

GARRET A. HOBART

regarding the article about him in the Sunday
Albany Park Press of June 2, 1996.

Here's more information:

→ The 1972 World Book Encyclopedia has a paragraph about him.

→ The Genealogical Society has references to him -
and/or his relatives -

Thomas Hobart of New Brunswick married Mary R. English of Englishtown 4 Jan 1827

Elizabeth Hobart Bruner (2.21.1865 - 5.23.1869)
her parents - Jacob & Mary Bruner
Elizabeth is buried in Pleasant Grove
Presbyterian churchyard, Morris County.

→ The Genealogical Society of New Mexico has the books of "New Jersey Genesis" - queries & info written by descendants between 1959 - 1971. Copies of the pages can be gotten for 25¢ per page.
The HOBART family - pg. 79, Garrett A. Hobart - pg. 83, and John Sloss Hobart - pg. 10.
New Mexico Gen. Society, PO Box 8283, Albuquerque, NM 87198-8283

→ a stretch of ^{called} Route 24's "HOBART HILL" was located just past Canoe Brook Country Club, heading toward Millburn, from Chatham. I remember there were cobblestones still in the side of the road (in 1950's).
(I was born in 1940.)
& grew up in Chatham