Students Participate In Governance Seminar

About 80 Paterson State College students, faculty, trustees, and administrators took part in a unique two-day seminar on academic governance this weekend at the Sheraton Motor Inn, Pequannock.

The purpose of this seminar was, in John Fulton's words, "to call together leading representatives from the four major constituencies of the college community to discuss what is clearly the most significant issue of higher education in the nation, the state and at Paterson State — academic governance."

The discussions at the seminar were based on 10 position papers presented. Discussions were aimed at defining policies and goals, clarifying shared authorities and accountability promoting understanding of governance and contributing and to the continuing growth of the college, Fulton added that the seminar also was developed in response to the concern expressed during the evaluation by the Middle States.

The following position papers were presented: Robert Kroeckel, director of institutional planning, "Realistic Institutional Goals"; Vice President Norman Thomas, "Quality Control and Channels of Communication" Dean J. Leeds Barroll, "The Academic Administration Function"; Dr. Bernard Levine, chairman of the Faculty Status Committee, "Faculty Function" Dr. M. ## April Moratorium Activities Coming

The Vietnam Moratorium Committee has announced endorsements of a Peace Fast on April 13-15 which will be largely focused on college and university campuses. The endorsements include more than 212 student body presidents and campus newspaper editors along with prominent Americans, such as Julian Bond, Ramsey Clark, Jane Fonda, Rabbi Abraham J. Heschel, Senator Harold Hughes, Mayor John Lindsay, and Senator Eugene McCarthy.

David Hawk, a co-coordinator of the Vietnam Moratorium Committee, explained the purpose of the Fast: "We will fast for peace during April 13-15 for two reasons. The first is to demonstrate our moral opposition to the continuing and expanding war. The second reason is directly related to the April 15th Tax Payer Rallies. Because the government spends $201 million a day on war and the weapons of war, we are asking people not to eat for three days and to send the money saved while not eating to aid the victims of the war.

Proceeds from the Peace Fast Fund will go to the American Friends Service Committee Vietnam Relief Program, the National Welfare Rights Organization, and the United Farm Workers of America. The Fast represents our commitment to improve the quality of our common life and to alleviate human suffering." Mr. Hawk indicated that the Fast will focus on campuses and among groups of religious people. He explained that many students were making arrangements with university food services to turn over money saved by not eating to the Moratorium for distribution to the Vietnam relief agency and poverty groups. He also mentioned that fasting students in some placed intended to come to dining halls at meal times to dramatize the Fast.

The Moratorium is also organizing the Tax Payer Rallies on April 15 in more than 30 cities across the nation. Sam Brown, a co-coordinator of the committee discussed the Committee's plans: "On April 15th across the

NJEA Supports Right To Strike

TRENTON — The Working Conditions Committee of the New Jersey Education Assn. is urging passage of a State Assembly bill that would give teachers the right to strike. Doing so, said the 65,000-member teacher organization, would be "an act of justice" that might reduce the number of school strikes in the state.

"At present, school boards can refuse to negotiate in good faith, can renege on promises, and can even taunt teachers into work stoppage," said committee chairman Robert L. Sharp of Bridgeton High School. "Even when a school board deliberately provokes a strike, the courts turn only on the teachers and punish them with fines and/or imprisonment."

The bill, A-810, would give "the right of collective bargaining and the right to joint or concerted economic action in support thereof" to all public employees except those working for the State Government.

"This would be an act of simple justice," Sharp said.

"Moreover, if teachers possessed this right, school boards would lose their one-sided legal club and would be forced to face their obligation to negotiate with employees in good faith."

Penalizing striking individuals and organizations has not prevented strikes by public employees, Sharp noted. Under the status quo, employing boards can ignore legitimate proposals of public employees. Some even turn their backs on mediators provided by the State and reject settlements recommended by State fact-finders.

Sharp accused school boards of putting too much reliance on their power to obtain injunctions. Some pay no attention to the frustrations building up among teachers, he said, but dare teachers to try concerted action, believing that the courts will have to take the school board's side and throw the teachers in jail.

The committee took its action by endorsing a policy of the National Education Assn. recognizing that "teachers may have no choice but to resort to a withdrawal of services" in crisis situations, and urging "repeal of state laws that prohibit withdrawal of services."

The NJEA committee further voted to "endorse efforts by New Jersey legislators to strengthen collective negotiations by making teacher withdrawal of services legal."

Included on the committee are a school social worker, a college dean, a teacher at a state institution, and both elementary and secondary classroom teachers. The committee's vote was unanimous.

The legislation is sponsored by Assemblyman Peter P. Garibaldi of Jamesburg, Frank R. Conwell of Jersey City, Herbert J. Heilmann of Union, Charles J. Irwin of Westfield, Herbert H. Kiehn of Rahway, Christopher J. Jackman of West New York, and Donald Macrae of Laurence Harbor.

A good cry cleanses the soul

After all is shed and done, your soul may be saved... but your contacts need help. They need Lenseine. Lenseine is the one contact lens solution for complete contact care... preparing, cleansing, and soaking.

There was a time when you needed two or more different lens solutions to properly prepare and maintain your contacts. No more. Lenseine, from The Murine Company, makes caring for contact lenses as convenient as wearing them.

Just a drop or two of Lenseine coats and lubricates your lens. This allows the lens to float more freely in the eye, reducing tearful irritation. Why? Because Lenseine is a compatible, "isotonic" solution, very much like your eye's natural fluids.

Cleaning your contacts with Lenseine retards the build-up of foreign deposits on the lenses. And soaking your contacts in Lenseine between wearing periods assures you of proper lens hygiene. You get a free soaking-storage case with individual lens compartments on the bottom of every bottle of Lenseine.

It has been demonstrated the improper storage between wearings permits the growth of bacteria on the lenses. This is a sure cause of eye irritation and in some cases can endanger your vision. Bacteria cannot grow in Lenseine because it's sterile, self-sanitizing, and antiseptic.

Lenseine... the solution for complete contact lens care. Made by the Murine Company, Inc.

Oh! But That's Another Story

I am one of the fellows who made the world safe for democracy. What a crazy thing that was. I fought, and I fought, and I fought, but I had to go any way. I was called in class "A". The next time I want to be in class "B". Be here when they go and be here when they come back. I remember when I registered, I went up to the deck and the guy in charge was my milkman. He said, "What's your name?" I said, "You know my name." "What's your name he barked, so I told him, August Childs. He said, born and I said Pittsburgh." Then he said, "When did you first see the light of day?" I said, "When we moved to Philadelphia." He asked me how old I was so I told him twenty-three, the first of September. He said, "The first of September you'll be in France and that will be the last of August."

A veterinary started to examine me. He asked me if I ever had measles, smallpox, St. Vitus Dance, and did I ever take fits. I said, "No, only when I stayed in a saloon too long." Then he said, "Can you see alright?" "Sure, but I'll be cockeyed tonight if I pass." Then he listened to my heart and said, "I think you have a wart around your heart." I said, "Wart, - my neck that's my button in your ear." The Doctor said he had examined 140,000 men and that I was the most perfect physical wreck he had ever seen. Then he handed me a class "A" card.

Then I went to camp and I guess they didn't think I'd have long to live. The first fellow I saw, wrote on my card, "Flying Corpse." I went a little further and some guy said "Look what the wind's blowing in." I said, "Wind nothing, the draft's doing it." On the second morning they put these clothes on me. What an outfit. As soon as you're in you think you can lick anybody. They had two sizes, too small and too large. The paints are so tight I can't sit down. The shoes are so big I turned around three times and they didn't move. And what a raincoat they gave me - it strained the rain.

I passed by an officer all dressed up with a fancy belt and all that stuff. He said, calling after me, "Didn't you notice my uniform when you passed?" I said, "What are you kicking about, look at what they gave me."

I landed in camp with $75.00 - in ten minutes I was broke. I never saw so many three's and twelves on a pair of dice. No matter what I did I went broke. Something went wrong even in cards. One time I had five aces - and I was afraid to bet. A good thing I didn't - the fellow next to me had six kings. Finally I said, "This is a crooked poker game." The fellow next to me said, "We're playing pinocle." Everything was crazy. If you were a livery hand you were put in the medical department. If you were a watchman you were made an officer of the day. I saw a guy with a wooden leg and asked him what he was doing in the Army. He said "I'm going to mash potatoes."

Oh, It was nice - 5 below zero one morning they called us out for an underwear inspection. You talk about scenery - red flannels, B.V.D.'s - all kinds. The union suit I had on would fit Tony Galento. The Lt. lined us up and told me to stand up. I said, "I'm up - this underwear makes you think I'm sitting down. He got so made he put me out digging a ditch. A little while later he passed and said, "Don't throw that dirt up here." I said, "Where am I going to put it?" He said, "Dig another hole and put it in there." By that time I was pretty mad, so finally another guy named Jones and myself drank a quart of whiskey. Finally Jones acted so funny I ran to the doctor and told him Jones was going blind. So he asked me what we were doing and I told him we drank a quart of whiskey. So he country, people will once again halt 'business as usual' to speak to their countrymen and to their President. They will talk about Vietnam, about the broadening involvement in Southeast Asia, and about the economic crisis brought about by the spending for the war and the Pentagon." Mr. Brown underscored the primary focus of the activities in a discussion of the strike of postal employees. "While the government finds it possible and necessary to allocate millions each week to Vietnam, it finds itself unable to consider a significant and meaningful pay increase for these and other government employees. The spending for the war in Vietnam intensifies the problem of inflation and consumes billions of dollars that are needed and deserved for domestic purposes," he said.

Mr. Hawk stressed the economic focus of the April 15 rallies. He said, "The current inflationary spiral was set off by the escalation of the war, which caused defense spending to rise from $50 billion in 1965 to $80 billion in 1969. It is this spending that made real wages, in terms of buying power, decrease from 1965 to the present. We hope to begin on April 15th to make clear to the American public that the economic dislocation which punishes nearly everyone will not subside until the war is ended."

Miss Marge Sklencar, a co-coordinator of the Committee, is currently reorganizing the Moratorium's offices in Chicago and planning the activities for that city on April 15. She said, "The response to our plans in the midwest is tremendous. It shows that the middle American or the silent American is sick of high taxes and high prices. He is making connection between those problems and the war."

Mr. David Mixner, the fourth co-coordinator of the Moratorium, scored the Nixon administration, particularly its current Southeast Asia policy. "At the very time polls reveal a decline in support for the President's policies, the war in Southeast Asia is expanding," he

Study Program

Joseph Brandes, professor of history at Paterson State, stated: "A Comparative study approach is intended to emphasize commonly shared cultural sources and problems, as well as divergent solutions, in the One World of the 10th Century."

Formal study will take place at Israeli universities. They will be supplemented by pertinent field trips to Arab villages, kibbutzim, new town communities, rural immigrant settlements, archaeological sites, religious shrines and cultural centers. Participants also will visit Israeli families of various backgrounds, learn folk dances and songs and have an opportunity for independent travel.

Opportunities will be provided for group and individual research in such areas as immigration in the modern growth of America and Israel, majority and minority group relations and Middle East economic, political, educational and religious institutions.

Dr. Brandes was director of one of the first study tours in said. He called Vietnamization "a disguise for expansion of our military involvement into Laos and, perhaps, Cambodia." He also remarked that he found present United States conduct in Laos "frighteningly reminiscent of the beginnings of massive involvement in Vietnam."

A coalition of peace groups in New York City has planned a series of events for the 15th. The day will begin with a "Boston Tea Party" at 9:00 am in Battery Park, where tea bags will be dumped into the river. At 11:30 am there will be demonstrations at all IRS Centers in the five boroughs. Throughout the day student, business and community groups will hold discussions on the economic impact of the war. The day's activities will culminate in a mass rally at 4:00 pm in Bryant Park. Regional Coordinator Richard Sternhill reports that plans are being made for rallies in several other cities across the state, including Syracuse, Rochester, Albany and Potsdam.

He has taught at NYU and served as consulting research associate to the American Jewish History Center and the Jewish Theological Seminary. He has written on economics and history and contributed articles to the new Encyclopedia Judaica.

Participation in the program is limited to undergraduate and graduate students who can meet the requirements of Paterson State College. The fee, which includes round trip jet transportation, lodging, meals, tours and tuition for Paterson State and the Israeli universities, is $995.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

by Phil Frank

Editorial

It is a source of constant amazement to me that the administrators and faculty members have so little regard for student opinion. A prime example is the College Governance weekend. All public statements indicate that students should have a greater say in the affairs of the college. Talk is cheap, it's about time faculty and administrators began to implement their fine oratory.

It was an inexcusable oversight not to invite representatives from any of the student publications. Indeed, the editor of the college newspaper had to ask for an invitation to this conference. How concerned are the creators of this weekend to seek a solution to tolerable college governance when they can be so unconcerned with obtaining the opinion of a valuable segment of campus life. Student publications were not the only organizations to be snubbed however. Class officers were blatantly ignored as were chairman of vital students committees. Even the student director of all of Wayne Hall was considered too unimportant to hear from.

It can only lead us to wonder what type of criteria was used to select student delegates. One can envision a giant dart board listing all the major organizations on campus... well perhaps we are crediting the directors of the conference with too much ingenuity. Organizations who make a lot of noise and aren't even recognized by the Student Government Association were represented, yet bonafide Student Government Activities who work diligently through the system were slapped in the face.

As if to add insult to injury, the following memo came to our attention during the height of our anger; "As many of you know, there have been some discussions and considerations about possibly changing the name of this college to update and reflect, at least indirectly, its new location, wider service area, and expanding and transforming missions. The department of higher education regulations require that either the words "state" or "New Jersey" be included in the name. I should very much appreciate it if you would forward any general or specific suggestions, comments, and reactions relative to a name change for the college to Mr. Smiley, executive assistant to the president."

This memorandum by President Olsen was sent to faculty and staff only. Students have been on this campus longer than some faculty members. They may also have ideas concerning the name of their Alma Mater. Students should have a greater say in the affairs of the college, and NOW is the time to start.

STATE BEACON

MEMBER

Published weekly during the fall and spring terms by the Student Government Association of Paterson State College, 300 Pompton Road, Wayne, N.J., the STATE BEACON, with editorial offices in the College Center campus, is supported through SGA appropriation and advertising. Content of the newspaper represents the judgment of the staff acting in accord with the STATE BEACON Constitution, and does not necessarily represent the judgment or beliefs of the SGA, Paterson State College, or the State of New Jersey. Opinions expressed in signed columns are not necessarily the opinions of the editors.

The insidious people that manage to put the STATE BEACON together include: Mary Ann Ross, who just got a job in the Paterson School System; Joe DiGiacomo, who almost broke his finger playing basketball; Bob Palinkas, who writes horrible news articles and worse feature articles; Bill Roche, whose gerbils are all living happily; Laura Blonkowski, whose position here is completely undefined but absolutely necessary; Dan Lehmann, who mysteriously became Photography Editor; Helena Wisniewski, who appears to be having a good time with Tom Meyer; Marylou Malinowski, who is taking a special math course so that she can juggle our books; Dr. Louis Altschul, who is the best advisor anybody could want; Suzzane Staples, who is in the running for Miss New Jersey; Janice Worell, who is out student teaching; Janice Auth, who does almost all of our marvelous proofreading; Ron Damiano, who couldn't get Dan Lehmann's bike going; Brenda Denig, who (for your information) is campus queen, Cheryl Stephan, who we haven't seen for a while; Jane Bassani, who we also haven't seen; Tom Offt, who oft is on Broadway; and Jerry Wilson and Vickie Britt, who were both very sick last week; and currently featuring the dancing fingers of Gloria Baker.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Carnival

Dear Editor,

In reply to a somewhat caustic remark on April 6 about the selection of the play Carnival, may I remind the playgoing public of PSC that much consideration goes into each production planned. It is not an easy choice to pick a production to please all. It seems that our anonymous inquirer has a definite preference for rock musicals. Of the three mentioned (Hair, Stomp and Salvation) our unnamed critic should please note that none are released for amateur production. If the person whose name was withheld cares to discuss any facet of production, any member of the Pioneer Players will be happy to answer any questions.

In conclusion, I'm sorry that this person was unable to glean any artistic merit from a Drama Critics' Award musical with a simple touching story depicting carnival life and, if anything a pretty score by Bob Merrill.

Coward

Dear Editor:

Evidently your knowledge of theatre is as limited as your courage. One who writes as poorly as yourself should keep his name from being published.

As for your "Candy Covered Slush", evidently one as hard-hearted as yourself couldn't understand as tender a story as Carnival.

For your own sake, I hope that you too will grow up as Lili did. And remember: "love makes the world go round" and if that isn't Aquarian creed nothing is!

Honestly yours,

Snack Bar

Dear Editor:

"Help keep the Snack Bar from looking like a Garbage Dump." It is a disgrace to our school our intelligence and our character. If we want other people to listen to us because we are intelligent, are concerned about our welfare and more than that, the welfare of our fellow humans, we must show we are responsible and concerned. GIVE A DAMN - CLEAN UP THE GHETTO, I MEAN THE SNACK BAR.

Library

Dear Editor:

In answer to Andrea Badami's letter in the April 6 issue of the Beacon, I, too, am very distressed by the quantity of unshelved books in the Library this year, which makes it very difficult and frustrating for students, faculty and librarians to find the books they want when they want them. We have so few student assistants willing to shelve this year that we are indeed in a critical situation. The college administration and the librarians have made continuing attempts to solve the problem. Unfortunately, our mounting circulation and increasing use of the library make our attempts Sisyphean. Don't burn your library cards, come in and shelve a truckload of books!

hours of 11:30 AM to 3:30 PM, April 22, normal attendance regulations and testing be suspended so that students may participate without penalty in the environmental teach-in."

The subjects of Ecology and Environment are currently very popular issued on college campuses throughout the United States, and the Teach-In will be the first attempt by Paterson State to draw attention to this issue on our campus.

In a recent report by the New Jersey Clean Air Council on the Status of Air Pollution Control, the council suggested that "a more concerted effort to involve local government in the State's total air pollution program" was needed. The council also noted that "a stronger communications line between the State and municipalities would enable full employment of the talents and resources available at the local levels for air pollution control and would ensure that programs are coordinated to avoid duplication of effort."

The Paterson State Community will have the opportunity to voice its opinion on the Environmental problem at the Teach-In, April 21 through April 23. The students and faculty who attend will be contributing to the long overdue attention that should be focused on this problem.

The land of "purple mountains majesty" and clean clear water is slowly evolving into America The Ugly.

From the President's Desk

One of the happiest developments I have seen on campus in the 21 months I have been here is the explosive growth of cultural programs on campus that have been made available not only to our own students and faculty but the community at large. A tremendous impetus to this growth was the establishment this year of the Arts Council, which has put together a program of considerable diversity and creativity. One of the highlights of their schedule has just been completed. This was the Week of Dance last week, which provided a mixture of filmed and live programs illustrating the different facets of the art form.

The Arts Council's work has complemented beautifully the already fine efforts of our Departments of Music, Speech, Art and others in developing programs of campus-wide interest. The result of all this work has been a semester in which more than 80 programs are being conducted on campus, all available to the community and nearly all admission free. The great value to our own campus community is obvious. I don't think, however, we should overlook the enhancement of our role in the community resulting from the programs. Located in the midst of the most populous area of the country, it is logical that Paterson State should become a major cultural force in its community.

Looking over this semester's events, some of the highlights have been the Black History Week program organized by the Black Student Union; the Faculty Lecture Series, which provided the kind of provocative intellectual stimulation that is the heart of any college community; the Pioneer Players' superb production of "Carnival"; the appearance of Louis Falco and Company of dancers; the lively student dance program presented by the Contemporary Dance Society and the Women's Recreation Association; a series of concerts by the Music Department; a wide variety of films, including works by such directors as Bergman, Fellini, Resnais, Truffaut and Antonioni, and continuing exhibits of faculty and student art in the Gallerie in the Hunziker Wing.

Our ability to present art exhibits will be vastly improved in the Fall with the completion of the new Fine Arts Building. In addition to the works of faculty and students, the College owns a sizeable collection of outstanding paintings and art objects which have never been given a proper setting.

Various methods also have been employed to disseminate information on these programs. The Arts Council has produced a handsome brochure and the Music Department has a leaflet that has been distributed on campus. A regular weekly calendar comes out of Mr. Carrano's office and the newly established Speculum will supplement these efforts. The major source of information is, of course, the Beacon, which is readily available. These sources, plus the press releases distributed by the Community Relations Office, should provide ample opportunity for any interested person on campus to find out what programs are scheduled.

The job being done by all these individuals on campus is first rate and augurs well for this indispensable facet of college life.

Foilists End Season; Team Returns in '70

At the Intercollegiate Women's Fencing Association Championships held at New York University on April 3 and 4, our women's team of Lee Ann Weidner, Anna Nowell, Leslie Meddles, Pat Miller, and Dee Falato faced nineteen member teams. It was fenced in a round robin with each girl of the four girl team fencing the corresponding member of the other team. Each girl thus fenced nineteen bouts for a team total of seventy-six bouts fenced. Lee Weidner completed her two day record with twelve wins and seven defeats. Leslie Meddles, fencing in the second position, also accumulated a twelve-seven record. In the third position Anna Nowell obtained a fourteen-five record. The work of the fourth position was divided between Pat Miller, who had a seven-four record and Dee Falato whose record was six-two. This gave the team an overall record of fifty-one wins and twenty-five losses placing them in sixth place behind Hunter, N.Y.U., Montclair State, F.D.U.-Teaneck, and Jersey City State. This was a very fine accomplishment for our young team since most of the other nineteen teams had seasoned fencers. On the whole the women's fencing team had a very good season and they are looking forward to improving their record next season.

There are a few loose ends to be completed, however. Three of our women fencers — Dee Falato, Leslie Meddles and Pat Miller — will fence in the A.F.L.A. Under-19 North Atlantic Championships. Dee Falato will also be competing in the North Atlantic Championships with Captain Lee Weidner. Both of these competitions will be held in May.

On Sunday, March 22, Joan McGovern, Pat Miller and Leslie Meddles participated in the A.F.L.A. Women's Prep which was held at F.D.U.-Teaneck. Leslie Meddles, who is a lefty fencer, reached the final round of nine girls. In a round robin Leslie compiled a record of seven victories and one defeat to emerge the victor and recipient of the Madeline Miyamoto Award.

Taking everything into consideration this years fencing team has had a pretty good season and it will, hopefully, get better as all the girls will be returning next season.

On Wednesday, March 18, the P.S.C. women fencers faced a strong N.Y.U. team. The J.V. squad of Bev Vannatta, Laurie Smith, Carol Pesco and Joan McGovern dropped their match 11-5. The varsity match was also 11-5 in N.Y.U.'s favor. Lee Weidner, Anna Nowell, Leslie Meddles and Dee Falato put up a very strong fight nevertheless. They are looking forward to meeting this team again in the Intercollegiate where they hope to better their score.

On the following Wednesday, March 25, the team traveled to Hunter College. The J.V. squad defeated Hunter 9-7 as Dee Falato won all four of her bouts. Laurie Smith took two bouts and Bev Vannatta, Carol Pesco and Joan McGovern each took one bout. The J.V. squad, which is composed of mainly first year fencers did not have a very strong season as they finished with a record of 3-9. Since this is the case the girls will have the next three years to look forward to as they increase their skill and move from a losing team to a victorious one.

In the varsity match against Hunter our squad took a small lead but were unable to hold it as they lost 7-9. Lee Weidner, Anna Nowell, and Dee Falato each contributed two victories while Pat Miller contributed one. Also fencing for P.S.C. was Leslie Meddles. The varsity dual meet season is now finished with the final record being 9-6. There is only one I.W.F.A. competition left, the Intercollegiate Championships on April 3 and 4 at N.Y.U.

Lukach to Captain '70-'71 Team

Pete Lukach, a 6:4, 200 pound junior from Passaic, has been elected to captain the 1970-71 Pioneers varsity basketball team.

Lukach played a big part in helping last winter's Pioneer team finish with its best won-loss mark in 19 years. The rugged forward averaged 9.1 points and 10 rebounds a game as PSC posted an enviable 15-9 record. It matched the most games ever won in a single season by a Paterson State basketball team.

Lukach's 9.1 scoring average was even bigger than it looks because he made 52 per cent of his shots from the floor. That figure tied him for second best on the team. Doug Gross, Paterson State's All-State, and NAIA honorable mention All-American performer, also hit at a 52 per cent clip and 6:5 freshman Gary Hipp finished No. 13 in the NAIA in field goal shooting with a 63.3 average.

With just two seniors on the squad last season, PSC fans should be in store for another banner campaign in 1970-71.

1956 I was a coach for the St. Joseph High School, West New York Junior Varsity — six wins — 1 loss. This team went on to the Hudson County Championship and was undefeated on the Varsity Level.

1960 to 1962 I coached at St. Michael's High, Freshman Team — five wins — two losses.

1962 thru 1965 I was the line coach at Ferris High School, Jersey City. Head coach William Nill, Quarterback coach John Sova, and myself as the head line coach took over after the first game of the 1962 season and from that year with a 0 win and eight loss record, we brought the team to four wins three losses and one tie. The best record in fifteen years for the school. At the same time at the freshman level and the Junior Varsity level the teams, under our guidance both brought in nine wins and one loss records.

Both teams were second in the County and lost only in the final championship game, the freshman to Lincoln High School and the Junior Varsity to North Bergen High School.

1966 William Nill and his head coach and myself as head line coach were the only two coaches for the team and took Wallington High School's team from a two win six loss record to a successful six win two loss record.

1967 to 1968 I was assistant line coach at Don Bosco High School at Ramsey on the varsity level.

Professional Experience — 1956 I signed with the farm team of the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football league. I started for the team at guard and completed the season being awarded the most improved lineman of the year.

1957 I signed with the Montreal Alouettes and played all the exhibition games and two regular season games until sidelined by injury.

1959 I played with the Baltimore Bronco's a farm team of the Baltimore Colts.

1963 I started the season with the Jersey Jets, until injury brought on my retirement. I acted from 1962 to 1965 as a line scout for the team while also gainfully employed as the team's physician.

1968 I came out of retirement and through this past season (1969) I played with the Plainfield Red Oaks now the Elizabeth Tigers of the Atlantic Coast League and farm team of the Baltimore Colts.

Pioneers, Newark Deadlocked 5-5 After PSC 9th Inning Rally

by Bert Butts

While the New York Yankees were coming from a four to one deficit to within one run of the Boston Red Sox in the last inning of Tuesday's home opener, Paterson State's baseball team pushed across five runs in the ninth to tie Newark State College in what was the first game of the season for both clubs. The game was called after ten innings because of darkness. Because of the 5 to 5 deadlock, the game must be re-scheduled, starting over again from the first inning.

Newark State dominated the first eight and a half innings of play. Tom Goldfede started off the second inning with an opposite field triple and came home on Bob Robbins' sacrifice fly. A walk and two fielding errors helped give NSC two more runs in the fifth inning. Right fielder, Bob Ferrante, opened the sixth with a home run. In the same inning, two consecutive walks and a base hit tallied another run, increasing Newark's lead to five runs.

Showing a sluggish defense and sporadic offense for the first eight innings, Paterson's nine pulled through with a five run ninth inning rally. Hard hitting second baseman, Paul Bruno, led off the last inning with a line drive single over shortstop. Opposing pitcher Heinreich Marawski contributed three walks which drove in the first PSC run. After John Spardaro struckout, Coach Learn had Bob Fallon pitch hit for pitcher Bert Butts. Bobby came through with a clutch single, driving in the second and third runs. On Joe Gregory's fielders choice Bob moved to second base and Ron Van Sadars stayed at third. With two outs and trailing by two runs, Vinnine Sausa rapped a hard grounder up the middle, scoring two more runs and tying the game at 5 all. Bruno KO'd for the third out, ending the rally.

Bob Caswell came on to shutout Newark in the top of the tenth. After Paterson failed to score in the bottom of the inning, the game was called because of darkness.

Newark State's pitcher

Murawski pitched 8 1/3 innings giving up five runs on eight hits, eight walks and two errors. Bert Butts allowed seven hits, five walks and two errors, for five runs. First baseman, Dennis DeWork and catcher Ron VanSadars collected two hits a piece for PSC. Vinnie Sausa went one for three and collected two RBI's.

Due to the tie, all statistical information became void, and the game will be replayed at a future date.

Gross Heads '70 Dream Team

It was the year of the underclassman in the New Jersey State College Athletic Conference and nothing is a clearer reflection than the annual all-league basketball team as selected by the six head coaches.

Four underclassmen, headed by Paterson sophomore Doug Gross, comprise the 1969-70 dream team. Other named to the five-man squad were Ralph Brateris of Trenton, John Blazich of Glassboro, Harry James of Montclair and Fred Douglas of Jersey City. All are juniors except Douglas, the lone senior on the team.

Brateris and Blazich are the only repeaters from the 1968-69 all-star club. Douglas was a first-teamer two years ago as a sophomore, but settled for honorable mention last season.

The voting was less complicated than in recent years, with Gross, Brateris, Blazich and Douglas all unanimous selections. James barely beat out teammate Bob Sienkiewicz for the fifth spot.

Gross led the conference in scoring with a 24.4 average, followed by Douglas' 23.1. Blazich, No. 2 pointmaker in the NJSCAC a year ago, averaged 18.4, while Brateris, the leading scorer last season, had a 16.4 norm. James was a 14.9 scorer.

"Gross was also the highest vote-getter on the all-state college division team," said Ken Meyer, Chuck Hassol, Secretary of the New Jersey Basketball Writers Association, presents Paterson State Sophomore Doug Gross with All-State plaque. Presentation was made at the 8th Annual NJBWA All-State banquet at the Friar Tuck Inn.

coach of Paterson's most successful club in 20 years. "Gross had a great year. He hit 52 per cent from the floor, and he shot mostly from the outside, so that's quite a percentage. He's been a tremendous offensive player and his defense has been coming around, too. He has the capabilities to do an awful lot for us the next couple of years. He really came a long way this year."

Gross was a 23.5 scorer on the year, hitting 30 points or better on seven occasions and missing the NJSCAC single-game record by one point with a 40-point show in his finale against Trenton.

Brateris suffered a slow start, hampered largely by foul problems. "There was a lot of pressure on him," explains

Trenton coach Terry Baker. "He had to score and hit the boards. We rely on him an awful lot. But Ralph is a solid all-around player who improved his passing a great deal this year. We're real happy we got him."

Blazich became only the second player in Glassboro history to pass 1000 points in his junior year, and climbed all the way to the No. 5 spot in career Prof scoring. He led his team in both scoring and rebounding for the second year in a row.

"He played only two bad games and he was sick in one of those," said Jack Collins, Glassboro's rookie coach. "That's quite a feat, 20 out of 22 good games. Besides scoring well, he had a great rebounding year and played very good defense despite consistently going against guys bigger. He was still playing as well at the end of the season as he was earlier, which was a tribute to hard work and being in shape. We're looking forward to even greater things from him next year."

Douglas finished his illustrious Jersey City career with 1498 points for a school record. He hit 49 per cent from the floor, an amazing (for a big man) 84.6 per cent from the foul line and took in 14.6 rebounds per game for an outstanding all-around campaign.

"He became a complete player this year," said Gothic coach Larry Schiner. "After he reached 1000 points, he seemed to put everything together. He improved in all departments over the previous season."

Douglas and James joined Gross on the all-state college division team which was picked by New Jersey sportswriters.

James' superb all-around play was a key reason for another outstanding Montclair season: 23-3 record, third straight conference championship.

"He was the kid who always took the best scorer on the other team," said Ollie Gelston, Montclair coach. "He also took command of our fast break and was our third leading rebounder, even though he is only six even. He's a solid all-around player who is very aggressive and has great hands and quickness."
