and Donahue in doubles play.

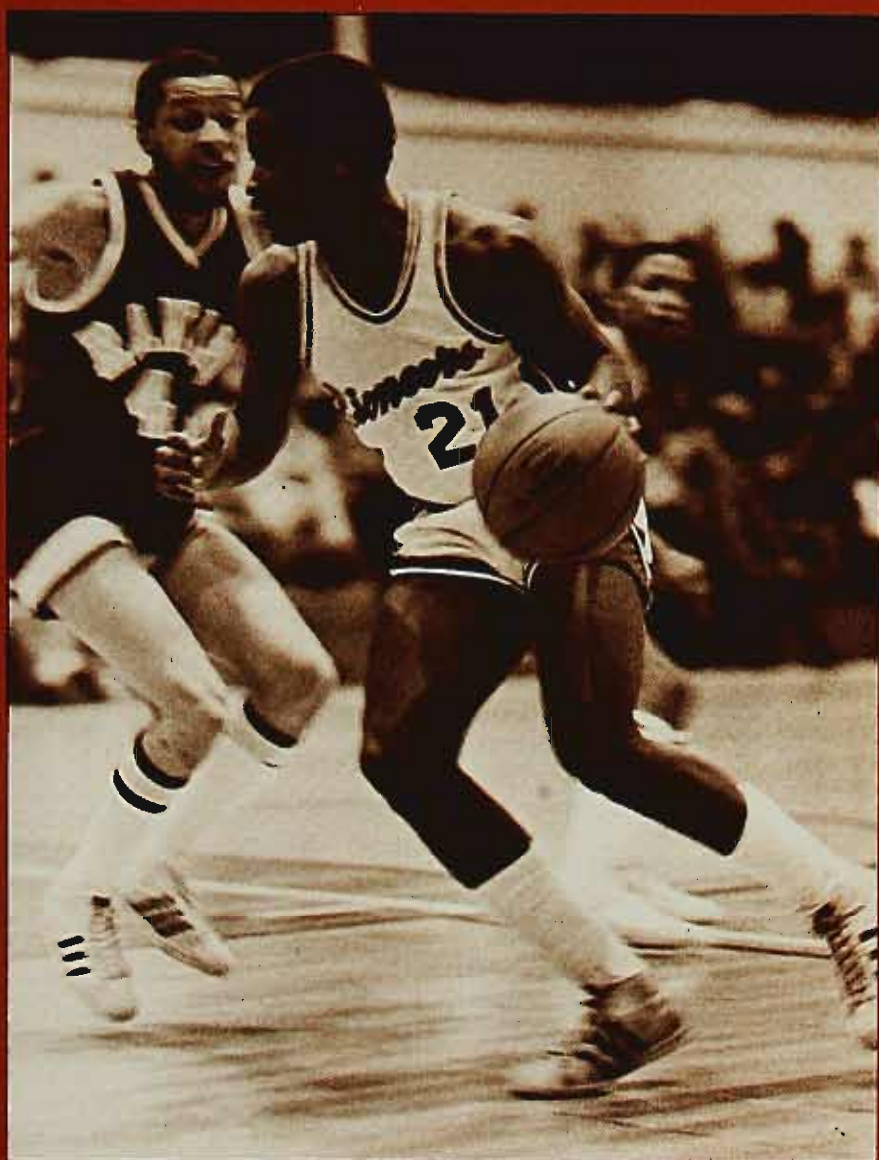

The Netters, whose record was not outstanding, showed a marked improvement.

Outstanding Performances Mark '79 Season

Several outstanding performances marked the Men's Pioneer Basketball season. The team, which finished with the third best record in the state, was lead by Clint Wheeler in scoring, shooting percentage, assists and steals. Also contributing to the commendable season were John Rice, Ted Bonner, and Baron Hickson, each responsible for double figure scoring.

Concentration was lacking among the players to which coach John Adams attributed their faulty executions. The Pioneers ended in conference play and did not make league playoffs.

The final record for the WPC JV team was more impressive, with a total of 17 wins and 2 losses. Freshman Reggie Young lead the team, followed by Tony Wilson, who contributed 20 points.

The balance and consistency of the Pioneer Women's Basketball team have resulted in an overall performance greatly improved over last year. Coach John Tague states that the team has "a lot of people who can score and our passing is excellent."

The core of the squad is provided by Debbie Comerie, Margaret Piluso, Maureen Brady, and Sandy Horan, who each average scores in the double figures.

Defense has also been a factor in the team's success, which has prevented opposing teams from accumulating high scores.

With a current record of 17-8, the Pioneer Cagers project a promising future for WPC Women's Basketball.

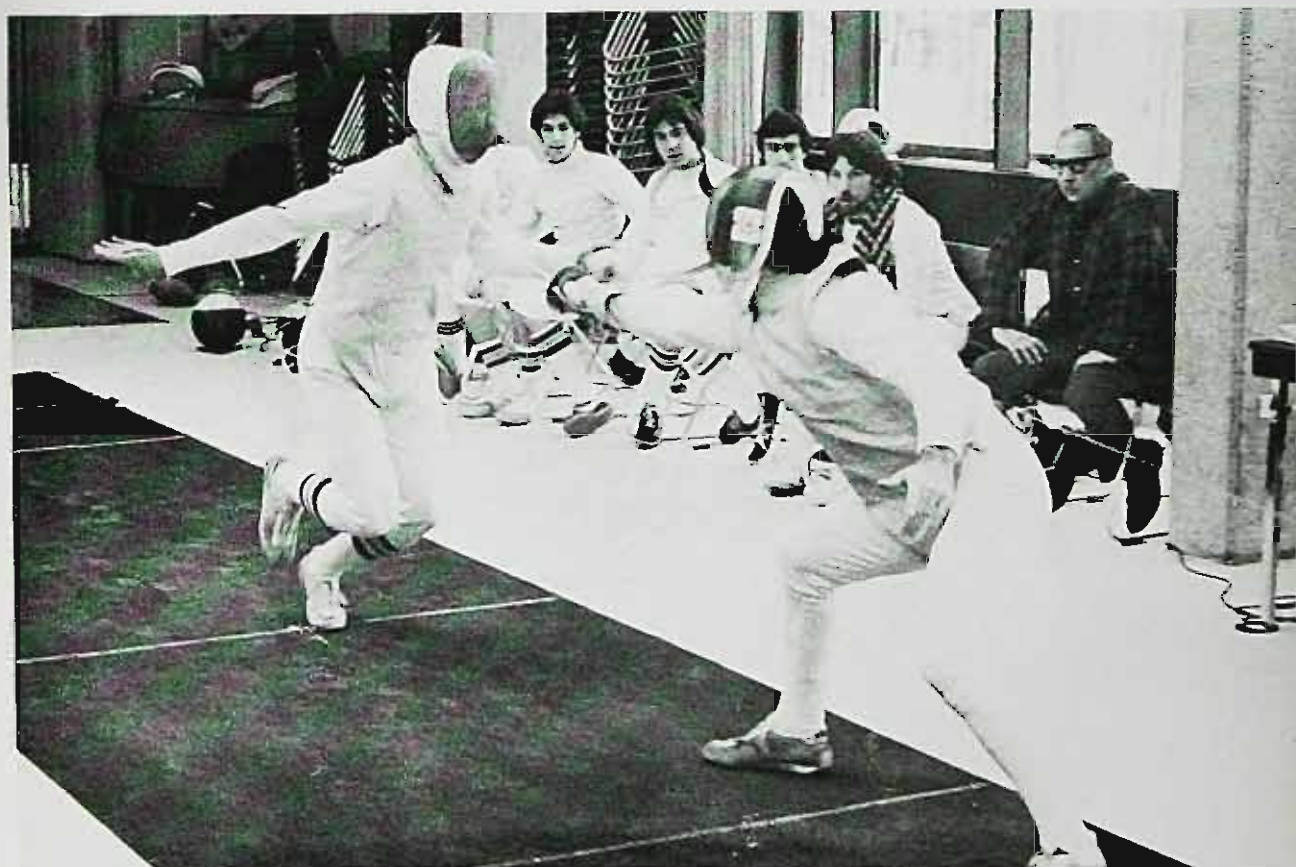

Touché

Experience and skill have proved a winning formula for the WPC Pioneer men fencers who are coached by Al Sully. Captain Bill Trapani, Bob Stout, and Frank Ayers, all seniors, defeated such established teams as North Carolina, Muhlenberg, and Jersey City. Junior John Felice and freshman Miguel Llanes were also instrumental in these victories.

The Pioneer epee team has an overall record of 8-1, while the Pioneers are currently 12-3 for the year.

Improvement, a priority for the WPC women fencers, has been accomplished this year. In a triangular meet held here at WPC, the Pioneers were awarded the "Little Trophy" for defeating both Montclair and Brooklyn.

In spite of problems including loss of team members and failure to perform against rough competition, Mary Ann Kell, Carolyn Wozney, Stacy Garabedian, and Denise Brecht have augmented the team's overall performance. Coach Ray Miller asserts that the team has a good chance of qualifying for the Nationals held in San Jose. The Pioneers have participated in this event for 32 consecutive years. Miller and his team plan to make it "33 straight."

'79 Swim Team

"Without a doubt, this is the best swim team WPC has ever put out," praised Coach Ed Gurka, and the feats of the Pioneer swimmers provide the proof. Establishing itself as a top contender for the Metropolitan League Division II Crown, the team held up against the Kings Point squad, which was defeated by WPC for the first time in the school's history.

WPC's team of Rob Lavin, Pete Lavin, Rich Karak, and John Lavin excelled in the freestyle and backstroke, while Chuck Davenport and Mark Giordano contributed their talents to the breaststroke and diving events.

The school record for overall competition was smashed, and the Pioneer team finished fifth in the Metropolitan Championships with freshman Karak taking home a gold medal for the squad.

The statistics are present to support the fact that the '79 season was the best ever for the women swimmers. In one of the biggest meets of the year, the Metropolitan Championships, the swimmers made an impressive showing by scoring 366 points in order to grab the second place honors. By the season's end, they compiled a record of 11-5 in dual meets.

Hockey Club Makes Playoffs

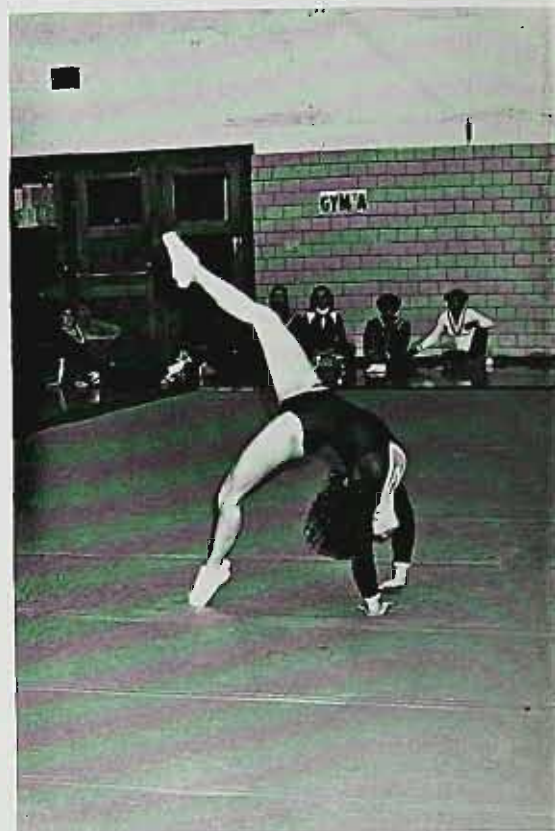

For the first time in its four year history, the WPC Ice Hockey Club made it to the playoffs. Thwarted in the quest for a division title by Queens, the Pioneers, coached by Bob Moran, revealed their unlimited potential and dedication. Players John Calabrese, John Malba, and Danny Onove scored consistently, and the future of the club promises to be a bright one.

Good performances were in abundance for the WPC gymnastics team, whose ability to score against tough competition resulted in an excellent overall season. Revealing her enthusiasm for the team members, Coach Sue Herdeman emphasized the talent of freshman Nancy Pittman, who, with Iris Mittendorf and Jeanne Smith, contributed to the success of the team. Such established clubs as the Universities of Maryland and North Carolina threatened the WPC scoring capacity, but the team ended the season with a respectable 92 average.

WPC Track and Field

The WPC track team, coached by Bob Smith, placed seventh in a track meet composed of sixteen teams, scoring $27\frac{1}{2}$ points. Glassboro, who finished fourth, was the only New Jersey team to beat the WPC athletes.

Captain Tony Ciccone, a 1979 graduate, was instrumental in the success of the team. Ciccone, whose main event was the hurdles, drew WPC's only placing at the West Point meet, running the 55 meter high hurdles in 7.8 seconds.

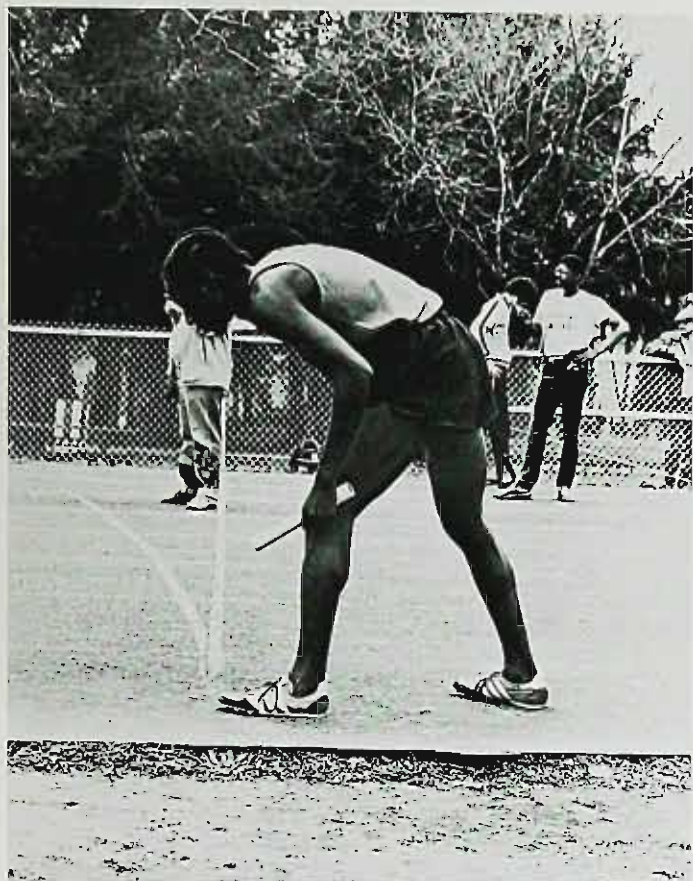

Dedication was contagious among the team members. Clarence Cox, Henry White, Dana Tilghman and Walter Watson set a school record in the 440 Relay at Camden Community College, with an admirable time of 43.6 seconds.

Behind Dorm Doors

Once upon a time, way up on a hill, there were two dormitories which seemed miles away from campus. In order to get to these buildings, one had to walk up a mountain of steps, which made even the healthiest of athletes huff and puff before reaching the top.

Once inside, one had to behave or else a Resident Assistant sent a warning down to the Wicked Wizard of 106, otherwise known as Gary L. Hutton, Director of Housing.

Despite the rules of the land which included room inspections, floor meetings and quiet hours, all the residents learned to live happily ever after, or move out of the dorms.

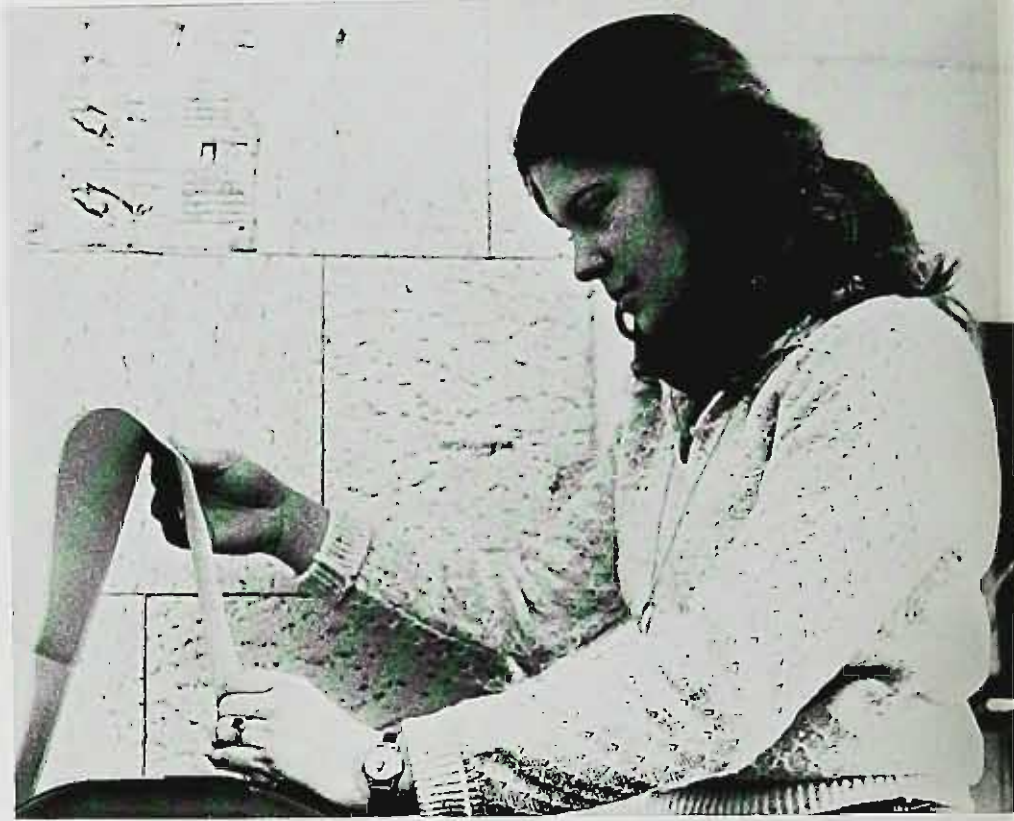

59 AM Is More Than Just

In addition to broadcasting music 365 days a year, WPSC offers such programs as the Campus and Community Journal, Earth News Radio, and live SAPB Concerts. More than just a radio station, WPSC combines entertainment with service to the college and local communities.

In existence since 1966, WPSC has made many improvements in their services. At present, an application has been submitted to the FCC for a new FM radio station permit, and for the past two years it has been broadcasting on UA Columbia Cablevision channel B, which has a potential audience of 200,000. It is obvious to see 59 AM is not just music, it's WPSC.

Pioneer Yearbook

Although conditions were tough, a staff of five or six hard working maniacs managed to compile the 224 pages which compose the 1979 Pioneer Yearbook. This year's Editor-in-Chief was Kathy McCann, Business Editor: Mary Lou Pruss, Literary Editor: Marylou Koontz, and John Crescenzo was Sports Editor. We hope you enjoy the fruit of our labors.

CIAO

Not only does ciao mean good-bye in Italian, but here at WPC it stands for the Cultural Italian American Organization.

Club sponsored activities included a trip to the Feast of San Genaro in Little Italy, fashion show, pastry sale, and the third annual Volare Dance featuring disco as well as Italian cultural music.

In coordination with the Sociology of the Arts Conference, the club showed "The Seduction of Mimi." The group is made up of 40 members and is advised by Dr. Roseann Martorella. The officers are Pres. Bob Gambino; V.P. Frank Caprio; Sec. Roseann Capone; and Tres. Tony DeAngelo.

Nursing Club

The Nursing Club has participated in many activities associated with medicine in the past year. Kim Mullen, president of the club stated that they are yearly participants if the school's Health Fair. They also sponsored a trip to the Staten Island Developmental Center in the Willowbrook Hospital.

Other activities included selling T-shirts, candy, and sponsoring a picnic for the Nursing majors.

Several of the students participated in the N.J. Nursing Students Convention in Mt. Laurel, and four have represented WPC at the National Nursing Students Convention in San Antonio, Texas.

The club officers also include V.P. Barbara Matthews; Recording Sec. Lorraine Smyrle; Corresponding Sec. Debra Schultz; Treas. Colleen McGee and Alita Vorkees; and Bonnie Campbell as S.G.A. rep. Bonnie Campbell.

Jewish Students Association

Dispite the lack of an advisor, the J.S.A. has survived the year. The group is funded by the YMHA (Young Men's Hebrew Association) and the Jewish Federation.

A bagel sale was held, and for Purim the traditional cake called Hamentashen were given to students in recognition of the holiday as well as towards goodwill and friendship in the college.

They had a weekend trip at the Olympic Ranch and Ski Resort in South Fallsburg, N.Y. as well as sponsoring a spring dance.

The club officers are Pres. Andy Perry; V.P. Micky Marcus; Treas. Wendy Silverman; Sec. Jackie Perlmutter.

Irish Cultural Club

The Irish Club at WPC has been affiliated with many student activities held this year. In addition to sponsoring a bus trip to the St. Patrick's Day Parade, they held a concert in the Pub where the Moonshine Mountain Boys and Trinity (two Irish groups) performed.

There also were two guest speakers, Michael Costello of the New Jersey Irish National Caucus, and Sean McManus of the Irish National Caucus in Washington, D.C. who spoke on the heritage of the Irish.

A special article appearing in the Beacon was submitted by the club which included the exposure of the problems in Northern Ireland. They also conducted a study of William Paterson's family history.

The club's president is Jim Healy; V.P. Dave Bruce; Sec. Kathy Healy; Treas. Michael Kochka.

To My Friends,

This book was over a year in the making, and the hours my staff spent in its preparation are countless. It is our hope these tangible pages are worth, to you, all the intangible hours we spent to produce them.

Despite my hourly grievances concerning the minor trials and tribulations of producing this book, it was an experience I would not have wanted to miss. Learning about book production was only a minute portion of the knowledge I gained. The greatest thing learned was just how wonderful the people are at William Paterson College. For their help, I wish to express my deepest felt thanks.

With Love,

Kathy
