Swimming

The William Paterson College men's and women's swim team embarked on what promised to be another year of thrills and exhilaration at Wightman Pool. The lady Pioneers hoped to rebound from a down season of 5-8 a year ago. The potential to make things happen in the 97-98 season was strong as a set of strong swimmers and divers will represent WPC. The Lady Pioneers were lead into action by the sophomore trio of Angela Ahmuty, Julie Carson, Kelly Falkenstein.

The Women's swim team has no seniors on it's roster so it's glory days lay on the horizon.

The senior duo of Bobby Crescetti, and Michael Wohr provided the pioneers with leadership as well as swimming talent. James Crowder and sophomore Dan Kessel contributed to the stellar season in the backstroke, and the freestyle events. Also contributed were freshmen Joe Rainone, and Bruce MacGregor.

Head Coach, Ed Gurka finished his 21st season at the Helm.

Head Coach Jeff Albies

“A Living Legend”

Long time minor league manager Rocky Bridges was credited with the following quotation: “Well, there are three things the average man thinks he can do better than anybody else: build a fire, run a hotel, and manage a baseball team.”

If William Paterson College coach, Jeff Albies can build a fire, or run a hotel as effective as he can manage a baseball team, than the hotel would be as grand as the Plaza in New York City, and the fire would be as large as a fire blaze.

For Albies, one of the top collegiate skippers in the country, is not your “average man” when it comes to coaching a baseball team. Last season his Pioneers captured their second NCAA Division III Title in five years in a thrilling 6-5 win over California Lutheran. Pioneer teams win, whether it be the 1992 and 1996 National Championship seasons or just another 30-win season. Albies, Pioneer coaches and players always get the job done.

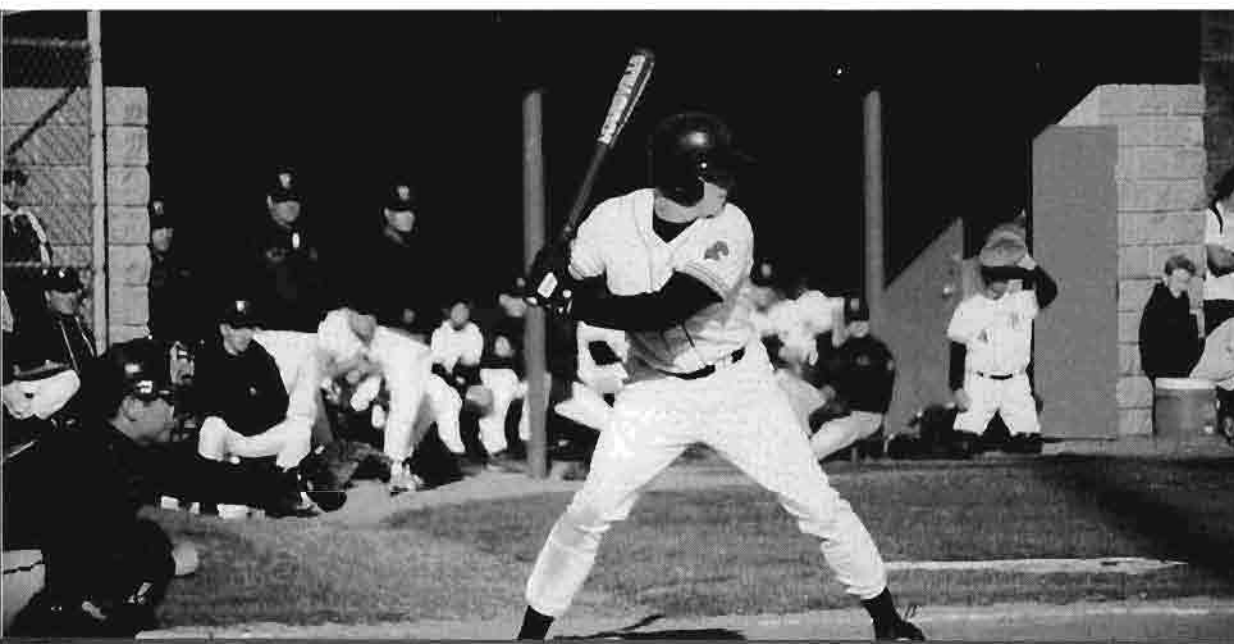

He has won 30 or more games, 10 times captured two National Championships, appeared in six Division III College World Series and has 10 New Jersey Athletic Conference titles under his belt. Albies' 602 career victories rank sixth in the nation among Division III coaches and his .712 winning percentage places him 10th. In 1996 Albies Garnered the National and Mid-Atlantic Region “Coach of the Year” awards. Those career achievements - which few, if any will ever match - have elevated Albies to the status of “Living Legend” on the WPC campus.

Credit for this article goes to Joe Martinelli, Bill Berthold, and Dan Lancia.

All-American, Brian Appelman, led the Pioneer pitching staff in wins and strikeouts, and went a perfect 11-0 for the 1996 season.

MacKinnon, an attorney and a professor at the University of Michigan School of Law. Her expertise includes constitutional law, especially sex equality, political theory and feminism.

"National Election Results: Republican and Democratic Analysis"

November 8, 1996

Marlin Fitzwater and Dee Dee Myers

Just three days after the national election, get the immediate reactions from two intuitive political observers. One, Marlin Fitzwater, spent from 1983 to 1992 as press secretary to Presidents Reagan and Bush. He will share his analysis with Dee Dee Myers, who was President Clinton's former press secretary. Their commentary on an election with far-reaching implications should be perceptive and opportune.

"Contemporary Human Rights Issues"

February 7, 1997

A popular entertainer for more than four decades, Harry Belafonte has been active in the struggle for human rights as well. Mr. Belafonte has garnered awards and honors for his political activism. A friend of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., he is known for his civil rights and philanthropic work. Mr. Belafonte discusses his commitment to human rights and will explore those problem areas which, he feels, need to be brought to the fore.

"Street-Smart Re-Engineering"

March 21, 1997

William J. Bratton

He set a goal the world said was impossible—to reduce crime and improve the quality of life in New York—and he succeeded. Come hear how former New York City Police Commissioner William J. Bratton effected the largest crime rate reduction in the city's history by radically re-engineering the Police Department through skilled application of private-sector, results-oriented management techniques, inspired leadership and motivation. Learn how the rest of America may finally win the war on crime, too.

Steve Forbes

"The American Economy and the New Millennium"

April 25, 1997

Malcolm "Steve" Forbes, Jr.

Former 1996 Republican presidential candidate, multimillionaire and political newcomer, Steve Forbes, created a memorable sensation on the national scene for more than half a year. In politics and out, Mr. Forbes, who as president and chief operating officer of Forbes, Inc., is a publisher/entrepreneur and an industrial magnate, has become a widely respected economic guru. Hear this New Jersey native promote his pro-growth and pro-opportunity ideas that, he claims, will dramatically improve the lives of Americans.

We are a very active group, typically holding 15 - 20 events a year. Every year we run bus trips to New York City, Phila., and the Jersey shore (to take a dolphin-watch cruise). We also have had speakers from the N.J. State Police Forensics Lab, the Audobon Society, the Sierra Natural History, the Raptor Trust, Montana State University, N.J. State Gov. and more. We are always trying something new. We recently received an Alumni Assoc. Grant to purchase a telescope and run a star nights program.
