PSC Ties For First Place In Sci. Bowl

Paterson and Jersey City State Colleges tied for first place in a Science Bowl contest among five of the State Colleges held at Newark State in Union, Thursday, April 12. The winning team from Paterson State consisted of three seniors: Henry Edelhauser, Mrs. Rosemarin Lovell, and Peter Chabora. All senior science majors.

The two winning teams will share the possession of the gold trophy bowl. It will reside six months at each of the colleges, with Paterson's turn coming first.

The contest was sponsored by the student section of the New Jersey Science Teachers Association. The moderator was Mr. Malcolm Sturchio, member of the science faculty on the Madison campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Each panel was asked three questions in each of five areas of science: physics, biology, chemistry, earth science and general science. The total possible score was 100 points. A three-way tie resulted with Jersey City, Paterson and Montclair breaking even. This was played off, with the Paterson and Jersey City tying again. Since the moderator did not have enough prepared questions, he decided to declare a stand-off. Each winning panelist will receive a gold medal all others will receive bronze medals.

Kappa Delta Pi Taps Fifty-Nine

Kappa Delta Pi, an honor society in education, tapped fifty-nine students, April 17, at Paterson State College in the Memorial Gymnasium. Dr. Marion E. Shea, president of the college, welcomed the new members and spoke about the "Improvability of Man."

The following senior students were chosen for membership during the Tapping Assembly: Nora Ackerman, Waldwick; Ethel Alderstein, Fair Lawn; Rae Brainard, E. Paterson; Elaine Brodtkin, Paramus; Marian Carp, Maywood; Anita DeOld, Prospect Park; Diane Davis, Fair Lawn; Philomae Daloisio, Paterson; Edna Deutsch, West Englewood; Elizabeth Ellis, Leonia; Mary Inhat, Kearney; Francine Jacobs, Paterson; Louis Gillespie, Caldwell; Barbara Kalata, Lincoln Park; Diane Karp, Palisades Park; Carole Kelley, West Paterson; Anita Kerr, Paterson; Edith Kielch, Ramsey; Joseph Laferrara, Irvington; Marilyn Lefkowitz, Fair Lawn; Beverly Lorence, East Paterson; Richard Mola, Lodi; Karen Nanfelt, East Paterson; Ruth Nehring, Clifton; John Nelson, Wyckoff; Adele Osgood, Butler; Marian Oswalt, N. Haledon; Mary Rahilly, Paterson; Irma Rosenzweig, Fair Lawn; Gail Rettburg, Wayne; Miriam Ring, Bergenfield; Ann Sahid, Paterson; Judith Schneider, Paterson; Raymond Swan, Clifton; David Tilton, Oakland; Joan Treta, Paterson; Nancy Wagner, Carlstadt; Helen Waywell, Pompton Lakes; Frieda Wettach, Fair Lawn; Elizabeth Valentine, Ramsey; Geraldine Ververs, Saddle Brook; MeeLon Yee, Ramsey; and Elsie Mae Yoder, Paterson.

Juniors who were tapped were Martin Alboum, Clifton; Barbara Bosland, Midland Park; Marie Entwistle, Danville; Camille Hannan, Teaneck; Doris Hischon, Fair Lawn; Marcia Iozia, Hackensack; Dorothea Malcome, Allendale; Antoinette Marangella, Paramus; Gail Neary, East Paterson; Judith Openhym, Passaic; Paulette Singelakis, Wayne; Carol Sisco, Fair Lawn; Clazina Vander Valk, Clifton; Trudy Weiner, Fair Lawn; and Rita Williams, Fair Lawn.

Students are chosen for membership on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, and service. They must also exemplify the ideals of Kappa Delta Pi, which include science, fidelity to humanity, service, and toil. The Greek symbol represents the goals of knowledge, duty, and power.

Paperback Festival Drawing To Be Held Monday

Three lucky Paterson State students will be the recipients of ten dollars worth of free books each at a drawing to be held Monday noon, April 30 in the College Bookstore. Any student who purchases a paperback between now and Monday noon, and writes his name on the entry blank is eligible.

This drawing will be the culmination of the two week "Paperback Festival" during which time students are encouraged to browse around the bookstore and to write suggestions for new books on a pad available there.

More than 800 titles were introduced to the students and many more titles have been ordered by Mr. Robert Cleary, bookstore manager.

Annual Spring Music Concert Tomorrow

The A Capella Choir, Chansonettes, Women's Choral and Wind Ensembles will perform in the annual spring concert this Saturday evening, April 28, in the Memorial Gymnasium, at 8:30 p.m. Admission to the concert is free. The Women's Choral Ensemble, under the direction of Miss Alpha B. Caliandro, will begin the evening's entertainment with a rendition of the Alma Mater by Karp and Weidner, during which time the audience is invited to participate. The opening selection will be Cruger and Muller's Now Think We All Our God, followed by The Beatitudes taken from the Bible (Matthew 5:3-12) by Glarm. The next three selections will be a series of poems by Emily Dickinson — I Never Saw a Moon, Will There Ever Be a Morning, and I Lost the World the Other Day — set to music and arranged by Boberg. The concluding selection will be Welcome, Sweet Pleasure by Weelkes, (arrangement Harris), Malaguena by Lecuona (arrangement Warnicke and Thompson), and James' Envoy. Rosalie Cammarata is accompanist for the group.

The Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Martin Krivin, will present Handel's Baroque Suite. The following pieces are the Fandango Castellano and Rossinyol Nightengale, two numbers by Tor-

PSC Carnival Slated May 4-5

"Plans for Paterson State's 1962 Carnival — 'American Travelogue' — are nearing completion" announced George Berisso, carnival general chairman. The annual two-day event will take place on May 4 and 5 and will be located in and around the Memorial Gym.

Miss Mary Jane Cheesman, faculty advisor to the Carnival, has announced that "... if groups of interested people evidence a tremendous interest in a food or skill booth, their applications, though late, may be considered." Persons wishing to work on booths may sign up in her office. There is an urgent need for people to work on booth construction. The gym will be open a week ahead of schedule to facilitate construction activities from 4 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Miss Cheesman has extended an invitation to both friends and relatives of PSC students to attend the Carnival. "The Carnival is a money-making activity which benefits the students; therefore, if each student spends a minimum of $1. we will be assured of at least $1700." Last year's proceeds exceeded $4,000, which went into the construction of the College Center and College Bookstore.

Four shows have been scheduled to date for the Carnival. Beginning Friday evening, the Modern Dance Club will present a group of dances in two shows showing the general theme of this year's Carnival. The Frank Merriwell Girls will offer a skit centering on a group of college girls taking a pleasure cruise during spring vacation. Two variety shows of undetermined nature have been scheduled by S&P and POP.

Among the many skill booths will be DOE's famous pool and slide, the SEA's horse lassoing contest — Texas style, the Booster Club's balloon-shaving contest, and the Cheerleaders' ball throw. The Senior Class will present a Chinese Chopstick game; the Junior Class will have a Baseball Throw; the Sophomore Class will have a Basketball Skill game; and the Freshmen will present a Trip to Niagara Falls, which is, in reality, a water balloon throw. ACE has scheduled a skill game of hitting cans with tennis balls, set at Fort Lauderdale; the Citizenship Club's game is one of fishing for numbered blocks; the WRA's game is entitled "Cross Country by Arrow; and an interested group of people are presenting something entitled "The Cool Tropics."

There will be two food booths at the Carnival this year. The BEACON booth will feature grilled hot dogs and soft drinks; the Frosh will have another food booth.

AAUW Meeting Held At PSC

The American Association of University Women held their annual meeting and arts festival program at Paterson State College on Saturday, April 14. The program began at 9:30 A.M. with a coffee hour for the members, staff and student assistants. The rest of the day's program was devoted to the Annual AAUW Meeting, viewing the exhibits and the demonstrations. Silk screen printing and jewelry making were demonstrated by members of the PSC art department. In the afternoon Dr. Eugenia Cole, Chairman of the National Arts Committee for the AAUW, spoke on the subject "The Arts in AAUW."

Dr. Cole stressed the fact that the word "creativity" has always been associated mostly with the fine arts, rather than with life in general. Currently, the trend is to use it in relation to all areas of life. She pointed out that one of the best definitions of the word, "the ability to see or to be aware,"

Tickets For Brothers Four Now On Sale

Tickets for the performance of the Brothers Four, to be held on campus Tuesday evening, May 16, have been on sale since April 9 in the College Center. The cost of the tickets is $.50 with presentation of Student I.D. card. Students are entitled to purchase one ticket at this special price, but guest tickets are also available at $1.50 each. Only one guest and student ticket may be purchased at this time. After May 1 any number of guest tickets may be obtained.

While they remain available, tickets will be on sale between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. in the front of the College Center.

The performance of the Brothers Four is scheduled as a special evening program, and is being sponsored and financed by the SGA.

William Wood Named Pres. Of KDP

President of Zeta Alpha Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, Edward Likman of Wayne announced that the office of President will be occupied by William Wood of Newfoundland for the coming academic year. Mr. Likman also announced that George Cronk of Paterson will act as vice-president; Christine Ciardana of Lodi, secretary; Gerald Lash of Denville, treasurer; and Pauline Flynn of Montclair, historian.

The new officers were announced at the Tapping Assembly held on campus April 17.

Runk Named Food Service Manager

Mr. William Runk became the new Food Service Manager at Paterson State College, Monday, April 16. Mr. Runk replaced Mr. Ray Powers who has been temporarily transferred to Upsala College.

Before joining Saga, Mr. Runk represented Mathias Food Service Company, Baltimore, Maryland at Goucher College, Towson, Maryland. At Goucher he was district manager in charge of sixteen units, or food areas.

Mr. Runk is temporarily living in Haledon. His family, now living in Elmira, New York, will join him in June.

Voting For SGA

representatives, according to a bulletin issued this week, will take place on Wednesday, May 2, in the gym lobby. SGA, of course, is hoping for a better turnout than it had for the recent officer elections — 33% of the student body voted — but expects a poorer one. With little in the way of prestige or real responsibility in store for the winners, (providing there are enough candidates to have a few losers) it will probably shape-up into a dull election at best.

The bulletin outlining candidacy procedure and voting rules made its appearance on Wednesday and stipulated that Thursday was the deadline for petitions. Another example of poor planning to say the least.

We realize that these are difficult times — term papers due, summer jobs to be hunted, carnival plans to be made, but the baseball team does its job and continues to play its games, the BEACON continues to publish, the fencers fence, why on earth can't SGA carry out its responsibilities with greater efficiency? Is there no answer?

The Spinner From

by

Angela Avitabile and Ellie Zimel

The winner of ten Academy Awards including best movie of the year, West Side Story is nothing short of a cinema masterpiece. Anxiously-waiting North Jersey residents can now see this spectacular film at the Bellvue Theater in Montclair.

The quality of the film has been produced through a synthesis of the work of some of the country's theatrical masters. Combining their efforts again, Stephen Sondheim, Leonard Bernstein, and Jerome Robbins have faithfully adapted the tragic story, versatile music, and brilliant choreography and direction of the Broadway play into another medium.

An important part of this other medium is photography, and the superior work done in this area has contributed greatly to the intrinsic power of the book. From the first image, an abstraction of the New York City skyline, to the last, credits scratched on the playground wall, the audience witnesses effects which are more than technical victories; they are sensitive artistic interpretations of mood and tone.

Adding to the visual experience is the high quality of costume design. The dress of the characters is both colorful and meaningful.

The characters, too, are meaningful in that they represent an age-old conflict between love and hate. The modern Romeo and Juliet plot is acted out by Richard Beymer and Natalie Wood who surprised the Spinners by turning out the best performance of her career. They are ably supported by George Chakris and Rita Moreno who won Oscars for their outstanding interpretations.

Leonard Bernstein's score needs little comment since everyone is familiar with the dramatic quality of the music. Let us say only that the orchestration for the movie has been improved, if this is at all possible.

The sensitive performance of the actors, the brilliant photography, the Academy Award winning costumes, and the realistic message for our time unfold as an artistic experience in which an audience participates as individuals.

ACE Sponsors Easter Party

Five members of the ACE sponsored an Easter party for fourteen children from the Soho Children's Shelter, Belleville, on April 14. The Paterson State girls were Kathleen Biglasci, chairman of the committee, Suzanne Weill, Lois Weber, Clazina Vander Valk and Betsy Runfeldt.

The ACE members played games, told stories, distributed refreshments and gave Easter baskets to the children who ranged in age from four to nine years old. The baskets were made by Miss Vivian Denny's Early Childhood Education classes.

Who? What? Where?

Here's a game to test the student's knowledge of literature, history, mythology, geography, etc. We dare you to complete it!

Column A, below, lists names of people, places, and things (both real and fictional) that students may have come across at one time or another. In Column B there is a word or phrase that is related in some manner to each name in Column A.

The object of the game, of course, is to match the items in Column B with the names in Column A.

More Summer Camp Jobs Available In '63

Many desirable jobs as camp counselors will be available to college students next summer, the New Jersey State Employment Service has announced.

The jobs usually last eight weeks. Salaries for college students without prior experience run from $200 to $600 for the season, plus maintenance. Experienced camp directors receive as high as $800 for the summer.

The jobs are in summer resort areas in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and the New England States.

Interested students should write to the Camp Unit, Professional and Commercial Office, 601 Broad Street, Newark 2, New Jersey, for applications and further details. These jobs are filled in the spring, so prompt action is necessary.

Inexperienced students may be accepted as junior and general counselors. Openings are also available for swimming instructors, cabin counselors, dramatic supervisors, dance instructors, photographers, specialists in arts, crafts, music, waterfront and riflery activities, camp directors and registered nurses.

Mrs. Frank J. Boyle, State Arts Chairman, presented awards for winning paintings to Mrs. James P. Elliott, Jr. (Flemington), Mrs. G. M. Neumunz (Oradell), Mrs. Richard H. Smith and Mrs. Rose-lind Jannuzi Jones.

College Bookstore Becomes Lost And Found Dept.

Finders of various and sundry articles will receive efficient cooperation in the College Bookstore where Mr. Robert Cleary is the new manager. He will accept books, scarves, pens, belts, gloves, any article of clothing, handbags, anything you take to him. He will give you a form to fill out and if the article is not claimed within a three month period, you may call for it and verify the old adage that some "finders are keepers."

Already Mr. Cleary has on hand five high school rings, prescription glasses, car keys, tonnettes, bracelets, gloves, locks, text books, an art frame, and a man's grey winter car coat. Many of these articles have great value as well as high utility.

Mr. Cleary says that often a student will ask whether something has been turned in within an hour of the time that the article has been lost. Many of these articles, during the course of a few days, find their way to the Bookstore, but there is no follow-up call. Students and faculty are asked to make sure that none of these articles belong to them before the disposal is made.

All campus personnel are urged to make use of this facility whenever the need arises.

E. Ziegfeld To Be Guest Speaker May 10

Professor Edwin Ziegfeld, chairman of the department of Fine and Industrial Arts at Columbia University's Teachers College will speak before a group of interested students and faculty members in W-101 on May 10 at Paterson State College. The program is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Professor Ziegfeld is a world figure in art education having served as founding president of the International Society for Education Through Art, President of the National Art Education Association, delegate to UNESCO seminar on the Teaching of Visual Arts in General Education, Bristol, England, and in other professional organizational capacities.

Baby-Sitters A Problem Of 'Blithe Spirit' Director

by Lois Marshall

Baby sitters' fees in the Dr. Jay Ludwig household are running rather high these days. The reason? Not only is Dr. Ludwig directing the Pioneer Players production of "Blithe Spirit", but Mrs. Ludwig is directing and acting in the Pompton Valley Little Theatre production of "Overtones" by Alice Gerstenberg. To complicate matters, neither will be able to see the other's efforts for both productions are scheduled for the same dates.

Dr. Ludwig joined the Paterson State College Speech Department staff in September of last year, coming here from Russell Sage College, in Troy, New York. Mrs. Ludwig, who assisted in making the costumes for "The Wizard of Oz", and "The Lute Song" produced this year on our campus, is a former actress. She was active with the Memphis Little Theatre and Memphis College Theatre. Dr. Ludwig received his doctorate and Mrs. Ludwig her master's degree in Speech Arts at the University of Illinois.

Just after their marriage, Dr. and Mrs. Ludwig acted in "Quadrello" as a husband and wife team, at the University of Illinois. The Ludwig's children, Edwin, aged three and a half, and Erika, nine months, curtailed Mrs. Ludwig's work for a short time, but she still remains active with the Pompton Valley Little Theatre and just completed directing a Little Theatre Workshop for this group.

Dr. Ludwig has other acting credits to his own account. His high moment occurred in 1955, when he was playing the trombone in the United States Army Band at Fort Hood, Texas, and took part in a production of the Special Services Organization. He was cast in a play with Rip Torn, who is known for his role in "Sweet Bird of Youth". During this time Dr. Ludwig also acted in several television plays put on by the Special Services Organization in the Texas area.

Dr. Ludwig is a native of Bergen County. He graduated from Bogota High School and went on to study at Montclair State College. He completed his master's degree requirements and taught at Bowling Green University in Ohio.

He has published an article in the "Quarterly Journal of Speech" (See Blithe Spirit, Page 4)

Senior-Faculty Dinner Slated For June 4

Co-Chairmen, Helen Ladika Litchult and Len Lakson, of the Social Committee have made arrangements for the annual Senior-Faculty Dinner to be held June 4 at 6:30 p.m. at the Mayfair Farms in West Orange, N. J. Invitations with a response card will be mailed to all seniors and faculty the last week of April. Responses must be returned immediately.

The large number of seniors in the class plus the increased number on the faculty excludes either group from bringing spouses. The total number of diners that can be accommodated is 425. Past attendance warrants approximately a 90 per cent of that total.

The Mayfair Farms, delightfully situated in a landscaped setting with a beautiful view all around, is a most charming spot to reminisce about the past four years and plan for the future. Miss Helen Hill, principal of Teaneck High School and a former alumnus, will do both in her talk to the audience. The Social Committee is anticipating this event with great expectations.

Practical Joke Paved Way For Bros. Four

A medical student, a hopeful TV director, a would-be electrical engineer and a prospective diplomat became college fraternity brothers not long ago at the University of Washington in Seattle. On May 16, the Brothers Four, the singing group that evolved from a banjo, five guitars, a bass fiddle and an interest in singing, will perform at Paterson State College at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Gymnasium.

The Brothers Four came into being in 1958 at the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity House, at the University of Washington. The boys, Mike Kirkland, John Paine, Dick Foley and Bob Flick studied together (occasionally) and harmonized so well that they grew into a closely knit quartet, much in demand at college parties.

One day a pert, young practical joker phoned them, disguised her voice and posed as the secretary of the Colony Club in Seattle. She asked the boys if they would like to audition the next day. They liked it fine. When they called at the club the following day they were told it was a hoax. The manager had no secretary. However, he liked their looks and suggested they audition anyway.

They did. They were hired. And they launched a run at the club that lasted 28 week-ends. That convinced them that show business was for them. A short six months later they recorded a song called "Greenfields" which turned out to be the number one disc in the country.

None has had a formal musical education. None of them read music. All help in rewriting lyrics to the melodies of the folk music that plays the major part in their act.

In the past year they have touched every state in the union and have performed at most of the major colleges and universities in the United States and Canada.

The boys arrange their own material. They record exclusively for Columbia Records and do radio and TV commercials for the Coca-Cola Company, with whom they have a long-term contract.

They have been guest stars on the nation's top TV shows, including the Ed Sullivan Show, the Bell Telephone Hour, Mitch Miller's Sing-a-Long, the Academy Award Show, the Chevy Show, Kate Smith, American Bandstand, and "Music 60", the top Canadian TV hour.

Recent campus appearances include Ohio State University, Boston University, Cornell University, Villanova, Dartmouth, and nearly 100 others.

Library Week Celebrated With Speech By Author

Joseph W. Hannan, teacher at Anthony Wayne Junior High School in Wayne, and author of the recently published book, NEVER TEASE A DINOSAUR, was the guest speaker at Paterson State College, on Thursday, April 12, at 4:30 P.M. at a program sponsored by the college library in observance of National Library Week. Mr. Hannan addressed his audience in Room 101 of the Hunziker Wing.

NEVER TEASE A DINOSAUR is a humorous account of Mr. Hannan's teaching experiences in an elementary school where he was the only male teacher. In this narrative of everyday occurrences in a classroom, Mr. Hannan has been said to be an Irish Sam Levenson.

A resident of Pompton Lakes, and the father of four children, he sees the classroom through the eyes of both a teacher and a parent, just as he sees homework assignments both from the angle of the teacher who gives them and the father who hears about them.

The November 1961 issue of Mc Call's magazine ran another account of Mr. Hannan's teaching experiences under the title, IN A CLASS BY MYSELF. The NJA REVIEW has also published several of his anecdotal essays on the trials and tribulations and also the joys of teaching.

Mr. Hannan is a graduate of Rutgers University, and has taken education courses at Paterson State College.

CRAM COURSE NO. 4: BATHYMETRY

Continuing our series of pre-final exam cram courses, today we take up bathymetry—the study of ocean depths.

Admittedly, this is not a terribly popular course on most campuses. And small wonder. In the whole world there is only one bathyscape, and only two people can get into it.

Nevertheless, the study of ocean depths is of great importance. Why, do you realize that the ocean is by far the world's largest biological environment? The ocean has more than three hundred times as much living room as all the continents and islands combined! Unfortunately, only fishes live in it.

And small wonder. Who'd want to live some place where he couldn't smoke? Surely not I! I wouldn't give up my good Marlboro Cigarettes for the Atlantic and the Pacific put together. Nothing could induce me to forego Marlboro's fine mellow flavor, Marlboro's clean white filter, Marlboro's flip-top box that really flips, Marlboro's soft pack that's really soft. Let others repair to the spacious deeps. Me, I will stick with my Marlboros and the tiny garret I share with a tympanist.

But I digress. Back to the oceans. The largest, as we know, is the Pacific, which was discovered by Balboa, a Spaniard of great vision. To give you an idea of Balboa's vision, he first saw the Pacific while standing on a peak in Darien, which is in Connecticut.

Even more astounding, when Balboa reached San Francisco, he clearly saw the Hawaiian Islands! Being, as we know, a friendly cuss, Balboa waved merrily to the Hawaiians and shouted, "Great little ocean you got here, kids!" The Hawaiians, also, as we know, friendly cusses, waved back, declared a half holiday, organized a luau, built a cheery fire over which they prepared several gallons of poi, a suckling pig, and Captain Cook. This, of course, was the origin of Cooking.

Who'd want to live there?

But I digress. The Pacific, I say, is the largest ocean and also the deepest. The Mindanao Trench, off the Philippines, measures more than 5,000 fathoms in depth. (It should be pointed out here that ocean depths are measured in fathoms—lengths of six feet—after Sir Walter Fathom, a noted British sea measurer of the seventeenth century who, upon his twenty-first birthday, was given a string six feet long with which he used to go scampering all over England measuring sea water until he was arrested for loitering. A passion for measuring seems to have run in the family; Fathom's cousin, Sir Sol Furlong, spent all his waking hours measuring race tracks until Charles II had him beheaded in honor of the opening of the London School of Economics.)

But I digress. Let us, as the poet Masfield said, go down to the seas again. (The seas, incidentally, have ever been a favorite subject for poets and composers.) Who does not remember Tennyson's "Break, break, break"? Or Byron's "Roll on, thou dark and deep blue ocean, roll"? Or the many hearty sea chanties that have enriched our folk music—songs like "Sailing Through Kansas" and "I'll Swab Your Deck If You'll Swab Mine" and "The Artificial Respiration Polka." My own favorite sea chanty goes like this:

*A girl loved a sailor and he did jilt her,
And she did weep and roar-ho!
Until she found a perfect filter,
And a perfect smoke—Marlboro!
Sing hey, sing ho, sing ring-a-ding-ding,
Sing tars and spars and patches,
Sing pack and box and lots to like,
And don't forget the matches!*

based on his doctoral thesis. The article tells about a leading Chicago theatre manager of the nineteenth century and is called "James H. McVicker and His Theatre". McVicker's theatre, now a movie house, was located on its original site for over one hundred years.

While teaching courses in speech and the theatre at Russell Sage,

Dr. Ludwig also directed several plays. Noteworthy among these were a theatre-in-the-round production of various scenes from Shakespearean plays, and an impressionistic production of Goria Lorea's "Blood Wedding". He has also directed such plays as "Picnic", "Night Must Fall", and "The Importance of Being Ernest".

The Pioneer Players production of "Blithe Spirit" is scheduled for May 10, 11, 12 in the Little Theatre.

Newark Edges Pioneers 5-3

The Pioneer baseball team, after knocking off Trenton State by a 7-5 score earlier in the week, came back four days later to be defeated 5-3 at the hands of a scrappy Newark State team. Bill Born's third inning triple and Lou Carcich's run producing single, gave the Pioneers a 2-0 cushion which held until the fifth inning.

Up until that time, pitcher Bill Born held the Newark batters at bay while the Paterson defense offered him worthy support. However, disappointment struck in the top of the fifth when the Newarkers pushed across two runs, largely due to a miscue in the outfield and a scratch single.

In the following inning, Newark State began to solve the deliveries of Bill Born and gathered three more runs, before a pick-off play to Richie Garafola at second base ended the inning. The Pioneers ended their scoring when Tony Caletta drove a 350 foot solo homer into the right centerfield woods. Again the Pioneers were given a strong pitching performance, this time from Bill Born, but were unable to capitalize on it, as costly miscues again took their toll.

English Club To Nominate Officers May 3

The English club will hold a very important meeting on Thursday, May 3 in Room 206 of Hunkiker Hall. Nominations for next year's executive staff will be held along with a discussion of future activities. Also at this time films will be selected for showing during the next semester.

All members are requested to participate.

Pioneers Top Trenton 7-5 In '62 Conference Opener

The Paterson State baseball team, behind the strong pitching of Dennis DeLorenzo, made its initial bid for the N.J.S.C.A. Conference title by defeating Trenton State last week by a score of 7 to 5. The action took place at the losers field.

Particularly impressive was the batting ability displayed by the Pioneers. The big men for Paterson were Mike George, and Tony Coletta, each of whom proved himself capable by hitting the long ball and collecting a home run apiece.

More excitement was provided in the ninth inning when Jim Heffernan singled with the bases loaded, scoring two runs, and starting a four-run rally. Also of particular interest were the three consecutive hits banded out by outfielder Bill Born, and the sparkling fielding displayed by shortstop "Creep" Garafalo.

Dennis DeLorenzo, Paterson pitcher, ran his streak of consecutive scoreless innings to 23 before he gave up two runs in the eighth inning of the game. Trenton State, defending conference champions, scored three more times in the ninth, but DeLorenzo who had been working behind a comfortable five-run lead, bore down and was credited with the win.

roba, arranged by Dr. Krivin, will feature Mrs. M. Krivin, soloist. The final selection will be Respighi's Somber Mists.

The Chansonettes, under the direction of Dr. J. Clees McKray, will present a variety of selections including Handel's Where Ere You Walk, Morely's Now is the Month of Maying, Good Night by Brahms and Eternal Life by Dungan, Summertime by Gershwin, Hawthorne's Listen to the Mockingbird, and selections from Camelot by Lowe.

Rounding out the evening's activities will be the A Capella Choir, directed by Mrs. Elizabeth W. Stine. Their offerings will include Cains O Sing Your Songs, Brahms' Serenade, Balakireff's Rejoice My Soul and Turtle Dove, a folksong arranged by R. V. Williams, featuring Dave McLean, baritone. Directed and arranged by Eugene Ricci, Michael will be followed by New Born Again and The Calypso Song by Gardner. Selections from Rogers and Hammerstein's The Sound of Music will conclude the Choir's presentation. The accompanist is Joan Neumann.

The two days of competition culminated with a banquet and dance at which the trophies and medals were awarded to the victorious fencers.

Maturity on the Diamond

This year's Paterson State baseball team seems to have undergone a maturing process over the winter, as new faces help bolster the Pioneer attack in what is hoped to be a winning season.

Evidence of this change is the pitching efforts of Dennis DeLorenzo, who has been toting the burden of the pitching staff over the first two weeks of the season. Control has been Dennis' strong point, and perhaps the weakpoint, of the other pitchers. Aside from Dennis, Bill Born is the only other pitcher of record on the Pioneer Staff. Frank McCarthy and Ross Alferi are still awaiting their first starting roles of the spring, which may come soon, because of the heavy May schedule.

Highlighting the new faces and pacing the offense are Mike George and Tony Caletta, a pair of sophomores who hold down the second base and centerfield jobs, respectively. Both boys drove home runs over the left field wall in the Pioneer's initial conference over Trenton State, and Tony Caletta countered with an equally impressive blast into the right field woods against Newark State.

But the spark plug on the squad and perhaps its' most valuable player, is co-captain Richie Garafola. When the senior shortstop is not in the line-up due to an injured left wrist, as was the case in the Newark State contest, the Paterson State defense suffers. However, when Frank Apito is given the chance to tuck some experience under his belt, he may well prove to be a valuable defensive asset, to what is now one of the strongest infields in the conference.

Congratulations — New York Mets!

"If we win 99 more, we'll take the pennant."

I wish the Mets all the luck in the world and would like nothing more than to see them finish 2nd in the National League — behind the Giants, of course.
